League of Women Voters to Elect Officers at Conclave Tuesday

Mrs. Wright to Be Speaker; Topic, 'Foreign Policy'

Tuesday, March 18, is an important date for the Birmingham League of Women Voters, which will hold its annual meeting and election of officers on that day at the Community House. The meeting will convene at 11 a. m. and besides the election, there is the revision of the by-laws to be acted upon.

Luncheon is scheduled for 1 p. m. with Mrs. Quincy Wright of Chicago, chairman of the department of government and foreign policy of the National League of Women Voters, as the principal speaker. Her subject will be "The Foreign Policy of the League."

Mrs. Wright has traveled widely, making a first-hand study of international problems, her interest in this direction having taken her in the past decade to Palestine, Syria, Iraq, China, Japan, Russia, Switzerland and Peru. She is the author of the handbook, "Toward Collective Peace System," which is widely used by the league in its studies of international relations.

To hear Mrs. Wright, the Birmingham league is expecting guests from Mount Clemens, Flint, Ann Arbor and Detroit.

Mrs. John K. Ormond, president of the Birmingham branch, again emphasizes the fact that membership in the league is open to all women citizens.

Thomas Barbour Wed In Florida

The winter home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence D. Buhl of Grosse Pointe, at Miami Beach, was the scene Tuesday afternoon of the marriage of their daughter, Cora Peck, and Thomas E. Barbour, son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Barbour, of Grosse Pointe and Bloomfield Hills. Rev. Dr. Joseph A. Vance of Detroit, performed the ceremony before a small group of friends.

The bride was lovely in robes of white marquisette, made with long fitted sleeves and a full skirt. Her veil was held by a coronet of white bouvardia and she carried bouvardia and white spray orchids.

Mrs. Sherman attended her sister as matron of honor and Mary Buhl, another sister of the bride, and Mrs. Allan Shelden, III, were bridesmaids. Allan Shelden, III, served as best man and Sherman Mitchell and William Newman, cousin of the bridegroom, seated the guests. Lawrence D. Buhl, Jr., was ringbearer.

Mr. and Mrs. Barbour are spending their honeymoon in Florida. They will make their home at E Bar L ranch, Greenough, Mont.
