TO TROT FOR $10,000.

THE STAR EVENT OF THE YEAR IN THE HORSE WORLD.

The Great Merchants' and Manufacturers' Stake Race at Detroit, July 21.—Speculations as to Its Outcome.—The Cracks of the Trotting Turf Will Compete.—Some of the Probable Starters.

The subject which just now engages the attention of all votaries of the trotting turf is the coming contest for the Merchants' and Manufacturers' stake of $10,000, which takes place at Detroit during the week beginning July 20. Interest is at high tide among horsemen throughout the country, and the chances of the different probable starters are canvassed with earnestness wherever horse talk is heard. This great "fixed event" of the Blue Ribbon meeting has come to be regarded as the star event of the year in the horse world. Some one has aptly termed it the "Blue Ribbon of the Trotting Turf," borrowing the popular title of the famous English Derby.

For the third annual renewal of the Merchants' and Manufacturers', there were thirteen subscribers when the stake closed last April, all of whom have made good the payments due to date. Nominators must name their horses on Monday next, and as the time draws near subscriptions are in great demand. Secretary Campbell reports ten applications, within as many days, from owners of promising trotters, who are anxious to purchase at a premium the right to nominate their horses for the stake. It may be now taken as settled that a baker's dozen of the fastest young trotters in the world will score up for the word this year. A very great race is sure to develop among so many good ones.

The clever Kansas City trainer, Bob Stewart, again has his eye on the big prize, and if there is truth in the stories told of the speed that Ryland T. is showing in his work at Terre Haute, the Missourian may be able to repeat his victory of a year ago. Ryland's record is 2:20¼, but it is said that he has already trotted better than 2:20 this season, and is gaining speed at the rate of a second a week. The horse is doubtless a marvel in point of speed, and Stewart seems to be saving him for the event.

A starter that looks to be "in it" from first to last is Honest George, named by A. J. Hawe, of Pennsylvania. This horse made a record of 2:22½ in the sixth heat of a race last week. He is fast and a stayer.

Another eastern entry that will be strongly fancied is Jerome Prince, owned by Vandergrift & Odel, of New York. His record is only 2:25, but he seems to have a habit of winning races no matter how fast the time may happen to be.

Andy McDowell, who trains for the Montana copper king, Marcus Daly, will start one of the fast ones in his stable, probably Fantasie, 2:25.

The bay gelding, Prince M.; from La Porte, Ind., is another fast one that may start for the great stake. His record is 2:19¾, made last week, and it is said he can trot in 2:15.

Others that will probably be named are, Nutting King, 2:23¼, a very fast Kentucky stallion; Maffie H., 2:24¼, likewise from the blue grass region; Clara G., 2:28¾, owned by J. I. Case, of Wisconsin; Bismont, 2:24, from the stable of Gov. Hatfield, of Chicago, and Michigan's representative, Sir Arthur, the property of G. H. Hammond. At present the remaining starters cannot be foretold with any certainty, but fade-goers are already assured of seeing thirteen of the pick and choice of the whole country start for the splendid prize on the second day of the Blue Ribbon Meeting, Tuesday, July 21.

Mrs. Jno. Harmon continues to improve in health.

The picnic held in Elliott's grove upon the Fourth, was a success both as to attendance and finances, and district No. 5 will be enabled to secure through the teacher, Miss Eleanor Spencer, a fine flag.

BIG BEAVER BLIZZARDS.

How the Eagle did scream, to be sure.

The Beaver against the world for sleepy heads.

Miss Jennie Sturgis met with an accident at Rochester the Fourth.

Miss Frankie Gibbs spent the Fourth visiting relatives and friends at Oak Grove.

Wonder if our business men were appreciating the grave yard like appearance of the Beaver all day the Fourth. We hope so.

Henry Bennell has returned from a three months visit to Chicago and looks as bright as a new dollar.

All the sports went to the blow out at Rochester and if there are some swelled heads in consequence, it is not to be wondered at.

When we tell our readers again that there will be fire works at the Beaver, we will have something tangible to base our statement upon not rely on promises that were only made to be broken. We acted in good faith and made the announcement by request. Live and learn. We are wiser by several points than we were.

Justice F. R. Lamb wears a kind of a well-I have-done-it-at-last look on his face lately, and a very satisfied look it is too. The cause, well, he married a couple the other night (his maiden ceremony), done it up brown, first-class style and all that, yes, and set 'em up in the bargain. Yes, Fred is all mill now, sawmill, picket mill, feed-mill, matrimonial-mill, &c., &c.

Terms of Sale

(Show this to your Customers.)

"Please deliver at my residence, from your Nurseries, * * the varieties and quantities of stock named (NO SUBSTITUTION BE MADE) * * * All stock to be of your first-class grade and to be delivered in a healthy condition."

The above is a part of the order-blank which our customers sign in ordering stock from us, and this shows the fair terms under which they are to receive stock from our Nurseries; for if we fail to deliver as per terms of this order, of course they are released from their obligation to pay. Our stock must be as ordered, if we want our pay. Notice that we agree not to substitute. Many firms have a clause in their order-blank giving them the right to substitute other kinds, in case they have not the kinds selected by customers. This is not fair to the customer, and customers buying under such terms are not sure as to the varieties that they will receive. There is much complaint in regard to this; but all customers buying from us will have no cause for complaint, as the stock will be exactly what they order in each and every case.
