Birmingham Eccentric.

WHITEHEAD & MITCHELL, PUBLISHERS.

BIRMINGHAM, MICH.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

MICHIGAN.

Abner Stevens, who located at Ridgeway when Michigan was a territory, died Wednesday.

Telegrams received at Adrian, say that Nevinds known to have crossed the Rio Grande into Mexico.

The Mystery girl, who went to Portland to be married, and whose father interfered with the arrangement, is in the care of the Sheriff of Ionia, and is to have a guardian appointed instead of a husband.

The Circuit Court of the 17th says: The city of Adrian has been made defendant in an action for the recovery of damages, principally issue of the Franklin bank note company, which cost them $8-25 for engraving and printing the fraudulent bonds, which was ordered by Navin as Mayor, Judge Cooley, of the supreme court of Michigan, who is in the city, will be called upon as arbitrator to settle if possible, the claims against the city of Adrian.

Coal has just been unearthed a mile north of Flushing, at depth of 11 feet. A vein of solid coal nearly three feet thick was found, and specimens weighing over 40 pounds were mined. There are also excellent stone quarries in the vicinity, and the citizens are very anxious to see a railway transportation facility.

NORTH DAKOTA.

About noon on Wednesday, two men entered the office of the Wagner county treasurer in the City Hall, Bismarck, with the pretense of wishing to pay their taxes. Treasurer Crosby and one of the clerks were alone in the office who wished to pay a tax on some property in the Black Hills. Mr. Crosby opened the book slowly, to give the man a chance to describe the property, and the man was slow in getting off, because he was feeling for lozenges to relieve his cough. While in this position the treasurer cast an eye over the self-possessed man, saw the other man inside the counter, with his hand in the money drawer, and a lot of bills in his hand. The fellow made for the door, and Crosby followed, shouting "stop pickpocket." No policeman or other person, however, stopped the thief, and when the treasurer reached the door, street entrance he was making tracks down Main Street toward nowhere. The amount taken was $75.

It looks as Stanton of Adrian, has been arrested for complicity in the bond swindle. Charles Fox, of Wayne, employed as bookkeeper in the Mills, on Grand Island, had his dwelling burglarized and ransacked while unemployed. Anti-Yellow on the 16th.

Forty years ago Hugh Arbor have taken of fence for a little pickpocket in the Daily News of that place, reflecting on them, and powerful condition not to purchase the paper, or patron or to make advertise it.

A man calling himself James Knight, a bookmaker from California, representing himself as very rich, sent the cook of the Vernon House and Dorothy to the First National Bank of Lansing, with a check for $2,000 on the National Bank of Chicago, signed Jerd Varnum. Not knowing much of Mr. Knight, the bank sent the check to the check office and discovered it to be a forgery. Meanwhile, the Probate Court at Ionia disposed. William Ionia, the Sheriff, is her guardian.

An aged man, known as "Uncle Owen," in his attempt to look a dose of carbolic acid by mistake on Friday, and died from the effect.

The Fraser Manufacturing Co. is to be closed indefinitely.

The accommodation of the mail passenger service from Adrian to Toledo, and Adrian Marquette railroad, is suspended, and a train will have local accommodation Michigan Pacemakers and Owen. Acid Lathrop, of Lathrop, Jerry Smith, of Ridgeville, and J. Burpee, of Kansas, are the Republican Committee of St. Clair and Wm. W. Beach, of Ingleside.

Rev. E. N. Nichols, aged 84 years, and for 40 years a Presbyterian minister, has just died in Jackson.

The physicians who attended Theodore Patton murdered in Detroit, state that he lived 15 minutes after being shot directly through the heart. It is regarded as a remarkable instance of the tenacity of life.

Will Hoemans of Jackson, formerly freight conductor on the M. C. R. R., is reported fatally hurt on a western road.

A correspondent at Saint Beach writes: "What Detroit, Huron county and all want, is the Tuscarora railroad continued to our harbor. This would establish itself as a main line by, indicated by between here and Detroit, also to Canada by boat."

Port Huron custom house records show that during the month of January 2,500 immigrants entered the United States at that port. 1,379 were males and 1,121 females.

The Jackson Citizen states that Brietenbach, the convict who made such a daring escape recently, made a rope which he used from the little pieces of tarred twine with which the bundles of stares are tied that come to the cooper shop in which he worked. It must have taken months of work at night in his cell.

Hay high hopes to have a Shipping hotel.

A destructive fire visited Belleville on the 18th. Dr. L. Q. Johnson loses stole, drugs, etc. loss $10,000; Chandler & Evans $1,000; "Taylor House" $3,500, etc. Fire companies from Battle Creek and Charlotte went to the rescue.

W. R. Schuyler of Marshall, at one time president of the Calhoun county agricultural society, has just died.

South Lyon talks of having a wood bending factory.

A sheep growers' meeting, to organize a county association, will be held at Benton Harbor, Saturday, Feb. 25th.

Recorder Frank Stanton, whose name has been mixed up unpleasantly in the Adrian bond swindle, and who is now in jail, has become insane, though it is thought to be of a temporary nature.

Michael Toole, of Battle Creek, was found in the race yesterday, supposed to have fallen in while intoxicated, as a bottle of whisky was also found in his pocket.

A post mortem examination of the body of Theodore Patton, shot in Macauley's saloon Detroit, showed that the ball had passed directly through the breast and lung, and lodged under the skin of the back. He was buried Sunday.

Charles Iowan, of 296 Fifth street, Detroit, took arsenic on Saturday night with suicidal intent, and died Sunday morning. He was under the influence of liquor.

The capital stock of Ward's Detroit & Lake Superior line has been increased from $30,000 to $125,000.

John tearrow, a native of Auburn, N. Y., a former warden of the state prison there, also for many years a magistrate in Jackson and a warden of the Michigan state prison, subsequently a resident of Berrien Springs, for the last 20 years a resident of Liberty, Mise, died at the latter place Monday aged 78.

In attempting to drive across the Air Line at Spring Arbor, on Monday before the engine, Oscar Teft was struck, his horse killed, buggy smashed and himself seriously injured.

The Adrian Times, Monday, says: Sunday night about 8 o'clock Charles Cannon, one of the oldest and wealthiest citizens of Deerfield, was shot in his barn by Charles Colbath, oldest son of Richard Colbath, of this city.

In the Hollywood examination on Tuesday the cross-examination of Dolphus stricted nothing to impair the testimony given on the direct examination. John F. Moundewitt testified that in January 1877, Hollywood asked him to carry a letter to Ann Arbor.

As two men were engaged in weighing bundles of steel bars at Robbins & Davisons, 95 and 97 Larned street, on Tuesday, a large mass of steel, which had been standing on end, leaning against rocks, fell, forcing out almost the entire end of the building, which is a two-story structure. No one happened to be in front at the time, and no one was hurt.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Counsel for ex-Minister Christiancy have filed a motion, asking for the appointment of a special examiner to take further testimony in New York in rebuttal to testimony in by the defendant in answer to the original bill. A letter purporting to have been written by Giles was also offered as evidence. The court reserved the decision on the motion.

Patrick Shannon's bank, of Terre Haute, was robbed of $1,600 about noon on Wednesday. One man engaged the cashier in conversation, while the other passed behind the counter and got the money. This was the closest hour, and the exact method, of the robbery at Detroit, of the Wayne county treasury.

On Wednesday the Tammany members of New York voted with the Republicans and elected a Republican clerk. In the Senate the same section of the Democratic party voted with the Republicans to take up the resolution giving the Lieut. Governor power to appoint the senate committees.

It is reported that Senator Hill of Georgia, is lying very low in Philadelphia, his illness aggravated by the last operation on his mouth for cancer.

It is stated, on official information from Washington, that 100,000 refugee Jews are on their way to this country, or would reach the United States between now and March.

A dispatch from Asheville, N. C., says: Half a mountain, in the Alleghany range on the Tennessee border of Mitchell county, commenced shaking and to slide, causing a great panic among the inhabitants of that section. A large part of the peak has sunk into the ground.

Grant to Jay Fodder, owner of the destroyed World building in New York, was examined before the coroner on Thursday and gave bail to await the action of the grand jury.

In the house on Thursday the bill to reduce the salaries of members of the cabinet was reported adversely.

John Lanahan of Rock Rapids, Ia., was shot by his own daughter at the instigation of her mother. The motive assigned was that he refused consent to her marriage with one Herb who furnished the pistol by which the deed was done, and that he did not provide well for the family.

The large Kennedy factory, of Fred Jackson & Co., Pittsburg, Pa., was destroyed by an explosion on Friday, and 15 persons were killed outright, 50 received fatal injuries and multitudes were wounded in less serious degree. The factory was the old homestead of Admiral Porter. A few minutes before the explosion