He owns the house in which a mother and daughter lives. Mrs. Hill had been absent for some time and the daughter had had some company which Treoska disliked. He simply riddled the house with shot and 4 occupants ran down the road. Deputy Sheriff Alex. Lewless of Royal Oak served a warrant on Treoska and he was taken to Pontiac. It is said the neighbors will raise $500. for the defense of Treoska if necessary.

Kemberling & Co. auctioneers of Detroit sold the Hupp farm, for the Union Trust Co. to close the estate of of the late C. J. Hupp. Sale was Monday last. The farm was sold for $14,500, while the live stock and farm implements brought $2,400 more. Land and personal property were bid in by Robert C. and Louis C. Hupp, sons of the former owner. The live stock and implements were first offered in small parcels then were auctioned off in the aggregate, the Hupp brothers out-bidding the total of all earlier bids. All sales were made "with reserve," a new wrinkle to our buyers, who found out at the close of the sale, that they hadn't bought a thing. They were sore. Buyers from Mt. Clemens, Ann Arbor, and even a foreign land were in attendance.

Miss Ida Corey returned from a visit with her brother in Toledo. Miss Nellie Corey and Miss Elizabeth Harris Corey accompanied her home.

During the absence of Dr. Campbell from his office Wiley Bell wandered in and found a man in dire distress. On learning that the doctor would be absent for some time for he was on a very serious case, the brazed man asked Wiley if he were a Doc. Wiley piped up "No, I am the Undertaker." Well, the man told Wiley to avaunt in no uncertain language but brave Wiley forced Mr. Man into a chair. With the doctor's forceps Wiley drew a large miller from the man's ear which surely had the man going!

United Presbyterian Church Notes—Theme for Sabbath, Sept. 3, "Waiting for Workers." Acts 1:4.—The Bible Training class at 6:15 p. m. Lesson 46 in the manuel.—The union service at 7:30 p. m. Rev. Brubaker, of Chicago, Ill., will deliver a temperance address, speaking in place of Brother C. A. Salyer. Everybody is invited to come and hear this talented speaker.—The commuion of the Lord's Supper will be held in Birmingham church on Sabbath, Sept. 10 and at Troy church on Sept, 17, at the usual hours.

Wiley Pearsall grandson of F. G. Pearsall is a boy to be proud of. A week ago he stood on the corner waiting for a Detroit car. Along came a large auto and Wiley signalled the driver to stop. He did and the lad said in a joking way "Don't you want company to the city?" The man did. On the way Wiley told the man that in two days he would graduate from a business college in Detroit and was looking for a position. The man vowed that was queer for he was looking for a man just out of college in his own office. Wiley now has a fine $60. permo. position with the Northway Motor Company of Detroit.

STATE OF MICHIGAN. IN THE CIRCUIT Court for the County of Oakland. In Chancery.

Frederick Kleinow and William Kleinow, complainants, vs. Bethuel K. Farrand, James Lockwood, Moses Farrand, William Dunham, John Walker, Joseph Backhouse or Backus, Jr., Mary Ann Walker, Hannah Jane Walker, Esther Ann Walker, Ann Walker, William Walker, James Capit, Ella E. Finn, Martha Walker, John H. Aldrich and Demaris Dunham, and his and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, defendants. Before Elmer E. Blakeslee, a Circuit Court Commissioner for County of Oakland and State of Michigan, on the 12th day of July, A. D. 1911. Present Hon. Elmer E. Blakeslee, Circuit Court Commissioner.

On reading the bill of complaint filed in the above entitled cause from which it satisfactorily appears to the Court that the above named defendants, or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, are necessary and proper parties to the above entitled cause, and that said defendants cannot, by reason of their residence, if alive, being unknown, and cannot be ascertained after diligent search and inquiry, and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns being unnamed, be personally served with process in said cause. On motion of Alexander Brown, solicitor for complainants, it is ordered that the said defendants, Bethuel K. Farrand, James Lockwood, Moses Farrand, William Dunham, John Walker, Joseph Backhouse or Backus, Jr., Mary Ann Walker, Hannah Jane Walker, Esther Ann Walker, Ann Walker, William Walker, James Capit, Ella E. Finn, Martha Walker, John H. Aldrich and Demaris Dunham, and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of each of them enter his or their appearance in said cause on or before the 1st day of December, 1911, or in default thereof the bill of complaint filed in said cause be taken as confessed by said defendants and his or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns. It is further ordered that this order be published within 20 days after the date hereof in the Birmingham Eccentric, a newspaper printed and circulating in Oakland county, Michigan, once in each week for six weeks in succession, or that a copy of this order be served personally upon the defendants named herein or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, at least 20 days before the time prescribed for the appearance of said defendants, and it is further ordered that every publication, of this order shall be followed by a description of the lands concerned in this suit, as such lands are described in the bill of complaint filed in this cause, with the statement that which involves the title to such lands and is brought to quiet title thereto.

(Signed) ELMER E. BLAKESLEE,
Circuit Court Commissioner, Oakland Co.
(A true copy.) STANLEY ROGERS,
Deputy Register.

NOTICE.—The complainants in the above entitled cause hereby state and give notice to all concerned that the above suit in which the foregoing order of publication has been duly entered, concerns lands, and that such lands are described as follows: All those certain pieces or parcels of land situated in the Township of Royal Oak, County of Oakland and State of Michigan, described as:

1. "All that part of the northwest quarter (¼) of Section No. 15 in town one (1) north, range eleven (11) east, lying east of the Rochester road, so called, and north of an east and west line drawn through said quarter section, sixty-seven (67) rods north of the southerly boundary thereof. Also a strip of land three (3) rods wide and of equal width its whole length off the west side of the west half (½) of the northeast quarter (¼) of said section fifteen (15), extending across the entire easterly boundary of the parcel first described.

2. "All that part of the northwest quarter (¼) of section fifteen (15) in the said Township of Royal Oak lying south of a line running east and west from the Rochester road, so called, to the easterly boundary of said quarter section, said line in every part being sixty-seven (67) rods north of the southerly boundary of said quarter section, excepting therefrom one square acre fronting on the Rochester road at the southwest corner of said quarter section. Also a strip of land three (3) rods wide and of equal width its whole length off the west side of the west half (½) of the northeast quarter (¼) of said Section 15, said strip of land extending across the easterly end of the parcel of land last above described."

The above description being the same as set forth in the bill of complaint, filed in said cause, and that such suit involves the title to such lands, and is brought to quiet the title thereto.

Dated July 12, 1911.

PATTERSON & PATTERSON, Attorneys, Pontiac, Mich.

State of Michigan. In the Circuit Court for the County of Oakland. In Chancery. Robert Hawthorne, Catherine Hawthorne, his wife, Robert Hawthorne, administrator of Estate of Fred Brace, deceased, and Isaac Brace, complainants, vs. the Unknown Heirs of William Watts, defendants. Suit pending in the Circuit Court for the County of Oakland, in Chancery, August 5, 1911. It satisfactorily appearing to the Court by the affidavit of Isaac Brace, onfile, that William Watts is dead, and that names, residences and whereabouts of his heirs-at-law, devisees, legatees and assigns are unknown. On motion of Patterson & Patterson, solicitors for complainants, it is ordered that the unknown heirs of William Watts cause their appearance to be entered herein within four months from the date of this order, and in case of their appearance that they cause their answer to complainants' bill of complaint to be filed and a copy thereof to be served upon said complainants' solicitors within twenty days after the serving on them of a copy of said bill and notice of this order, and in default thereof that said bill be taken as confessed by said defendants. It is further ordered that within twenty days from the date hereof that the complainants cause a copy of this order to be published in the Birmingham Eccentric, a newspaper published and circulating in the county of Oakland, and that such publication be continued once in each week for six successive weeks, or that they cause a copy of this order to be personally served upon said defendants at least twenty days before the time prescribed for their appearance. GEORGE W. SMITH,
Circuit Judge.

Please take notice that the above entitled suit is brought to quiet the title to the following described real estate, as set forth in said bill of complaint, and to remove certain clouds on the title thereto, to wit: The west half of the northwest fractional quarter of section one, township one north, range eleven east, being in the Township of Royal Oak, Oakland county, Michigan.
