Adrian is excited over a most gigantic swindle. On Friday April 1st, Lewis Weber bought notes of the firm selected not been authorized, only Mayor Navin, in anticipation that they would be authorized, had signed them. A Detroit firm who received them from Hutchins claiming they were regularly issued, said they had been offered there by a representative of a New York house, and as other firms were asking for over $1,000 in bonds, at 60 per cent, had been compelled with the Union Trust Company. Both Mr. Mayor and Rec. Hutchins claim they signed the bonds but Mr. Rec. says he never signed Queen. If so, the plot will look black.

NAVIN'S NEIGHBORS.

Naturally, there is great excitement at Adrian and also in New York at our little fraudulent issue of water bonds, and the agency of Mayor Navin and others in the matter. What is known is embodied herewith from the dispatches of Friday and Saturday as follows:

Adrian voted to bond this city for $150,000 for water works, and the agent of the city counsel, never authorized the issue of the bonds. All the dispatches from Adrian to parties in New York giving legal opinions on the bonds, are false, and, etc., are forgeries. Judge Howell and Mr. Upjohn never gave any such opinions at all. The city council met Friday morning and resolved that the city recorder should notify the public that no water bonds have been issued, and that employed legal counsel to assist the city attorney to defend all claims against the city. The best legal opinions are now expressed that the city cannot be holden for the bonds. Seventy five thousand dollars worth of the forged bonds were regularly signed by the city recorder, who stupidly obeyed the orders of Mayor Navin in doing so. The signatures on the remaining $75,000 are forgeries. City Recorder Stanton faces the music all right and nobody believes that he did anything but to commit a blunder. It is not known how much actual cash Navin has in his possession. He left Friday night, taking the Wabash cars at Maple Creek. A dispatch from New York to the Adrian Times says: The whole of the money for these bogus bonds is still in the hands of the Union Trust company, all safe, and that no one will be the loser.

Recorder Stanton has told various stories and at first denied issuing or signing any bonds. Inspector Stanton Friday morning asked him point blank if he had ever signed and certified the resolution relative to issuing water bonds, and after much hesitation he replied that he had not signed them as he knew of. He is now under arrest.

The first intimation that there were bonds was received Monday in a telegram from the Connecticut Insurance Company, of Hartford, asking if they were regular and good at $1 10 Agent W. B. Thompson, cashier, replied Saturday, Toby's bank, replied that no bonds had been issued.

Then inquiries were made at New York, and Thursday's Times contained, they telegraphed Navin, who promptly answered that they were all O. K., and he got Smith & Toby, bankers, and Herman Loomis, of the Adrian Savings Bank by telegraph signing a message he had written saying that the people had voted to raise $150,000 to build water works.

A stormy session of the council was held this morning, at which Capt. C. H. Miller, Recorder Stanton's council, denounced the Navin Aldermen as being legally implicated with Navin.

Excitement at Adrian over the attempt to dispose of the bogus water bonds of that city does not abate. Complaints were entered yesterday against Mayor Navin and Ralph J. Jewell, the charge being conspiracy to defraud. Jewell was arrested and being unable to escape bail, was put in charge of an officer over Sunday. Jewell was formerly city treasurer. His place of business is closed and it is reported that he has made an assignment to his wife.

Money was obtained by Navin at Smith & Toby's bank just before he left, and an acquaintance also states that he saw in Navin's possession twenty one thousand dollars. Navin probably has plenty of money but just how much is not known.

Adrian papers say that some weeks ago Tom Navin forged a deed of a brick store in this city and 160 acres of land in Hudson, the property of Charles McMillan, an aged Irishman of this city, for whom Navin had been transacting business. The deed bested the ownership of this property in Navin. McMinn's signature was produced through misrepresentation. Navin claiming it to be a lease. Subsequently Navin mortgaged the whole property so acquired to Smith & Toby, bankers of this city, for about $10,000, which he secured.

Against the warning of Mrs. Brumfield, of Summit, a peddler entered the yard which was guarded by savage dogs, which attacked and tore him to pieces.

McCoy & Ayres' saw mill 7½ Cadillac, was burned Sunday morning, involving a loss of $10,000.

H. W. Sage & Co. have offered for sale their mill and salt block property in Bay City, $20,000,000 feet of standing pine on the Au Sable, Au Gres, and Rifle rivers, and 40,000,000 feet logs. The mill has the largest capacity of any in Michigan, except Morman's great establishment.

Wm. H. Landers, a well known business man of Greenville, died Monday morning.

Hugh S. Peoples was arrested Monday for complicity in the murder of Martha Whitin, and Dr. Hedgwood, also, as an accomplice. Both were lodged in jail.

THE ADAMS FUND BILL.

The details of Mr. Adams' bill are almost endless, now that the eyes of Adrian people are opened to them. Notwithstanding the assertion of the New York people, the Adrian people think he made a good bargain from New York with $31,000 from the Trust company or some other party. All. Steams telegraphed from New York that all the bonds thus far authorized are signed by Navin and Stanton, and further, that Navin made a deal with the Bank Note Company to do the engraving. They expressed the bonds to him January 20, and he gave them a check on the Union Trust Company for $31,000. The bonds were issued to no late, and thus the money unpaid. Howell and Underwood's signatures are dangerously clever forgeries, believed them to have been written by Navin. Stanton's signature and the seal attached to bonds are genuine. Navin was told by the President of the Trust company that he must get a certified copy of the resolution authorizing him to check out the money. That morning, Tuesday, and the Trust company would then pay the money to any person on Navin's order.

The president proceeded to the Adrian Council, and Ralph J. Jewell, ex-treasurer, being charged with conspiracy with Mayor Navin and R. J. Jewell to defraud the New York parties, clerk was held in the sum of $5,000 bail, which he obtained in five minutes.

Advertisements, now in New York, after investigation, telegraphs to the Adrian Record: "I find nothing against Ali. Clerk or Gardner."

R. J. Jewell failed to get bail and is in jail.

In a conference in New York between Stearns and the officers of the Trust Company, it was proposed to return the bonds if the Common Council of Adrian would authorize the issue of the money, the proceeds to the Union Trust Company to be paid to Navin. This would probably be done, and will end all legal difficulties here.

Jessie V. Bland of Saginaw, daughter of Hon. Thomas Bland, left home Friday morning Sunday night, and is supposed to have drowned herself. She entertained company in the evening, retired at 10 o'clock, and occupied her room alone. Friday night, she left a note saying she had gone off to die. A brother committed suicide about three years ago by taking Paris Green. She was 19 years old and a favorite in society.

News came to Lansing on the 11th inst. of the death of Robert H. Kedzie, professor of chemistry in the Mississippi agricultural college and son of Prof. R. C. Kedzie, of our state agricultural college.

In the severe gale on the 11th, five cribs of the railroad dock at Markinaw City were carried away with the sliding ice. Two were subsequently picked up by the steamer.

Fire yesterday, which did not attract much attention, at Powers's opera house, Grand Rapids, in which several hundred school children were engaged, a temporary stage built up in the form of seats to the height of perhaps 20 feet, gave way, carrying down with it 100 little boys and girls seated on it. One boy had his leg broken, and a panic was averted.

Potatoes are moving at about old prices, the latter being fully sustained. Pork and lard have been firm. For hams, shoulders and dried meats a good local demand prevails.

TONY PASTOR IN TROUBLE.

Tony Pastor, of New York, who is now, with his inimitable variety combination making a tour of the Union, is recognized as the leading character vocalist and variety performer of the United States. The writer of this article met Mr. Pastor recently, and found him as genial in private as he is in public life. Being offered the opinion of a physician of health, and he replied: "I am as well as I ever was, but I am not as active as I should be, if I had not been troubled with a very severe affection of the throat, which I attribute to the fact that I have contracted a cold in the head, which I could not get rid of, and which I have neglected to cure, and which has settled on my throat." He then asked what he should do, and he replied, "let Jarvis cure it." Mr. Pastor said he would do so, and he did so. The result was a great German Remedy, an excellent preparation of the cure or relief of rheumatism, and that it was the only thing used among professional people for this distressing complaint. He took bottles of it with him to Europe for seven years, and would not be without it, and knew that it was very popular with all classes of people. Among others, the Duke of Edinburgh, from the Brooklyn (N. Y) Times, recently wrote to an Jarvis, the publisher of the Cairo (Ill.) Evening Sun, in paying a bill for advertising, that he had sold the Sun's paper, and expressing his sorrow at the loss of the Sun's paper, and expressed great regret. The whole office was knocked into ten thousand pieces and everything in it was destroyed, except, which was mercifully preserved." The publication of the above letter of Mr. Pastor's incident are a true index of the unexampled popularity the Great German Remedy enjoys everywhere. At a St. Louis theatre recently Mr. Pastor, in the course of his remarks to the performers met with a painful mishap, which he was able to bear with a smile, and he correspondent, Mr. H. felt impelled to invite from the superintendency owing to a piece of other jealousy.

Rescued From Death.

William H. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., writes: "At the age of 20 I was taken with HEMORRHAGE OF THE LUNGS, severe cough. I lost my appetite and flesh, and was confined to my bed. I was pronounced by the Hospital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lungs as big as a half dollar. At one time I expected every minute to die. I gave up hope. Not a friend told me of Dr. WILLIAMS' INDIAN PINK. THE LAST HOPE I had, I took, when to my surprise, I commenced to feel better, and to day I feel better than for three years past.

I write this hoping every one afflicted with diseased lungs will take Dr. WILLIAM HALLS' BALSAM, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION IS NOT INCURABLE. I can positively say it has done for me what I hoped for, and I hope that others may also have taken advantage of this remedy.
