HOME NOTES

Being isolated in every sense of the word she enjoyed her work which was most satisfactory to the physicians and successful in every respect to her many patients.

One of Oakland county's most skillful and prominent physicians, Dr. D. W. C. Wade, died at the Flint hospital last Friday morning. Dr. Wade has been failing in health for several years and about three weeks ago he submitted to an operation for appendicitis. He seemed to be recovering until last week when he sank into a semi-conscious state from which he never rallied.

L. Shanahan's auction will be held Thursday, Nov. 17, at 10 o'clock a. m., on the Adams Bailey farm in Troy township, one-half mile west of electric car line at Boyd's corners. Colts, horses, cows, heifers, wagon, truck, plows, cultivators harnesses, 100 bu. buckwheat, 100 bu. oats, quantity of hay and other articles will be sold. M. H. Blunt, auctioneer; A. Bailey, clerk.

Clarkston held a big hunting match one day last week, with Toad Miller and J. F. Wooster as captains of the two bands of hunters. The losing side had to settle for an elaborate banquet in the evening. Such hunts, while popular sport for the boys, are in bad odor with farmers, who are opposed to this wholesale slaughter of game as well as to the trampling down of fences and danger from fire resulting from the use of firearms on their property.

There are doings on Willits street from Lyman B. Peabody's home westward. Mattie Baldwin made a valuable donation of land to the village and since which time the authorities have put a great amount of work on this steep and irregular hill. From half a street it has grown into a whole street beautifully graded and makes a very fine roadway and one we think will be used a great deal in driving to Greenwood cemetery.

The Exchange Bank has been obliged by its steadily increasing business the past two years to install a Burroughs adding machine or an Arithometer. This is a new and a most wonderful invention and is used to set down and add long columns of figures all in a mechanical way and no brain work or ink or pencil help. The cost is $350 and Mr. Whitehead invites anyone to call and see this new addition to the Birmingham Exchange Bank.

It may be of interest to Eccentric readers to learn that Oakland county fruit is among the best exhibited in the Michigan department of the horticultural building at the St. Louis World's Fair. Specimens of apples are shown from the orchards of Joseph Grayley, David Ward and C. L. Bartlett, of Pontiac, and A. Bailey, of Birmingham, and very conspicuous in the exhibit is a fine barrel of snow apples sent by E. LeVerne Davis of Davisburg. A number of others from this county are also represented.

A political woman remarked the other day that the most interesting things in a newspaper, to her, are the advertising columns. "Long ago," she said, "I quit buying of those who did not advertise. It seems to me that the advertiser invites me trade with him, while the other one who does not advertise impresses me with the idea that he doesn't care enough about my trade to ask for it. Then, too, I have found that the merchant who advertises has the fresher goods, for the reason, I suppose, that he sells more."

The report of the births of Oakland county has been placed on file. The births are compiled by the supervisors of the various townships and wards, the county paying ten cents for each birth reported. The report is as follows: Avon, 48; Bloomfield, 14; Brandon, 11; Commerce, 16; Farmington, 27; Addison, 66; Groveland, 12; Holly, 40; Highland, 6; Independence, 17; Lyon, 28; Milford, 6; Novi, 34; Oxford, 21; Orion, 5; Oakland, 8; Pontiac, 6; Rose, 4; Royal Oak, 30; Springfield, 7; Southfield, 27; Troy, 16; White Lake, 6; Waterford, 26; West Bloomfield, 16; Pontiac, first ward, 23; second ward, 11; third ward, 55; fourth ward, 38; fifth ward, 35; total, 622.

Japanese in 'Frisco Schools.

There are 15,000 Japanese in San Francisco. All the children attend the public schools, side by side with the whites. As the schools will not hold all the white children that seek admission a movement is on foot, for that and other reasons, to provide a separate school for the Japs. The Japs object to being put on the same plane as the Chinese.

HALF YEARLY SALE OF SILKS

IS NOW IN FULL BLAST

Quantity on Sale Estimated at 11,000 Yards without the Moneybak Black Silks, which are not reduced in Price.

Quality Same as is sold regularly over our counters the year round—not a job lot or what is commonly known as "Sale Silk among them.

Prices Fresh, fine stock, carefully selected for our fall business.

Averaging a quarter to a third less than usual. The short lengths on hand and those that are bound to accumulate as the Sale progresses, will be marked at half price.

In Regard to the Moneybak Silks

To prevent Misrepresentation on our part or misunderstading on your part, we desire to make it plain that there will be no reduction on Moneybak Black Silks. The makers of Moneybak Silks positively refuse any concession in price at any time or under any pretext, and request a signed agreement to that effect from each store that handle their goods. The Moneybaks are, however, the only silks excepted. The celebrated Arnold, Constable and Barnard & Armstrong Black Silks which have held the bulk of Oakland County's silk trade for years past, are decisively cut and can be relied upon as wonderful bargains at their new price, and their guarantee is stronger than any silks that have come into the field with the exception of Moneybak.

AN AVERAGE SAVING ON A SILK GOWN DURING THIS SALE IS FROM $3.50 TO $5.00.

HUMOUR of the DAY

Object to Matrimony.

"Look here," said the sour-faced lady who had answered the "personal," "your ad. is a fake; it distinctly stated 'object matrimony.'"

"Well—er—um—you see," faltered the man nervously, 'there was some mistake. The printer omitted a word. The ad. should have read, 'object "to" matrimony.'"—Town Topics.

Modern Maid in a Quandary.

Modern maid—I wish some advice. Old lady—Certainly, dear. What is it?

Modern maid—Shall I marry a man whose tastes are the opposite of mine and quarrel with him or shall I marry a man whose tastes are the same as mine and get tired of him?—New York Weekly.

One Would Do.

She—If I give you one kiss will you be satisfied?

He—Yes, if we start now, so we can get back home before night.

Boxed.

They were returning from the husking bee.

"And were there any red ears?" asked the friend.

"Oh, yes," responded the girl in the gingham dress. "I had two when pa caught that city fellow kissing me."

The Change Benefited Him.

"Yes," said Slyman, "I've been away for a week, down at Swell Beach."

"Ah! I suppose you got a little change for the better there."

"You bet. My hotel bill amounted to $31.50, and I paid for it with a counterfeit $50 note."

Something Wrong.

"Now, Henry," she began, with set jaw, "I must have $50 to-day."

"All right," replied her husband, "here it is."

"Gracious, Henry!" she exclaimed, suddenly paling. "What's the matter? Are you sick?"

Apprehension.

Little Edith—Oh, ma, when I grow up will I look like that?—Pittsburg Telegraph.
