THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR IN ADVANCE
WHITEHEAD & MITCHELL, PUBS.

BIRMINGHAM, FRIDAY, DEC. 22, '99.

To Our Friends.

When trading with any of our advertisers either in Birmingham, Pontiac or Detroit, it will be a great favor to us if you will mention the fact that you noticed their advertisement in our paper. A word from you at the time of trading, costs you nothing and benefits us greatly. Will you be good and do so?

THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC.

THIS PAPER ONE YEAR.	FARM JOURNAL 5 YEARS.

Pay Up and Get Both Papers at Price of One.

We want to get 200 subscribers to our paper by New Years, and are going to do it if we can; we therefore continue our arrangement with the Farm Journal by which we can send the BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC and the Farm Journal 5 years, both for $1.00. And we make the same offer to all old subscribers who will pay all arrearages and one year in advance.

You know what our paper is and the Farm Journal is a gem—practical, progressive—a clean, honest, useful paper—full of gumption, full of sunshine, with an immense circulation among the best people everywhere. You ought to take it.

HOME NOTES.

A GREETING.

Kind readers and friends,
Old, young, large and small,
The ECCENTRIC extends
"Merry Christmas" to all,
With a wish most sincere
That your hearts may all be
Filled with joy and good cheer,
By our greetings to thee.
May old "Santa" remember
You all, as of yore,
The 25th of December,
We loudly implore,
And one year from this time
We shall greet you again,
When this festive rhyme
Will be a "thing of the past."

A Merry Christmas to you all.

Holiday vacation is once more at hand.

WANTED—Plain sewing to do at home. M. J. Eddy.

Did you see the total eclipse of the moon Saturday night?

Draw up your resolutions for the new year—1900 is near at hand.

"What did you get for Christmas?" will soon be the question of the day.

"Admiral" perfume is exquisite. Go to Mrs. K. B. Terty's in Pontiac for same.

Don't forget the Christmas exercises at the Methodist church Saturday evening.

The exercises at the Baptist church Christmas evening will not commence until 7:30.

We learn that there is to be a special Christmas sermon at the M. E. church next Sabbath evening.

S. Rogers and family have removed from the Wooster house to the Hoxsie residence on Maple Ave. East.

Presbyterian Christmas sale last Friday resulted very satisfactory, about $20 net being realized from the affair.

A beautiful Christmas Cantata will be rendered by the M. E. Sunday school at their Christmas tree exercises.

WANTED—Young man to drive a delivery wagon. Steady job the year 'round. Mr. Snell, M'g'r of Log Cabin Farm. 34tf

I want to buy five fresh milk cows. Write or call on G. C. Hupp, farm one mile west of Birmingham. Also want a Tread Mill.

Has any one an old wood stove that they are willing to give to the Cemetery Society? If so, please leave word at this office.

TO RENT—A desirable 8-room house, with bath, closet and other conveniences on High street. Enquire A. W. Campbell. 33t2*

Novel Club, Saturday evening at Library room. Book for discussion, "Hillback of Banisdale." Read the book and help to discuss it.

Special Christmas music at St. James church next Sunday morning, including solos by Messrs. Rainey and Smith. Everyone invited to be present.

Have you selected your Christmas presents yet? No? Well then, go over to W. A. O'Neal's clearing out sale of holiday goods. See ad. Great bargains.

My! but they are doing a rushing holiday trade at C. F. Pennewell's in Detroit, and we don't wonder with such genial proprietors, good-natured clerks and hosts of bargains in every department. See change of ad this week.

Our school closes today for one week's vacation, which is good news for teachers and pupils. The vacation will continue until Tuesday, January 2, 1900.

The cantata, "Santa Claus and Uncle Sam," will be the order of exercises Christmas night, next Monday, at the Presbyterian church. Everybody welcome.

The annual election of officers of Hall Tent, No. 227, will be held on Monday evening, Dec. 25th, at 8 p. m. A full attendance is requested. I. H. Wilson, R. K.

If you are still in need of millinery be sure and go to Mrs. S. L. Bird's in Pontiac. Her assortment is fine and they are all in the latest and most stylish shapes.

Mrs. Sarah Eldred, mother of Mrs. Wm. Hunt on the gravel, died Wednesday morning, aged 86 years. The old lady had been feeble for a long time.

Mason Leonard's family occupy Mrs. Wooster's house on Maple Ave., just across the railroad, and we are glad to have Mate select Birmingham for his home.

Rev. H. S. Justema discourses Sabbath morning on the "Deep Significance of the Visit, Homage and Gifts of the Magi," and in the evening on "Jesus, the Boy Savior."

Be sure and attend John Pound's clearance sale of cloaks, jakets and wraps of all kinds, with special prices for the holiday season. Greatest reduction ever known. See ad.

Why not get up a load and go over to the lecture at Big Beaver this (Friday) evening. Rev. Allen will speak on "Abraham Lincoln." Only 10 cents to hear this popular lecture.

One of the most charming stories ever written is "The Dog of Flanders," by Ouida. It is the last book added to the Library. Go down to the room some Saturday afternoon and read it.

The Ladies of the Eastern Star surprised the F. & A. M.'s with light refreshments Thursday night of last week, after their annual election of officers, at Mrs. Tibbils' restaurant.

The curio entertainment and "social" held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Clark, Friday evening, was one of the most successful of the season, both from a social and financial standpoint.

Rev. N. Norton Clark's sermon on "Infidelity" Sunday evening was one of the helpful sort of discourses, and his large congregation seemed much interested in the theme from beginning to end.

Have you seen the Christmas tree at Mrs. Tibbils' restaurant? The holidays have certainly arrived at this favorite resort. Just go over and take a look at the artistic decorations in the front windows and we will vouch for your not remaining outside very long.

What is sweeter or nicer for a Xmas present than a globe with a couple or so of goldfish therein. Nothing so appropriate as a globe with the bright beauties enjoying life and looking pretty. Only 25c. Call at Whitehead & Mitchell's.

The name of W. H. Elliott is as good as a bank note—everybody has confidence in the goods from his store. Now for the holiday trade he is offering all kinds of bargains with prices to astonish all. Why not go there for a set of Kipling's works? See ad.

Jewelry, jewelry, jewelry. Yes, that's what we said. Where shall we go for it? Down to Adolph Enggass' in Detroit. Go there at once and select your Christmas present. We will guarantee you a bargain at this festive season. Hurry up before some one gets just what you might be after wanting.

The pompadour bow is all the go, then don't be slow but visit Miss Moutier's millinery store in Pontiac and see some beauties in this line. Special holiday prices on these goods, as well as everything else in the store. Everthing goes at cost now, this lady affirms. Now is your chance for bargains.

It seems to be hard sometimes for ladies to select a Christmas present for their gentlemen friends. Now, Hammond & Judd, of Pontiac, realizing this fact, have timely suggestions in this issue which will help the ladies out. Be sure and read their new ad this week. This firm is well and favorably known around here. Give them a call.

For choice potted plants, cut flowers or any hot house production you need go no farther than to the Royal Oak greenhouse, for you will find one of the finest assortments of thrifty plants at that place. The prices are remarkably reasonable, too, that's one of the best features. Go and see for yourself. We know whereof we speak.

The lecture on China at the M. E. church on Wednesday evening of last week by Mrs. Mary Ninde, of Detroit, was one of the best ever delivered in this place. She thoroughly understood her subject and delivered the address in a strong and forceful manner. Hers is a busy life and we hope she may come this way again some time.

A stereopticon exhibition will be given at St. James Episcopal church on Thursday evening, January 3rd, 1900. The price of admission will be fixed at the extreme low price of 10 cents each. The views are beautiful and the proceeds will be for the benefit of St. James Sunday school. More extensive notice will be given next week.

The Farm Journal is the boiled-down, hit-the-nail-on-the-head paper cut to fit the farmer and villager who knows what's what. The Farm Journal for five years, all of 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904 and the Birmingham ECCENTRIC one year, will both be sent to every new subscriber to our paper, and to every old subscriber who pays $1 in advance.

Our advertisers' stores are just more than full to overflowing with holiday goods. Prices are lower here today in Birmingham than ever before and why not encourage home dealers. Our advertisers invite you one and all to call and look their stock over whether you buy or not. Their lines are all bright, new and fresh and our merchants may well be proud of their wares.

Talk about your donations, it takes the Franklin people to make a success of them. The one held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. German, last Wednesday evening, for the benefit of Rev. B. G. Sutton, was no exception to the general rule. There were about 150 present and the amount realized was $88.50. The company was entertained by Miss Dessotelle, of Detroit.

I saw a young bride in her beauty and pride, dressed up in her bridal array, but she got the blue cross just the same, as our mother-in-law because she was back on her subscription to this great moral engine. Say look up your date after your name on this paper and if the date there has passed you are in arrears and should pay up. Say, pay up at once and get the Farm Journal for five years.

Old Santa Claus, in all his glory, reigns supreme in the window of Mrs. Terry's millinery store in Pontiac. He is surrounded by a merry band of children—although many of them are asleep—and is filling their stockings with an energy suited to the occasion. The window is beautifully adorned with holly and the whole makes a most charming picture. This is a great place to get millinery at your own price now. Go and find out for yourself.

Mrs. Joe Farmer, daughter of Uncle George Taylor, residing on the Harris farm, met with quite a serious accident, Sunday. While standing on a chair arranging some papers on a safe, the chair tipped over with her throwing her across it with considerable force. In the fall she burst a blood vessel, which resulted ina severe hemorrhage. A doctor was soon summoned and at last accounts, although confined to her bed, Mrs. Farmer was getting along nicely.

On Friday evening, Dec. 22d, H. P. C. Stewart, of Detroit, will give a concert at the M. E. church in the village of Royal Oak, assisted by the following ladies and gentlemen: Miss Edyth B. Lott, Mrs. J. B. Henrion, soloists; Miss Mabel Leonard, elocutionist; Mrs. Bertha Davis Thompson, pianist; Charles Hargreaves, Norman C. Fowles, baritone; Signor Rocco Liuzzi, harpist; Prof. H. G. Rietz, violinist. A very pleasant evening is anticipated.

H. C. Wilson is more than busy these days putting in his railroad "Safety Gates." He sent his right hand man Enos Brayman last week to Cincinnati, O., where the lad successfully put in a gate for the Q. & C. R. R. in that busy city. Harvey himself is very busy putting in Safety Gates for the Detroit, Rochester & Romeo Electric R. R., one at Royal Oak and one in Rochester. These gates insure safety to the patrons of these roads against any accidents from trains passing across the trolley track. We are pleased to say that the coming year of 1900 will see Harvey more prosperous than ever; everything goes to show that he has a big year of work ahead of him.

Poorness of Blood

The Cause of Exhausted Nerves and All the Ills of a Weakened Body.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve and Blood Pills

MAKE RICH, RED, HEALTHY BLOOD AND STEADY NERVES.

Let the blood get thin, weak and watery, and every part of the body is exhausted for want of proper nourishment. The digestive system fails to do its duty, and there is indigestion and dyspepsia; the liver and kidneys become clogged and inactive; there are pains in the back, sides and limbs; headache and neuralgia, the nerves become exhausted, and there is nervousness, sleeplessness and irritability, female complaints, lassitude and despondency.

To rid the system of these distressing ills, caused by weak and impure blood, there is no preparation so effective as Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve and Blood Pills, the prescription of America's greatest physician, Dr. A. W. Chase.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve and Blood Pills increase the number of corpuscles in the blood, and so nourish and invigorate the whole system. They gently regulate the bowels, make the kidneys and liver active, tone the stomach and digestive system, and give new energy and vitality to every organ of the body.

Eminent physicians who have prescribed Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve and Blood Pills pronounce them the greatest of restoratives for weak and impure blood; 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or by mail on receipt of price, by Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Company, Buffalo, N. Y.. On every box of the genuine will be found portrait and fac-simile signature of Dr. A. W. Chase.
