

ATTENTION
Seems possible, as a rule, are to be avoided, but the writer of the above has had a very successful experience with the following preparation:
The golden gleam of an Autumn day With the soft refrain as in his As if Autumn remembered the day of The lighted window there's not a breath And a glow of sunshine upon the Though that were hid in the shadowy The clear color of the farm yard
The mill-bell and the bellows And the bright children in happy play O'er the mountain the white rain draws And the bright rows, caving, seem While sweet the swooping swallows O'er the star-glist'ning's' forest No sorrow upon the landscape And the bright, bright day But a sense of peaceful and calm Like that which we see in Autumn
The spring-time longings are past and gone, The passion of summer no longer The harvest is gathered, and Autumn stands O'er all is shown a general And glory lies about to remain.

AN ANGEL UNWAVERING Such a turning upside-down of things as there at the Roxbury House, Such a scrubbing of bare floors, and a turning up of the beams,
and a scrubbing of bare floors,
and a turning up of the beams,
and a scrubbing of bare floors,
and a turning up of the beams,
and a scrubbing of bare floors,
and a turning up of the beams,
and a scrubbing of bare floors,
and a turning up of the beams,

Therefrom a large fraction of the food is wasted in the rich man's house, besides the tendency to fever, diarrhea, dyspepsia and indigestion. If one of these ailments be present, the entire half the grain had been sent through out straw or hay instead of being comparatively well prepared for use. It is always safe to describe his methods in the Rural Home.

Going West
The young man in the older country of the East, reading of the marriage of a young man in the country, often asks himself whether he could not wisely join the ranks of the young men of the West, and ask himself the question, "Shall I go West?" The question is a most important one in the minds of those who are starting out into the world, and one which must be answered before they start out.

Marriage
Marriage, truly and rightly considered, is a most important and happy occasion, and it is not to be taken lightly. It is not a mere matter of convenience, but a matter of life and death.
It is a matter of the highest importance, and one which must be considered with the utmost care and attention.

Stuffed an Elephant's skin.
The taxidermist is the subject of a richly illustrated article in the issue of the 15th of the North, which contains the following description of the mounting of an elephant's skin:
Not long ago, Ward dispatched a man to India to shoot an elephant.
The elephant was shot by the man of the Malra Presidency for after a long hunt, and the animal was finally secured by the taxidermist.
The elephant was then taken to Cambridge, Mass. The elephant was then skinned, and the skin was then prepared for mounting.

Stopping the Engine by Electricity.
An ingenious method of instantly stopping machinery when in motion is shown in a paper published in the issue of the 1st of the North. The apparatus consists of a small electric battery connected with the machinery by means of a small electric circuit. When the battery is thrown into the circuit, the machinery is instantly stopped.

Little Dorrit, who had prepared the supper, only got a glimpse of him that night through the kitchen door, but at once decided that he was handsome. He made a self very much at home in the house during the night.

Such a smiling welcome as he received as he entered the door, and the three white dolls came fluttering out to meet him curiously.

HEAVENLY FIRE WORKS
Nature's Electricity Breaks Up the Atmosphere into Green Peeps. A Majestic Show of Fire Never since Ben Franklin bled the lightning has there been known such an electrical storm as that which has recently been witnessed at New York City. At 8 o'clock yesterday morning the sky was filled with a greenish light, which was afterwards followed by a series of brilliant flashes of lightning. The storm was heard as far as the Atlantic Ocean. The rain was very heavy, and the wind was very strong.

AN ERRONOUS BELIEF.
How a Mistaken Theory Nearly Cost a Well-Known Minister His Life.
Chicago Standard.
The following remarkable statement, made by one who knows the minister, besides the unusual value it contains, will be found most interesting.
Messrs. Erros:—I have always believed most firmly in the brotherhood of man, and I have been a member of every church and denomination which has ever existed since the world was first created. I have been a member of the Methodist Church, the Baptist Church, the Presbyterian Church, the Episcopal Church, the Lutheran Church, the Roman Catholic Church, and the Unitarian Church.
