To Our Friends.

When trading with any of our advertisers either in Birmingham, Pontiac or Detroit, it will be a great favor to us if you will mention the fact that you noticed their advertisement in our paper. A word from you at the time of trading, costs you nothing and benefits us greatly. Will you do good and do so?

THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC.

HOME NOTES.

Our winter is starting in fine.

Raynale A. Whitehead was home from Ann Arbor for Thanksgiving.

Miss Ada Eglin of Detroit spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. and Dr. Shaw.

Miss Tillie E. Walker, who has been very ill for several weeks, is now convalescing.

Lost, strayed or stolen, a pair of large fur gloves. Finder please leave at this office.

The ladies of St. James church are going to have a rummage booth at their Christmas sale.

Mrs. Alvin Wooster, of Pierce street, is a sufferer from appendicitis, but is now gaining slowly.

For sale at a big bargain, a light oak roll top desk and chair to match, For particulars call at this office. 13t

Next week at the M. E. church fair at Commerce, a baby show will be held. Pity the poor judges.

Lost—A black pig marked with tag in ear, Hupp No. 101. Finder please notify J. H. Carter, Birmingham. 2t

Mrs. Mary Donelson Shattuck, of Pontiac, is the oldest member of the Methodist church there and is still a great worker.

House to rent near Woodward Ave., cozy and comfortable. Inquire of E. Baxter or Grace Gillispie for terms etc. 2t

Royal Oak's foot ball team, on Thanksgiving day, in a hard fought battle, beat the Victors, of Pontiac, by a score of 15 to 0.

Go to Whitehead & Mitchell's and ask for a sack of Satterlee & Burtraw's Up-to-date bread flour. It never will be regretted.

Regular meeting of Birmingham Chapter No. 220, O. E. S., Wednesday evening, Dec. 13th. Meeting will commence at 7.30 sharp.

G. A. Smith, of Pontiac, last week shot a Lake Superior black duck at Sylvan Lake, that weighed more than six pounds. He certainly was a whopper.

Special meeting of Birmingham K. P. Lodge Tuesday evening, Dec. 12th, conferring of 1st degree. Every officer and member is requested to be present.

Anyone interested in voice culture and wishing to study same, call at my home two doors north of the National hotel. Terms reasonable. Carrie Lee Brown. 4t

The first fall of snow this winter was on December 2, when we woke up and began shovelling off from 200 running feet of sidewalk, four inches of the beautiful.

Captain Cornelius Losey, of Oxford, is dead. He was prominent in political and civic life and a veteran of the civil war. Neuralgia of the heart caused his death.

Donation for Rev. Geo. Dover, pastor of Franklin M. P. church, Wednesday evening, Dec. 13 at Franklin Public hall. Chicken pie supper. You are cordially invited.

The magazine writer wants to know the four sweetest words in the English language. "Enclosed please find check" is a quartet that is hard to beat when addressed to a newspaper man.

How about your holiday advertising? Can we do any for you? Don't forget that your competitors, the mail order houses, keep everlasting by at it, fifty-two weeks and 365 days in the year.

Mrs. Henry Grinnell, Jr. of near Franklin is quite ill and attended by Dr. J. L. Campbell of this place. At this writing she is convalescent and her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Palmer H. Sherman has bought the old Squire James home and all its additions and conditions, and is busily engaged in tearing it all down. The lot will be all cleaned up as soon as possible.

Died, of hemorrhage of the lungs at his home in West Detroit, Nov. 26, Thos. W. Jarvis, aged 61 years. He is survived by his wife and his sister, Mrs. John Toms. He was laid to rest in the Royal Oak cemetery.

The Elks of Pontiac observed their Memorial day at their Temple Sunday, the third day of December. A fine program was given and the memory of their deceased brethern was perpetuated.

Wilburn B. Harris, of the Cooper farm, has not progressed toward recovery as rapidly as his many friends could wish, but is on the mend now and we hope soon to announce his complete recovery.

Anna Belle Brown, aged 12 (colored), of Pontiac, is missing. Her parents are distracted. She bought a box of rough on rats, started for Detroit on a trolley car, and that is the last ever heard of her.

Now get out your money for taxes. They do say that Bloomfield's town, county and state tax never before was so high. The rate is a trifle over $11 per $1,000, and worst of all, the time to pay is just about Christmas time. Dig deep.

Poor Dr. C. M. Raynale is in mourning. Mr. Elliott, County Clerk of Marquette Co., Mich., a great nimrod, killed his fine fat buck and sent a hind quarter to his friend, our Dr. C. M. What do you think? It came all right, but useless, as it was too ripe.

The Critic for December says "If books should be wiped out of existence would not Christmas have to be given up? For books are to young and old 'the ideal gift.' Why not give a year's subscription to the Library and so give 2400 books instead of one.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Groom rejoice in the safe arrival of a bouncing baby boy and he is a fine and dandy little fellow. Papa Groom is becoming acquainted with catnip, senna, castoria and all such trifles needed to bring a boy up in the way he should go.

Pontiac is to have a new automobile factory to be known as the Pontiac Motor Company. It is capitalized at $25,000. They have secured the right to use Halfpenny's patented spring, and as this location is chosen, the enterprise is considered an assured fact.

The ladies aid society of the Baptist church will hold their annual meeting at the home of T. E. Crary, Wednesday, Dec. 13, business meeting to be called to order at 2 o'clock standard time. A full attendance of members and friends is earnestly hoped for.

John Nixon, of Southfield, by his attorney, Wade Millis, of Detroit, is sueing the Detroit United Railway for $5,000. It will be two years next February since John, with a loaded wagon and span of horses got mixed up with a trolley car all. The horse died shortly after.

E. and F. E. Clark, our village photographers, have moved gallery and all to Springfield, Ohio. Any one having photos coming or wishing prints from negatives will please address this firm at the Stanton Studio, Springfield, Ohio, where all orders will be promptly attended. 2t

For sale—A Regal Oak 16 in. fire pot adapted to any kind of fuel with adjustable magazine for burning hard coal. Extra grate for wood. All in good order, practically new, call and see it, eight dollars will buy it. It is a bargain. Frank Buncher at Mrs. L. P. Woosters, Pierce St. 3t

We hope soon to be able to give our readers from one quarter to a column of school news and items from every room in the school building. It will be of interest to the patrons and pupils of our most successful school under the care and direction of Prof. A. E. Bellis.

The Michigan State Telephone Co. at Pontiac is going to give the county seat the best office in the State, and it will cost the company nearly $50,000. The new system will include among other later improvements the automatic call which does away with the present necessity of ringing the bell when desiring to call a number.

There will be a Christmas sale and supper, held in the basement of St. James church on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Dec 13th and 14th. Many useful, beautiful and artistic novelties will be found there. Come and get a good chicken pie supper and buy your Christmas presents. Supper served from five to eight, standard time.

The day before Thanksgiving, Nov. 29, Mrs. Mary Poppleton gave her father, Stephen B. Cooper, a birthday celebration, and our venerable friend enjoyed his 85th birthday anniversary by a sumptuous turkey dinner, surrounded by relatives and friends and a general jolly all day long. Here's hopin' the good man will enjoy many more such days.

While nearly every one was enjoying a Thanksgiving day of rest Ed Lamb, the energetic janitor of our Union School building, just oiled the floors all over up stairs, down stairs and in the Professor's office. He worked two days at it and the result shows everything shining like satin and his whole work there shows care pride and efficiency.

A lady customer says to Mitchell yesterday: "Say, but that last flour I got of you was the best I ever used." This was gratifying to the dealer and the flour was the new brand flour of Satterlee & Burtraw—the up-to-date bread flour that is the result of a happy blending of Moss Rose and Minnesota spring wheat flour. Try it. Less cost than foreign bread flour.

We heard a rumor that a lady living on Council Bluffs is bemoaning the fact that we never said a word about what she saw while on a recent visit in "old Kentuck". Bless her dear little heart, all she need do to have it in print is to write it up and send it in. We will print for her as well as any other, the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. Please do.

Miss Gertrude Mudge entertained a number of friends from Detroit, Pontiac and Birmingham at her home Saturday evening in honor of her birthday. Various amusements were indulged in by the merry company, dainty refreshments, being served at the close of the fun. She received many beautiful presents and at mid-night the guests departed, wishing her many returns of the day.

In all communities there are some people whose reputation stands explained in the following old saying: "His word is as good as his bond" and his statements are never questioned. Such a reputation does not grow in one season—it takes many seasons. Just so with corporations and insurance companies. The Hartford is one of them and for 110 years its reputation has been growing. Its contracts are worth face value; and so is the Ætna Life & Accident Insurance Co. J. Allen Bigelow, agent.

The Pontiac Poultry Club has decided to have the 7th annual show at the McCallum opera house from January 16th to the 20th. The committee is working on the premium list and the advertising is rapidly being taken up. Last year there were between 600 and 700 entries and this year they will undoubtedly go as high as a thousand. By eliminating the dog and pet stock entries they are able to make the show of a much higher standard and to get better entries in the poultry line than they have in former years.

Dr. J. L. and Mrs. Campbell attended a reunion of the Cheney family held at Goodrich, Mich. on Thanksgiving day. Dr Campbell's mother was a Miss Cheney and at the gathering 57 were present among them five sisters and two brothers—Jane Campbell, Martha Vantine, Julia Snider, Mahala Liscom, Hiram Cheney, John D. Cheney and Hattie Henderson. The oldest was 82, the youngest 63. Their combined ages were 507 years. Relatives were present from Detroit, Royal Oak, Birmingham Caro, Vassar, Davison, Grand Blanc and Goodrich. After the dinner hour a pleasant time was enjoyed in listening to a program consisting of music, recitations and readings. One number in particular was interesting, the two oldest sisters, Mrs. Jane Campbell and Martha Vantine singing songs that they learned seventy-four years ago while attending school at Rochester, N. Y.

Benefit of Exercise.

After bad food, the next greater cause of disease is lack of exercise. Specific cases require specific treatment, but it is safe to say that a walk of three miles each day in all weathers is the least amount upon which health can be maintained.
