and are satisfied we can save you money. Our line of Prints, Sherings, Shirts, Canton Flannels, Denims and in fact all our Dry Goods stock have been marked below Detroit and Pontiac prices. Our 6-cent prints are the best. Sherings best, 8 cents. Our woolen sherings are cheap in Boots and Shoes we are right at home, having a complete line, consisting of the late, durable makes and styles. Our $2.00 kip boot is the best in the country. $2.50 buys a kip boot that for service cannot be surpassed. Complete line of Rubber Goods that will sell as low as the lowest. We have a complete line of First Class and our 50 cent tea cannot be best for quality. Our experience for the last three years enabling us to buy a Tea to sell for 50 cents as good in quality as others do for 60 and 70 cents.

When in want of anything in the above lines please give us a call or write and purchase with courteous attention to merit a share of the public patronage. Yours Respectfully,

F. BLAKESLEE & CO., Birmingham, Mich.

HOME NOTES.

PERPETUAL NOTICE. You will please make due after your own mind and conscience. This notice is to be placed in the paper. It is your duty to do so.

Hon. James Hayley visited Detroit last week. Ten coaches packed full, attended the Art Loan last Monday.

Thank you Miss Hattie Shuler of Southfield for a pair of big red-antlers.

This new house of Hayes Staley is progressing finely under the supervision of George Brayman.

Our merchants on and all are contemplating that the Art Loan has hurt business in Birmingham.

Look out for the New England suit and brim hat. A good place for our old friends.

Our old friend, Miss Kennedy is a little under the weather and she got out of the house much lately.

Union temperance meeting next Sunday evening in the Prosser street church, addressed by Rev. J. L. Wood.

The names of the various stores have been fastened up to the various corners making our village look quite different.

There will not be any preaching in the Library Hall as announced on account of the union temperance meeting.

The Birmingham and society will meet at the residence of Mrs. Usher Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All are invited. Mrs. James Robinson, secretary.

There will be a regular meeting of Birmingham Lodge No. 14, P. & A. M. on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

This affair are extremely "square." Older but if you have any to spare, you can't dispose of them to Mr. Will one mile north of this village. See this new ad.

The other day Erastus Wooder went out to Clyde to visit friends and relatives and brought back a new horse, buggy, harness and outfit. He had got a wife, etc.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold a social at the residence of Mrs. A. C. Wallace on Friday next week. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

A very social and happy party took place at Frank Pershall's last Friday night in honor of Mrs. Carrie DeLong. It was indulged in and agreed that it was the nicest party yet.

There will be a regular meeting of Birmingham chapter No. 52, I. O. O. F. on Monday evening, Nov. 12, at 7:30 p. m. A full attendance is requested. John Boddie, secretary.

Here's a chance to buy a small farm at a very reasonable price. John P. Rowland offers his farm of 60 acres in the township of Southfield opposite Eddy's school house. Read his article in this column this week.

One day last week Miss V. Williams daughter of Daniel Russell Esq. and sister of Mrs. James McKinley of Detroit, returned from a two years absence and a half spent in Maryland with her family and her uncle Charles Palmer.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Birmingham M. E. church will give an open-air concert on Wednesday evening, Nov. 14. A cordial invitation is extended to all. By order of the society.

Our own has a lot of this week. It comes you in the face. It happens to your pocket. It stays in your hands. It runs in your veins. It is the best thing you can get for your money. It is the best thing you can get for your money. It is the best thing you can get for your money.

Mr. A. A. Wainwright after nearly a year's absence at her home in Boyce, shortly returned to this city to visit friends and acquaintances. In this place she reports the Birmingham colony at its height and in its prime. The town is full of life and vigor. The people are well and happy. The business is thriving. The streets are clean and well kept. The schools are well attended. The churches are well supported. The people are well and happy. The business is thriving. The streets are clean and well kept. The schools are well attended. The churches are well supported. The people are well and happy.

A new system of dressmaking called Prof. C. Taylor's system has been introduced in our village by the young and living Miss Nettie Bloomberg. The work is warranted to give perfect satisfaction at our office. Let us see your old dresses and we will tell you how to make them new. Let us see your old dresses and we will tell you how to make them new. Let us see your old dresses and we will tell you how to make them new.

Eugene Harlan three miles east and 1/2 mile south of Royal Oak, will sell at auction Tuesday, Nov. 12, at ten o'clock. Work boots, wags, cow, pig, ducks, and all of his household goods. A. W. Decker will do the talking and everybody invited to come.

Letters remaining unclaimed in Birmingham, Mich., post office, Oct. 31, 1883: Mr. John Currier, Amos DeGroot, Jane Harris, Mr. Huff, (colored), August Simons, Chester C. North, J. P. Wilmarth. Persons calling for any of the above please apply to J. Allen Blyden P. M.

The report that Taber asked one of the Nymphs at the Bath to please turn around is false, but it is said to be a fact that he stood in front of the bathing place in the forenoon until late in the evening. He was seen when the janitor took him by the ear and kindly walked him out, softly singing "where was Moore" when the light went out and he was gone.

Dr. Frazer of West Branch, Mich. was accidentally killed by a companion recently while hunting. The doctor's wife formerly lived in this village is the family of the friends where her friends will remember her as Miss Lena Marvin. She has the sympathy of her many friends in this vicinity in her terrible bereavement.

John Snow and Ed Miller recently purchased a pair of three-month-old Poland China pigs from the noted breeders Messrs. Bradford & Garlick of Rochester, Ohio. The animals are pedigree and fine, and will be a valuable addition to the stock of the Messrs. Snow & Miller. Desires credit for the improvements which they have made in the grade of stock in this State.

Brooklyn Lyceum. The latest enterprise across the creek is the projected building of a fine new residence by E. Mathewson. The house is to be built on a large lot on the north side of the creek. Mr. Mathewson will also give his present residence a thorough going over and make it a first-class place.
