SOUTHFIELD SIFTINGS.

O. E. Angstman of Detroit Sundayed with L. Angstman.

Mrs. Mitrot has the scarlet fever.

Mrs. A. Brown has been a little under the weather.

Miss Buell of Birmingham and Miss DuVan of Pontiac were the guests of Miss Lizzie Sturman last week.

After morning service last Sunday the pastor of the M. E. church surprised his hearers by announcing that he had withdrawn from the Detroit conference. There is no ill-will between the pastor and his people, but he does not approve of the itinerant system of church government. The church and congregation are deeply grieved to lose so kind a pastor and eloquent preacher. It is understood that the Rev. Marshall has had a call to a Congregational church.

FRANKLIN FLUTTERINGS.

Everyone is crying, "Oh, for a sleigh ride!"

The school here and in the German district closed for the holidays.

Dr. Buell's people have had company from Ohio.

Miss Laura Midgley, who has been visiting her sister at East Saginaw, came home for the holidays.

Rev. S. Daily was recently called to his former home in Macomb county to attend the funeral services of an old neighbor.

Mrs. Nathaniel Higley, who has been sick for some time with a carbuncle, has recovered.

Our pastor is preaching a series of sermons on "Home and its Influences." They are very interesting.

Emma Midgley, who has been sick with spinal fever, is on the road to recovery.

Chas. Midgley is very ill, but we hope he will soon recover.

CLAWSON CULLINGS.

Charles Moore has a fine 40x60 foot barn and Robert Bookham built it.

Codnor and Stowell have the right of sale in Oakland county of the Climax drop leaf stovepipe shelves. All orders must be referred to them.

Friends and neighbors gave a wood-chop ping bee for the widow of the late Tracy Gibbs one day last week.

Codnor has great bargains in albums.

Mrs. Jonathan Chase has been brought home from Detroit.

COUNTY LINE CLIPPINGS.

W. J. Dodds intends visiting relatives in Iowa the last of the month.

Chas. Gamble has begun work on the addition to Bob Hawthorn's barn.

Mrs. Thurston Barr is improving slowly.

Oliver Barton has sold out at the corners.

The Bleakleys are convalescent.

Robert Smith at the corners is in very poor health.

Fred Brace had four sheep killed by dogs last week.

ROYAL OAK RUMBLINGS.

Mr. Geo. Benton, son of Rev. W. H. Benton, pastor of the M. E. church, spent the past week visiting his folks and friends in this vicinity. On Monday night, not a few young folks gave him a pleasant surprise, spending the evening very enjoyably.

Andrew Campbell has put up a wind-mill for John Benjamin; also one for Wm. Soults.

Mr. N. E. Springsteen and wife spent the first of the week in Chicago visiting relatives.

Mr and Mrs John Salisbury visited relatives at Clarkston last week.

Arthur Lee has been laid up for a few days by a kick received from his horse.

Miss Carrie Blodgett is on a two weeks visit at Goodrich.

Fred Marshall plays corner in the M. E. choir Sunday nights.

MISS DAISY GARLAND, the attractive young daughter of the Attorney General, will be the only Cabinet debutante of the coming season.

SIR ARTHUR SULLIVAN says the familiar song, "The Lost Chord," realized little short of $50,000, one-third of which was the share of the composer.

PUNDITA RAMABAI expects to sail from San Francisco for home in about two weeks. She has not raised all the money she wanted for her school in India.

M. COQUELIN had a good audience on the occasion of his lecture upon "The Art of the Comedian" at Harvard College. He read it from manuscript in French.

HENRY D. HARLAN, who has recently been appointed Chief Justice of Maryland, is only thirty years old and is probably the youngest man in the country to hold such an office.

THE recently unveiled statue of Gordon in London is peculiar if not unique in that it represents a great soldier without a sword. He is shown carrying a rattan cane under his left arm.

THE Sioux Indians who are now on their way west after making an ineffective visit to Washington have only one man among them who wears a beard. He bears the expressive name of Hairy Chin.

SENATOR STANFORD hopes to have the university buildings at Palo Alto—or that portion of them now in course of building—ready for dedication May next, on the twenty-first anniversary of his son's birth.

MR. LABOUCHERE in Truth strongly opposes the project for putting up a memorial to Theodore Hook, whom he describes as a most undesirable individual with a taste for vulgar and brutal practical jokes.

CAPTAIN A. C. P. HAGGARD, a brother of the author of "She," is about to appear as a novelist also. He is a British officer stationed at Meerut, and has already published divers diaries of military expeditions.

All speak in high terms of the stock they saw at the "Dakota Cattle Nursery" farm, at Grand Forks, Dak., of which Dr. C. S. Alderson is the manager. It is an item of some interest to southern and eastern farmers, that the highest price paid at the sale of Polled-Angus cattle from the farm of the Hon. M. H. Cochrane, Hillside, Quebec, Canada, held in Chicago in 1888, was paid for animals the progeny of some of the best stock in the Dakota Cattle Nursery Company. Great is the prophecy of the great future of the live stock industry in the Northwest that some of the finest and best bred cattle in the country are to be found in Minnesota and Dakota.

Dentures prefer their home, cold climates—others are returned in summer, four or five months in the year—to the climate in the South and East where medical readings are worn the year round.
