

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

The encampment at Valley Forge needs a monument, and Congress should provide the means. But historians, poets and orators, in using their words to express the feelings of the old build more enduring monuments than piles of stone. For what American ever learns of the story of Valley Forge...

Miss Nellie Atwood, the President's daughter, is president of the Washington "Children's Christmas Club," an organization composed of Washington Sunday schools, which provided a mammoth Christmas-tree and a dinner for poor children. This idea, which originated last year in a lady in Portland, Maine...

In the Cook county, Illinois, normal school at Englewood, near Chicago, we learn from a Chicago paper, "in the morning when school opens the principal informally inquires the news of the day, and then he reads the news of the day, and then he reads the news of the day, and then he reads the news of the day...

Beer tea has become a popular beverage in Omaha. The drink, which began to be brewed in the autumn, has now attained such proportions that the prohibition funds are perfectly exhausted. Said a philosophical barkeeper to a reporter...

Now that cheap newspapers have become an established feature of the times, the magazines will have to come down. Thirty-five cents is too much for the Century, and the other magazines can be purchased in England for 21 cents...

Who are the railroads for? They are becoming very difficult to be devised for them. The chief engineer of the Reading railroad is a man who has a head for business with steel ties. They would be the same in size and shape as the present wooden ties...

There is a large pork factory on a road overlooking the river above Nashville, Tennessee, where the hogs are slaughtered. The livers and other organs or less valuable portions are thrown into the river. Numerous colored families...
