Ostrich Grows Fast.

As it emerges from the egg, the ostrich chick is as large as the average full-grown American hen, says Nature Magazine. During the next six months this youngster eclipses all the growing records of Jack's mythical beanstalk. The infants usually grow one foot a month so that by the time they are six months old they are six feet tall.

Little to Be Done.

People's natures are much like the weather. There is little that can be done about it; even though "there ought to be a law."

Their Spirit Lives!

In Flanders' fields where the poppies blow and in sacred ground of our own United States—they sleep. No longer do they face the trials of a turbulent world. Never again will they have to spring to arms at the sound of war's bugles. Their duty's done and—they're resting in peace.

And yet—THEIR SPIRIT LIVES! It always will live. Years can not blot out the memories they left for us as they sacrificed their all in order that we—who remain behind—might live in true Peace and Happiness. Theirs was truly, the giving of the full measure of devotion to their country. And on this great Memorial Day, let us give a silent prayer not only for those heroes of 1917 and '18, but likewise for the boys of '61 and '98 who have left this vale of tears, but whose deeds will live on forever.
