A grandma site in her great ar na dreams till a tende

MARY WAS DEEP.

MAGE WAS DEEL.

MAGE 18 an either ner or Systemical, but at this moment
of that have initiad my sine pealls. A man-a young manung man said rid be good-looking a been damitted, here into this hous
in the room over my head; A is a robarding-bough for girl at its; and he has been admitted it.

Williams, our landially had m possible. She explained for lim the sit-nation. She said that the now, footiv-ed only lady boarders; that 'all her-boarders except one, who was, a lady, titlor, were students of Qheen Anne's College; that all of them were pretty site took us she said 'all') and that, she was certain neither the parents of the girts nor the Principal of the College whull be at all pleased to

of the mones, and what could possibly in nine weeks?

Austin demurred to the first and Lola sply about the Ill-considered union in the ridigations Aunt Sarah and Under Georgia. Let me think, now, who we have the ridigation of the rigidation of the ridigation of the ridigation of the ridigation of the rigidation of the ridigation of the ridigation of the rigidation of the ridigation of the

And want had since taken part on a point.

Mr. Linday seemed almost entirely engrossed with Lola. Mary Meryon took the very smallest part in the conventation, and fid not done address the strength of the land of the state of the strength of the state o nouse, il fear that it will be in great provided by Lola Brown.

Nevertheless, I will not tell Miss Grindle, at least not yet. Nine weeks will soop pass, and I will keep neaf to Ethel and watch Lola.

May 13:

serve.

JUNE 8.—Lola is meally too foolish.

up. Osas of invective upor Forler inneciation the prisoner awtiting the control of the control o ars before while in New York rate circumstances. He repal dar literature of the day, and in himself that very love of y which he gommended in looth."

To trivial of the circumstance of the ing on to criticism of Dr. Spitz-timony, Porter said: "I won-ther if Lucifer happened to be Dr. Spitaka would say of him moral imbeelle, a moral mon-one of the cases of page."

red to Guiteau's office and said: "Whan Hor-as a candidate for the man was at his heels the mission to Chili."
—"That is false."
Mr. Greeley had been passed to the expert testi

They examined him, et to the conclusion that he was, and notified the counsel for the nee that they should so swear, et of them remained. Those menorated on both pides, themselves most men in their specialty, and

Hows:
GENTLEMEN—The time has come hed I must close. The government as dresented its case before you and aning new. Remain EEO. SCOVILLE. iperative" in became would

He put "in

eg to state that the reason who

Of course,