Immediately after the ceremony, the invited guests, numbering nearly one hundred, partook of the wedding dinner which was already prepared for them. Many handsome presents were received, the list of which I have been unable to obtain.

At six o'clock, the guests by the reception which was given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Stringer, began to arrive, and at seven the house was almost crowded.

We give a list of the presents which Mr. and Mrs. Bower received. It may not be correct, but it is as received:

DESCRIPTIVE REPRESENTATIVE CONVENTION. The Democratic Convention of the First Representative District of Oakland county, which held its session on Saturday, Sept. 29th, 1892, at 12 o'clock, P. M. This district is composed of the townships of Bonaventure, and Pontiac.

That was pretty aesthetic at Union Hall last Thursday evening. Lawyer John F. Brown is doing Detroit, these days.

School has commenced at the M. M. A., at Orchard Lake, and the girls that are in the habit of "mashing" the cake are happy.

Misses Carrie Fowles, Sadie Taylor, M. Fay, of Orchard Lake, Mr. Bell and Edie Harris, and Mrs. G. W. Curtis have been carrying through the water on the beautiful water Lake Huron, for a week.

The passenger mail coach between the Air Line R. R. has been transferred to the D. G. H. & M. R. R. and many makes a detour to the Pontiac. Both roads have a great business.

The Boston Evening Post last Thursday evening. Bert Kittle, the photographer, is about to return to East Saginaw in the near future.

Bert Baldwin is getting very reckless. Why? Because he is running around town a great deal without his hat on. Call it, you notorious B. K.

A telephone line between this city and the M. M. A., at Orchard Lake, is being laid out. After the fish and the boys.

Jim McCollum, of the F. M. A., purchased one of the Texas pipes the other day, and feels well pleased with his purchase. An experienced horse man is training the equine.

Pontiac Fishermen who were out fishing Thursday last, and with plenty of whistles and drink they caught lots of fish.

We congratulate our young friend, Chas. M. Fay, of Orchard Lake, on being nominated for County Clerk, and we hope that he'll get there.

Geo. H. M. Lintley, and do your "hello phoning," as his store is the headquarters.

Mrs. C. E. Watson, the milliner, has removed into the corner store of the new Crofoot block. Her show windows are the latest in town.

The Grants and Ed. Zure are just bidding, since the Democrats and the Republicans had their conventions. They will bid over if they are careful.

It is surprising to see how some of the brainless fops of this city, when they go out into the country, to any place, will get "lost" on the way to the country; but, oh, when they return to the city, if to town, they don't recognize them. Such is the case with some of the brainless fops that were out to the Oak Grove country.

Charles O'Neil and Charles Armstrong were partly examined before Justice Beach, last Wednesday. Their examination will be continued on the 21st.
