Five stores in one night were recently burglarized in Utica. Four tramps seen lounging around during the day are supposed to be the desperadoes.

Pontiac is in the agonizing throes of a Street Fair this week. We suppose bye and bye when they get cheaper, perhaps our village will be blessed(?) with one.

Mr. A. J. Haney, of Dallas City, Ill., representing the National Manufacturing Company of Detroit, was a visitor at Dr. Clark's Saturday and Sunday.

Don't forget that Sunday is Children's Day in the M. E. church, and that means a program by the children, equal to the one given at Easter. Come.

A letter from Petoskey asking for suggestions along the line of Improvement has been received here. Truly, little Birmingham has a reputation, but it still allows its fine walks to be stained with tobacco juice, and its citizens to be exposed to the contagion in foul expectorations.

John Licht, of Warren, recently bought the Parks mill property in that village, at $1,400. He will sell out the old machinery, move the house now occupied by F. Walker back, and build part of a new house in front. He made his purchase through William Parks of this village.

On Sunay next, June 11, Birmingham Lodge No. 149, K. of P. will leave for Pontiac on the 1:00 p. m. standard time to participate in the annual memorial services held their for the decoration of all deceased knights. The annual Commencement of the departments of Dental Surgery and Pharmacy of the Detroit College of Medicine were held at Harmonie Hall, last evening, June eight. John M. Rainey of our village graduated from the dental department with honors. We wish him success in his new calling.

The monthly bulletin of vital statistics shows that there were 52 deaths in Oakland county in April, a death rate of 13.8 per 1,000 population. Twenty persons who died in April were over 65 years of age. Six died from pneumonia or kindred diseases, one from cancer and one from violence.

The Misses Hazel and Leslie Blodgett, Florence Beach, Mabel Young, Hazel Bossardet, and Messrs Lee Blodgett, Charlie McClure, Vernon McClure, Walter Edgar, Byron Sharp and Arthur Young had a genuine surprise on Miss Iva Felder on May 27, and she hasn't got over it yet. A dainty luncheon was served and all had a fine time.

An Oxford lady, who was unable to attend a church supper recently given in that town, sent along her dime buried in a dish of salad. The money was not found and several dozen Oxford people are now wondering if they are the ones that swallowed the silver. Everybody who attended that supper is now living in dread of being attacked by appendicitis.

A little boy in the Milford schools was asked to write an essay on some well known animal, and here is what he produced: The fli is a little animile that gets in the butter in the good old summer time. It has eight legs, 4 to walk on, 2 to shuffle together and 2 to tickle with. Flies are foud all over Amerky but mostly on bald heads."

Since the starting of the Marks stave and hoop mill, under the management of W. D. Millspaugh, it has turned out two million and a quarter of hoops and nearly a million staves. There is plenty money behind the enterprise and plenty timber on hand to run the mill for a year and a half. Anyone having timber to sell can get the ready cash by applying to Mr. Millspaugh.

Last Wednesday, through the real estate department of the Exchange Bank. Dr. Johnston sold to A. O. Smith of Detroit, his residence on Maple Ave. East, for $2000. Possession will be given on or before Sept. 1st. It is the best and cheapest place we have had on our list for some time and every body is happy. Mr. Johnston at once bought another site and will commence the erection of a $4,000 dwelling in the immediate future.

In the fine description of Birmingham given in last Sunday's News-Tribune, is the statement, "That its 1,400 inhabitants possess the spirit of enterprise, is evinced by the presence of a public library, brick school building, water works," etc. Now hush, keep still, don't ever let them know what our voters did last spring in regard to a public library. It wouldn't look so well for our town as this does.

Dr. Chas. M. Raynale and wife with Mrs. A. Whitehead left Birmingham last Tuesday for Norwood, a suburban town of Cincinnati, O., and were present Wednesday at the wedding of Dr. Geo. P. Raynale and Miss Edna M. Brooks. The happy couple will arrive at their new home in Birmingham soon, but the Birmingham contingent will visit for about two weeks before returning.

The song recital at the Howland Opera House at Pontiac, Monday evening, was a fine affair. Wm. Lavin, tenor, late with Patti and Sembrick, was in fine form and Homer Warren, of Detroit, gave several selections. Miss Khubottom simply charmed the audience with her superb execution on the violin. Quite a number from this place were in attendance.

Invitations are out announcing the wedding of Miss Nellie A. Randall of this place and Mr. William Nichols of Greeley, Colo., on June 21. Both are popular young people with many friends in their respective homes. The Alpha Omnikron society give Miss Nellie a leaf shower this week at Miss Mayme Tabor's and Mrs. G. H. Mitchell gives a linen shower on Thursday evening, June 14, at her home. Quite showery this week—have you noticed it.

The afternoon program begins at 2:30 standard time, evening at 8 o'clock. An interesting program of essays, recitations music, etc., will be given the Normal class in the afternoon, and in the evening an address by C. F. Grawn of the Central Normal College will be given. Admission free. Come and take an interest in the Oakland County Normal.

Died, in Detroit very suddenly, on Saturday last, Mr. Albert L. Lee, formerly of Southfield and a brother of Volney H. Lee of this place. Mr. Lee was working a this trade of carpenter, when he suddenfell forward and expired before anyone could reach him. He was a member of Birmingham lodge, No. 44, F. and A. M., and was in good standing. His remains were interred at Southfield on Tuesday last. He leaves a widow and family besides a host of friends to mourn his loss.

The Misses Florence Beach and Mabel Young, and Master Arthur H. Young, of Evangeline Farm, Bert C. Wilder, of Detroit, and Miss Iva I. Felder, acting as chaperone, spent Decoration Day at Sylvan Lake. Through the course of the day a basket of "goodies" managed to disappear. Arthur's pony rig furnished amusement for the girls, and the question is where did they drive? Also Dr. and Mrs. Young and Miss Margaret spent the day at the lake. All had a most enjoyable time.

The telephone proposition is rapidly advancing under the management of G. H. Mitchell, the Exchange having risen from 15 subscribers to nearly 80, and the progressive manager authorizes us to say that when the Exchange numbers 100, all day Sunday service and all night service will be established. Three new members were added to the telephone family last week, Mr. Fred Parks near Boyd's Corners, Mr. Coryell who purchased part of the Watkins Farm, and Mr. Frank Buncher in this village who lives at Mrs. A. W. Wooster's home. Other subscribers are nibbling and the whole number is now 73 with fine prospects for more.

THE DIP OF DEATH.

A Thrilling Sensation in the Great Barnum & Bailey Show.

It has been definitely announced that the Barnum & Bailey Greatest Show on Earth will exhibit in Detroit on June 19. The tremendous success of the circus in New York where the season was opened early in March has been duly heralded and the thousands of people who visited the show at Madison Square Garden have been loud in their praise of the mammoth aggregation and the same show replete with its many features of sensational greatness, combined with its peerless presentation of the world's most marvelous exhibitions, will be exhibited in its entirety wherever it is advertised to appear this season. The three rings, two stages, and immense hippodrome will serve to introduce a conclave of startling and stupendous acts, and the zoological display of the rarest wild beasts will add to the magnitude of the attraction. The Durbar at Delhi, an exact presentation of the historical jubilee at India, costumed in the most gorgeous styles, the congress of curiosities and the startling feat "The Dip of Death"—ae act where a daring woman leaps the gap in an automobile, makes the show, beyond doubt, the unapproachable success of the season. The Brothers Ancillotti, two young Frenchmen, attired in faultless evening dress, perform the thrilling feat of simultaneously looping and leaping the quadruple chasms—an act conceded by all to be the highest acme of nerve and fearlessness. The Lecuson Troupe in coach acrobatic work, and the Imperial Viennese act of ten aerial trapeze performers are with this remarkable tented aggregation this season.

A very remarkable exhibition of the most meritorious nature, without an equal in the world for thrilling and daring, will be given free on the circus grounds before the big show opens. This is an entirely new idea with the "Greatest Show on Earth."

BASE BALL NEWS

Norris Co. too Much for B. A. C.—Birmingham Juniors Won Their Game With Pontiac.

The Birmingham Athletic club base ball team was defeated by the Norris Co. nine, of Detroit, in a rather loosely played game last Saturday afternoon, errors by Birmingham players being wholly responsible for their defeat. The score is as follows:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.	E.
Norris Co.	0	3	0	6	0	0	1	0	—	10	6	2
Birmingham	0	0	0	0	0	3	0	0	—	3	9	8

Batteries—Birmingham, Blanding and King; Norris Co., Pratt and Harris. Umpire—Fleetham. Time—2:00. Attendance—125.

Tomorrow the B. A. C. will play with the Tigers of Detroit. This is the team that defeated Birmingham recently by a score of 3 to 2, and our boys will try hard tomorrow to even things up, and no doubt a good game will be the result.

Last Saturday morning the Birmingham Juniors again demonstrated the fact that they could play ball by defeating the Pontiac Juniors by a score of 9 to 4. Barr and Deer and Russell were the battery for the winners. The Birmingham Juniors have not lost a game this season.

The St. Pauls defeated Southfield Kids on Saturday last in a 6 innings game.

AT THE THEATERS.

AVENUE.

The close of the most successful season in the history of extravaganza in Detroit will be celebrated this week at this theater by the appearance of "The Bohemians," an organization chosen because it played to the heaviest receipts on the circuit for the season just closing. It has not been seen here since October. Do you remember "Pasty," Andy Gardner and Ida Nocolai, in "A Day at the Races?" They are with "The Bohemians" at the head of the biggest chorus.

WHITNEY

The advent of popular vaudeville at the Whitney has caught on to such an extent that each day finds the house well packed with vaudeville enthusiasts, drawn there by the meritorious bills set forth. The bill for next week will include several acts which could all be featured as headliners. You will find the American Comedy Four, Santor & Morlo, the Three Kelleys, Hallback & Parquette (colored) and several others ready to amuse you with the latest stunts and sketches and catchy songs. The kieutograph will project a new film.

LYCEUM.

The fifth week of the Vaughan Glaser Stock Company at the Lyceum will begin next Sunday evening, June 11, when the Glaser players will present "Aristocracy." This masterpiece of Bronson Howard's has been called his strongest play. It is a social comedy drama with an absorbing plot and the most tender heart interest. It tells the story of an American family which fails to gain social recognition in New York, and in order to win this position the father, a multi-millionaire, buys abroad the place in society he could not secure in New York. Returning from the courts of Europe the Stocktons find a place in New York's most exclusive set. The struggle to win this place, its sacrifices and disappointments, its love story and its comedy, forms a play that is every whit as finely told as was the same author's "The Banker's Daughter," and is in every way a similar and yet better play.

FAREWELL

The following poem by A. H. Leet of Franklin is published by request:

'Tis the last Christmas eve in the old home,
'Tis the last Christmas eve for us all;
For tomorrow we take a last farewell
Of parlor and kitchen and hall.

In the old home we've wept in our anguish,
In the old home we've laughed in our mirth,
In the old home are fond recollections
Far dearer than all else on earth.

Each room in the old home is hallowed
By memories of pleasure and pain;
In those rooms loving ones round us gathered,
Loved and lost ones we'll never see again.

There's a room in the old home that's sacred,
Where we stood by a loving one's bed,
With weeping and wailing and grief sobs
We gazed on the face of the dead.

In that one sacred room in the old home,
We crossed her frail hands o'er breast,
And kissed the cold lips of our loved one,
And left her alone in death's rest.

As we take a last look at the old home,
Our feelings no language can tell,
In our anguish grim death would be welcome.
As we whisper "dear old home, farewell."

A BABY FARMER COMES TO GRIEF

From the Rochester Era.

Several weeks ago an infant was left on the doorstep of John Rorich, at Oxford, and was adopted by the family. Last Wednesday a woman took the seven o'clock car out of Detroit with a baby in her arms. Conductor Simpson recognized the woman as the same one who was on the car several weeks before. He also remembered that she had a babe in her arms when she got off the car at Oxford, but none when she got on the car to return. Deputy Sheriff Casey was on the car and he was given a "tip" to watch the woman, and he accordingly went on to Oxford. She got off the car at Oxford, but this car did not go on to Flint, making the turn there for the return trip. When she again got the car she still had the baby. She asked the conductor to let her off at Wm. Benjamin's, and to wait for her. She was back in a minute, but the baby was gone. Casey had stayed on the car, but said nothing to her until they got to Royal Oak, when he spoke to her about the babe. She denied it at first, but finally acknowledged having left the child, whereupon Casey arrested her and took her to Pontiac jail and locked her up. Officers went to Detroit and found that a woman named Allen was running a lying-in hospital there, that the unfortunate woman gave her $30 each to "place" the infants. She had a corps of women who made it a business to "find homes" for the little unfortunates.

"A SQUARE DEAL."

How President Roosevelt's Motto Is Illustrated by Pepsikola.

Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb say Pepsikola Tablets is the best possible illustration of what our strenuous President means by a square deal. This remarkable remedy is sold to everybody with the express agreement that if it does not do exactly as represented the buyer's money will be cheerfully refunded. They are guaranteed to quickly relieve and permanently cure all stomach troubles, tone up the whole system, give new life and vigor, better courage, more vitality, and bring the weak, weary and despondent back to joyous health.

If they do not cure you of heartburn, sour stomach, loss of appetite, dizziness, headache, lassitude, and all other unpleasant conditions arising from indigestion, all you have to do is to step into any of the above drug stores and they will pay your money back.

The price is only 25c if they cure. If they fail the cost is nothing. But they won't fail. They will tell you that dozens of people you know have been benefitted and cured of indigestion and dyspepsia by Pepsikola Tablets, and they will give you a "square deal." No cure, no pay.

LOOKS TWENTY YEARS YOUNGER

How a Birmingham Woman Shook Off the Hand of Time and Is Young Again.

"We don't need to speak her name," said Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb last week, "for you'll know who we mean when you next see her. Why, we never saw a woman's appearance to be so changed and improved. Her complexion is now as fresh and beautiful as a young girl's, her step is elastic and her eye has the snap and sparkle that goes with perfect health. And we are partly responsible for it," continued the druggists, "for we recommended what transformed her from a woman of forty to a girl of twenty. What is it? Well, it is Dr. Davis' famous prescription, Laxakola Tonic Tablets, and when we heard of it we immediately ordered a large supply. And the way they tone up the system, clear the complexion and rejuvenate the whole body is surprising. They are a gentle laxative, promoting an easy, natural action of the bowels and carrying off all waste matter that way instead of letting the poison come through the skin. There isn't a woman in town who can afford to be without Laxakola Tonic Tablets, for they cost only 25 cents a box, and if they don't do all that is claimed we pay her money back."

ROSS STOCKWELL, Probate Clerk. June 2 to June30

No Secret About It.

It is no secret, that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Boils, etc. nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. 25c at Whitehead & Mitchell's and Cobb & Cobb's drug stores.
