THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.
WHITEHEAD & MITCHELL, PUBS.

BIRMINGHAM, FRIDAY, JULY 12.

To Our Friends.

When trading with any of our advertisers either in Birmingham, Pontiac or Detroit, it will be a great favor to us if you will mention the fact that you noticed their advertisement in our paper. A word from you at the time of trading, costs you nothing and benefits us greatly. Will you be good and do so?

THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC.

HOME NOTES.

Wesley and Levi Goodwin spent the 4th at Port Huron.

Mrs. I. Shadbolt called on Detroit friends last week.

Miss Hazel Carter visited at the Cooper farm last week.

Storrs Wright, of Grand Rapids, is visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. Will Ford called on Detroit friends one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hanna visited Port Huron and Lexington last week.

Lewis Williams wants pretty pictures for another display column.

Don Macartney, of Detroit, spent Sunday with friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. [illegible] visited Detroit friends last week.

Mrs. V. [illegible] has been visiting the Misses Nora [illegible] last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Drake visited relatives in Detroit over Sunday.

Lee Andrews, of Detroit, called on old Birmingham friends one day last week.

Mrs. L. W. Harris, of Wayne, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. Fourby, this week.

White Cross Eczema and Dandruff Cure is sold by Whitehead & Mitchell.

Mrs. I. Detwiniger was confined last week with inflammatory rheumatism.

Mrs. Zina Carter spent last week with friends at Ann, Pontiac and the Lakes.

Mrs. Martha Heth, of Southfield, visited at Mrs. C. W. Crawford's on Tuesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baldwin are at Grand Ledge this week, guests of their son Bert.

Masters Floyd and Verne Crittenden, of Detroit, visited Fred Elopson last week.

Mrs. Jessie Boyce, of Pontiac, was a guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Kirkland one day last week.

Eight cordoned gooseberry bushes for sale. Call on or H. M. Smith, the Eccentric.

Miss Edna Gibson, of Detroit, is spending a couple of weeks with Mrs. A. H. Carpenter.

Miss Nella Pettibone, of Chicago, is visiting Miss Eva Hale and Mrs. Chas. Pettibone this week.

Fourine Kingsley is visiting at Walled Lake. Thursday of last week celebrating the 4th.

Mrs. Hiram Hood returned home last Monday. There is no improvement in her condition.

Special meeting of the O. E. S. We hold my evening, July 17. Initiatory work. Lyle Dunkess, Sec.

To rent—The Smith house on Middle street, very reasonable. Call on Mitchell at Eccentric office.

Noah Baker and Miss Mae Hendershot were married on Sunday last week. Success to the happy couple.

Mrs. Emma Barry and children have returned from an extended visit with relatives in Livingston county.

For Rent—A tent, 14 feet, 15 feet long with a 7 ft. wall. Inquire of L. N. Zimmerman, Birmingham, Mich. 9ff

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Silman, of near Royal Oak, visited their cousin V. Goodwin and family last Sunday.

House and lot for sale—A fine cheap house for somebody. Call early. Mrs. Harriet Mitchell, Birmingham.

The Misses Hattie and Bessie Silman, of Detroit, spent a few days this week at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Randall.

Mrs. Menerva McCall, from the Thompson Old Ladies' Home, Detroit, visited her sister Mrs. Harriet Mitchell last Tuesday.

Miss Lema Bartram and Mrs. Seeley Peck and little son Lloyd are visiting friends at Port Huron and St. Clair this week. They left Monday and are expected home tomorrow.

White Cross Dandruff Cure is becoming very popular. Sold by Whitehead & Mitchell.

The Orion electric light plant commenced business July 1. They operated one light for about three minutes on that evening.

Mrs. Vosper and Mrs. Stasco, of Detroit, spent Saturday at the home of Mrs. Frank Simpson and also called on other friends in town.

Mrs. Paul Park and daughter Bertha have moved into the village and are cosily settled in Mrs. Wooster's house on East Maple Ave.

A meeting of the Bloomfield Center Cemetery Association will be held at the school house, Circle, Wednesday, at 3 p. m., July 17, 1901.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Squires spent the 4th with their daughter, Mrs. Harriet Esso, at Walled Lake. Mrs. Squires will remain there a short time.

During the electrical storm last week Dr. Mather's residence was struck by lightning. The building was slightly damaged and was soon repaired.

Miss Maude Harris left last Monday for Cincinnati, where she intends to pass her vacation with friends. Miss Harris [illegible] Hamilton before return[illegible].

[illegible] the Ladies' Aid [illegible] Mrs. L. Bookham, Friday last, was a very pleasant meeting. Nearly 50 persons were present, a bountiful supper and a good old fashioned visit. These meetings are doing a great deal of good and it is certainly a pleasure to attend them.

The report that C. Y. Birsh had recovered his mind, which was stated last November, proves to be a mistake. The man in question was seen in Wayne, Detroit and Ann Arbor recently and I was told on some what reliable evidence, that he was not informed I think that Mr. Birsh had recovered his property.

The Old Good Friend at the Bijou Stock, by Thomas Nelson Page, author of Red Rock; The Great Train Robbery, by Paul Leicester Ford, author of Richard Carvel; I, Thou and The Other One, by Amelia Barr, author of The Bow of Orange Ribbon, are now books lately added to our library.

We are pained and sorry indeed to record the fact that E. G. Pearsall rode right straight past us and old Brownie on the high way the other day with his automobile. It's a bummer, we have tried a ride and in Frank's hands it was as obedient as a child and I swear thru the wind.

We have it on the best authority, that between 71 and 72 miles of the right of way for the electric railroad between Pontiac and Saginaw has been secured, leaving only 2 or 3 miles more to be secured. The right of way is from 24 to 30 feet in width and the prospect for a road is brighter today than ever before in this or any other county in the state.

We are in receipt of a copy of the issue by the Birmingham [illegible] Times, of the Birmingham, Ala., Ladies' Relief Society, of which our sister, Mrs. W. H. Jones, is president. We have not had time to read the paper yet, but will do so and will have something to say about it next week.

Mrs. Mary Ann Bailey, of Detroit, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Wheeler Lee Mathews, Wednesday last was spent at the advanced age of 91 years, was buried in the Pierce cemetery in this place Tuesday last and was attended by Mr. Perkins, formerly well known in this village. Mrs. Bailey was a [illegible] age, being one of the oldest persons in this county. She was a [illegible] and resided in Detroit for many years. The remains were brought to Pierce for burial.

Keep your eyes on Lyle Dunkess, Sec. and Battle Creek, Sec. [illegible] Grand Rapids, Sec. [illegible] Detroit, Sec. [illegible] Detroit, Sec. [illegible] Detroit