Wanderings in Birmingham

Hit my pid pips one pierant street.

Brunippham. My old "our-year-old" theone and tooks a street in an ad around Birmingham. My old "our-year-old" troubled me some but I whifed kway on it vigorously until I made it go. I was a beautiful farming region and as fine a country as lies under the van. I wandered along the banks of a river which meanders through a charming ariley in which a few lang dishermen eight pin which a few lang dishermen eight pin which a few lang dishermen with them they spun big yarna about their linek but I was used to these "fish stories" and iddn't be live half they said. I stopped a short time at the spring and dranks as good medicinal water as there is in the state and then said own within 90 cm and heard him raiks about the "old Fadesland" and the milling tuniness. I then wandered through it warious streets of this ancient village on side-I lit my old pipe one plersant after oon and took a stroll in and around
