Assigning the Cause.

"What an extraordinary curve your horse has in the spine," said a gentleman to an Irish farmer. "Can you account for it?" "By the powers, sir, and to be sure I am able. I have heard, sir, that before the beast was my property he was backed against another horse, your honor, who beat him hollow, and I daresay it's the reason that his back never got straight again."

Her Birthstone.

"Did Julius give you a stone set ring for your birthday?"

"Yes. Isn't it a beauty? Blue white."

"But you were born in March. The diamond is the birthstone for April."

"That's right, but as long as I know Julius my birth month is going to be April."—Judge.

Time's Changes.

Poor old Cato meant well no doubt, but he was horribly ignorant of the proprieties, having advised "that the farm buildings be well constructed that you should have ample oil cellars and wine vats, and a good supply of casks so that you can wait for high prices, something that will redound to your honor, your profit and your self respect." He had Hoboken in mind but we Americans do our farming in North Dakota and Kansas, where the vat flourisheth not nor peeneth the cask above the lowly ground.—Springfield Republican.

Worth While Quotation.

"There are persons so radiant, so genial, so kind, so pleasure-bearing that you instinctively feel in their presence that they do you good, whose coming into a room is like the bringing of a lamp there."—Henry Ward Beecher.

OLEY'S HONEY AND TAR stops the cough and heals lungs

Having decided to become a candidate for the nomination to the office of Prosecuting Attorney for Oakland county on the Republican ticket at the primaries to be held on August 29, I desire at this time to make announcement of my candidacy to the voters of the county.

In making this announcement, I desire to call attention to the fact that for six years I filled the office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney under Frank L. Covert and during that time assisted in the disposition of several thousand criminal cases. For the past six years I have been engaged in private practice and during that time have had considerable experience in the defense of criminal cases. For this reason I feel that I have a fair insight into the criminal law both from the standpoint of the prosecution and of the defense.

If nominated and elected to fill the office I promise the people of the county a strict enforcement of all the laws without regard to class or faction.

CHARLES S. MATTHEWS.
