DIED

JAMES—Last week Saturday morning at her home in Birmingham, Mich., at the age of 75 years, Mrs. Elizabeth James, wife of Mason I. James and mother of Mrs. John Cole of Port Huron, Mich.; Mr. W. C. Mooney of Damon, Mich.; Mrs. M. H. Gilnie of Au Sable, Mich., and Mrs. E. K. Potter of Alpena, Mich.

Mrs James has been a great sufferer for eight months from a paralytic stroke which she received in January last, but which she bore with great Christian fortitude, never allowing a murmur to escape her lips and always expressing herself that God's hand had afflicted her and that "He doeth all things well."

Our dear mother, the subject of this sketch, was born in Unadilla, N. Y., on the 3rd of October, 1805. At the age of 22 years she married Charles Mooney of New York, by whom she had six children. She lived in the same state the first forty years of her life and buried Mr. Mooney there. Immediately after his death she came to Michigan, settling on a farm one and one-half miles south of Birmingham, where she lived a widow for fourteen years, and her children grew up around her and all settled in life during this time. She married Mr. James in 1864 and has lived in the the village of Birmingham ever since. She endeared herself to many, for she had many admirable traits of character. She took a deep interest in all that concerned the church of which she was a member, and her last kind act was to deed the pew which she had at its so many years to the use of the church for the minister's family. Her charities were many, being always ready to help in any good work and seeking out the poor and needy.

Warren Warblings.

There is talk of building a sidewalk from the D., S. & B. C. R. R. to the village. Pay in your subscriptions, boys.

We don't hear anything from the ladies Aid society lately. Guess that long to be remembered excursion to Sugar island drained the treasure box of all its sweets.

Wild west yarns spun day and night at Will McMullin's. Mac has just returned from Kansas.

Sunday is a very dull day at Warren and would be exceedingly more so but for the fact that one of the large stores is kept open nearly all day day Sunday. Just before and after morning services a stream of people may be seen going and coming to and from the back door with their purchases, consisting of dry goods, groceries, drugs, etc. The enterprising owner of this store is one of the head men in the M. E. church, Mr. J. C. Mason. He says he has been serving the Lord for 20 years? Guess he stretched it a little.

VALUABLE Real Estate FOR SALE IN BIRMINGHAM.

The following desirable property has been placed in our hands for sale, as the owner is desirous of disposing of it immediately:

The large and commodious dwelling at the depot now occupied by the owner, Melvin Rose—the best located home in Birmingham, very pleasantly situated and well fitted throughout. A good barn, small fruits and a good cistern goes with this place.

Also the John Baldwin brick house near the depot with good well and cistern, apples, peaches, grapes, pears in abundance. Both places extend from Maple avenue to the next street north, and are the most desirable places ever offered in Birmingham.

26 ACRES

inside of the corporation will be sold cheap. 12 acres of heavy timber and the balance under a high state of cultivation. $1,000 worth of timber can be cut from this lot of land then sold for village lots. A fine chance for speculation. The owner has a standing offer within $200 of his asking price.

To the Editor of the Birmingham Eccentric.

It is not often that I notice a scurrilous news paper article. But in justice to this community allow me to say a few words. That your correspondent is entitled to no respect all will allow. He is well known here and if you were aware of his standing with respectable people you would regard his aspirations to the place of correspondent for your paper as something not calculated to raise its character. That he is not much thought of by the better class of people here is perhaps sufficient cause for his ill temper. What a witty man he is. How he does give it to Mr. Mason. Oh, my, that was an awful cut, wasn't it? How he does "go" for the preachers Doesn't he cut those Canadians, though? Well, as to Mr. Mason, we guess your correspondent does not find it difficult to get his whiskey outside of Mr. Mason's. He might find it difficult to get it there, probably has done so. His finding fault with the preacher is just what might be expected from one of his calibre. As for the Canadians and half-breeds, we do not know any one whose breed is any more mixed than his own. Inasmuch as your correspondent does not append his name to his effusion, we claim the privilege of doing the same, at the same time holding ourselves willing to give our name when he does his.

DRY GOODS CARPETS

THE BEE-HIVE

Near the Court House, Pontiac, Mich.

ESTABLISHED 1876. JOHN POUND, PROPRIETOR.

Ladies and Gentlemen of Oakland County:

Being now considered one of the solid and successful business houses of the city, we occupy a rather enviable position as a leading firm in the general

Dry Goods and Carpet Lines.

Although the times are rather close, prices of produce low and money stringent, it makes no difference at the Beehive. It is a matter of remark and has become a proverb that "they are always busy." We are bound to be enterprising and show full lines of the newest goods and at the lowest prices, and this is mainly the cogent and potent reason for our business activity and prosperity. We could not have built up such a large patronage without these and other pre-requisites. Our method of conducting business and the disposition to make it widely known, has contributed materially to the city's prosperity, and made it a dry goods market worth coming to. Hard labor persistently indulged in should bring commensurate results, and we think it has in our case justly entitled us to the success we have achieved in our business career. It takes years and much hard application to win a business reputation. The public are severe in these days in their requirements. Call upon us and we will endeavor to fill the bill.

I am yours respectfully,
JOHN POUND, Proprietor.

BRUMMIT, AGAIN.

It is about a year now since I wrote an advertisement. Not because I have nothing to say, but because I am vain enough to think that the citizens of this county know that so long as I am in business I shall always make the BEST PHOTOGRAPHS for as low prices as they can be made for properly; and just here I wish to tell you something. I attended the Photographer's Convention at Cincinnati in August, and had the opportunity of seeing the finest collection of Photographs ever brought together in the world, and I am proud to say that my Cabinet pictures compare favorably with the very best made, and are equal to pictures made in large cities for from $2.00 to $3.00 each. I wish particularly to speak about these pictures. I have a method of making life size pictures which does not appear to be known generally, and I can make a picture life size and put a handsome frame around it for $15, which is a great deal less than it will cost a Photographer to make such a picture by the ordinary method. I see every little while agents from other cities soliciting orders for copies and they often succeed in getting a good many orders from people who, strange as it may seem, will give an order to a perfect stranger and pay half as much again as they can get better work for here at home. It is about as though I should send to Toledo to buy a crock of butter or a spring chicken, but such is life.

I have just had painted for the best background painter in the United States, six new and beautiful backgrounds, and I bought some new accessories at Cincinnati, and I really think that there is not a more complete gallery in Michigan.

Now about BABIES' PICTURES. If there is a baby in this county that I can't make a picture of, if I have the chance, I am just aching to see that baby. The babies all like me and I like the babies, so bring them along and just let me show you how quick I can make a picture.
