

Educational Column. THE FARM.

The following are the pupils in the First Primary who have been neither tardy or absent during the last term: Charlie Fredericks, Jennie Middle-

The following suggestions may be useful to the teacher readers of the EDUCATOR.

- 1. In every lesson have some one idea which you wish to impress on your pupils, and make every question and suggestion lead to that much.

Three ways of making geography interesting. 1. If there is an historical fact associated with a place—express it on the class.

Some local educational statistics for 1901. In Oakland Co. the school census gave 11,600 children of whom 11,965 were included in the appropriation of the primary school fund.
