IN MEMORIAM.

To the memory of Miss Mary E. Sherman, who died January 17, 1882, the following lines are inscribed:

Not a groan,
Not a sigh,
Not a tear,
At the thought
That she must die.
'Twas regret from
Friends to part,
That with anguish
Wrung her heart,
Let a life, of
Love and labor,
For her Maker,
Friends, and neighbors,
Leave a record
Just and true,
Of the deeds one
Soul has done.
How we miss her
None can tell,
Only those who've
Said farewell.
Farewell on earth
To meet again
In a land
That's free from pain,
Sure God's promises offer
'Tis a land called paradise.

A PUBLIC DUTY

We are not in the habit of publishing any sort of patent medicine in our columns, for the reason that a newspaper should be just that, which is going on its first century, and will attend and to what may, and ought to be its mission. But we happen to know Mr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., and can personally testify to the excellence of the medicine which the Doctor calls "Favorite Remedy" for diseases of the Blood, Kidneys, and Bowels (that is equal "We could not be without it for five times the dollar but it is—Daily Times."

My digestive organs became impaired, and I was troubled terribly constipated for days. After trying four bottles of your Burdock Blood Bitters, I was entirely cured, and feel like a new man. I can now eat without distress, and sleep soundly. I cannot say too much in praise of your Burdock Blood Bitters."
