THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.
WHITEHEAD & MITCHELL, PUBS.

BIRMINGHAM, FRIDAY, OCT. 18

To Our Friends.

When trading with any of our advertisers either in Birmingham, Pontiac or Detroit, it will be a great favor to us if you will mention the fact that you noticed their advertisement in our paper. A word from you at the time of trading, costs you nothing and benefits us greatly. Will you be good and do so?

THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC.

HOME NOTES.

Why is it folks all this way in
The car we miss,
While in the car we catch all last
We require tickets?
It should institute Register

"School Notes," unavoidably left over until next week.

A house and one acre of land to rent. Call on Mitchell.

White Cross Eczema and Dandruff Cure is sold by Whitehead & Mitchell.

Miss Moutier, of Pontiac, has a new advt this week. Ladies, don't fail to read it.

White Cross Dandruff Cure is becoming very popular. Sold by Whitehead & Mitchell.

Mrs. Roselle Shreves, of Utica, was recently the guest of her niece, Mrs. Florence Gillett.

Fall is the best time to set out forest trees. Some of our churches need trees near them.

The state meeting of the W. M. S. just closed at Traverse City, will be held in Pontiac.

Robt. Hanna and wife heard Dr. Newell, of Chicago, at the Armory building in Detroit Sunday last.

Mrs. Melvin Rose will for the winter, make her home with Mrs. Elizabeth Randall, Brown street.

Miss Eva Mitchell, of St. Mary's Can., has been visiting the family of Dr. M. Johnston the past three weeks.

Miss Jennie Hanna was married to Will Craft, of Holly, Wednesday last, at the home of her parents in Akron.

James O'Neal, of Paris, Ont., returned home Monday after three weeks' visit with his two sons, E. A. and W. A.

Mrs. Sheldon Peters and Mrs. E. A. O'Neal took in Maude Adams at the Detroit Opera House Wednesday night last.

The Jubilee Singers at Library Hall last week drew a fair sized crowd and the entertainment was greatly enjoyed by those present.

Married, Wednesday, Oct. 9th, at the home of the bride, Miss M. Lou Wattles to William Seils, Dr Palmer, of Detroit, officiating. Success.

Democrats are taking of mourning Attorney Frank Jenkins for Prosecuting Attorney on the democratic ticket at the next election.

Robt. Hanna and wife attended a wedding reception Saturday last given by Frank Kelly and sister of Warren, to their son Fred and bride of Elmira.

Regular communication of Birmingham Chapter, No. 95, R. A. M., next Monday evening. A full attendance is requested. A. White head, Sec.

Willis B. Carter is home again from Milwaukee to take charge of the carpenter work on the new school building. The board has made a wise choice.

Rev. Steward, presiding elder of Saginaw district, will preach at Big Beaver next Sunday at 2 p.m. Quarterly conference will be held at Troy Monday next at 2 p. m.

We hear that our old time friend, Stephen Cooper, will board at the National this winter and we do hope he will not join the club. It he does we can see the club's finish.

We present our readers a short story this week written by Miss Maud McDonald, of this place. The little lady is 14 years of age and as a journalist does very nicely.

E. E. Brooks and wife start next Monday for the Sunny South. Mr. Brooks will take charge of his orange grove this winter and we will all have some extra early Florida sweets.

Tom Cooper, the bicycle rider, has given up racing and will assume the management of a coal mine at Ouray, Col. During the past 10 years on the track he has saved $100,000. Good for him.

Robt. Buchanan and wife, of Lidlington, cousins of Miss Jennie Keyes, while enroute from Pan-Am. stopped over Sunday last. A flying trip to Pontiac, called on other relatives and a nice visit was enjoyed by all.

When you have no appetite, do not relish your food and feel dull after eating you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at Whitehead & Mitchell's drug store.

Mrs. Francis O'Brien and Mrs. Allie Hitchings were at the Gilbert Lake farm last Monday and found everything in good shape. Daniel Allison and good wife keep ahead of the work and are prepared for the winter.

At Home—Mr. and Mrs. Geo C. Hipp cosily settled in Mrs. Ellen F. Peabody's pleasant home on Woodward Ave., and what makes it so much more a desirable place to live, it is right next to Mitchell's. (Excuse these blushes.)

Some of our county comprimatories are insisting that Sam. W. Smith will run again for Congress, and seem to be wasting lots of worry over the fact. Two others are in the field but if "Our Samma" wants it we will give it to him.

Nick Carter and his assistant, Chick, are doing some fine detective work on Woodward Ave this week. There is a beautiful opportunity for our marshal to cover himself with glory by apprehending the man who is stealing oil out of street lamps.

Miss Emeline Mitchell accompanied by Miss Lillie E. Walker are at Fowlerville for a two weeks' visit with the parents of Miss Walker. Miss Mitchell's great anxiety was that she wouldn't arrive at the farm in to help Grandpa Walker milk the cows.

The 7th Mich. Cavalry reunion took place in Detroit last week and among the old vets who were present were Chas. Gifft, Stephen Newman, Eli Phillips and last but not least by any means, "Billy" Hawthorn. A fine time was had taking over the past.

Wm. Duckett, of Sheffield, Ont., who moved from this vicinity 7 or 8 years ago, is dead. He died at his home in Ontario March 10th last of a complication of diseases. His widow, sister in law of Mrs. Thos. Edwards, is visiting in this vicinity, accompanied by four children.

An intelligent dog brought help to Elsworth Montross, who fell from a hickory tree while gathering nuts last week. The old broke his arm and dislocated his elbow and was helpless. The dog after vainly attempting to drag the boy home, left him, returning quickly with assistance.

Deputy sheriff V. A. VanEvery made an arrest last week Friday that may prove a very important one. Two men supposed to know something about a murder that was committed near Grayling last month were taken to Pontiac by him and held to await action of the Grayling authorities.

The trial of Cyrus Wachate at Pontiac made it necessary to have a new jury drawn. The following in this vicinity were drawn to serve as jurymen: Bloomfield, James Van Every, Jay Farmington, Frank Walters, Royal Oak, Robert Crouse, Southfield, George Scott, Troy, Lafayette Dessert.

A [illegible] last Friday evening. At the time [illegible] that such a [illegible] those present were [illegible] that Hollis Wattles [illegible] the class [illegible] a good old time Auld Lang Syne and the long suffering night [illegible] the steeds at 2 a.m.

E. M. Rainey, of Saginaw, City, [illegible] gave a social to old friends [illegible] last week and in return they all gave him threats [illegible] exchange no robbery. Our friend John still remains single and it has got to be proverbial that J. [illegible] the answer [illegible] bachelor. We have a wager of 25 to 1 [illegible] long shot that he won't.

Albert W. Campbell looks after his patrons in insurance. One day last week Mrs. Hughes started up a [illegible] cow stable and came down. On her return she found the [illegible] $1 which [illegible] and was dam [illegible] Campbell [illegible] Mrs. Hughes. Wednesday last Mr. Campbell [illegible] Mrs. Hughes. Wednesday last Mr. Campbell [illegible] Mrs. Hughes. Wednesday last Mr.