A Boston schoolboy was tall, weak and sickly.

His arms were soft and flabby. He didn't have a strong muscle in his entire body.

The physician who had attended the family for thirty years prescribed Scott's Emulsion.

COUNTY LINE

Daniel Allison and family were at Uncle Will Ellwood's last Friday.

Mrs. Clark was called to Detroit last week by the sickness of a daughter.

Fred Hansen is getting ready for the erection of another barn in the near future.

H. A. Miller has just bought a complete husker outfit with a gasoline engine, and now he can do his own husking.

The Jackson school will open next Monday, unless the scarlet fever makes its appearance again among the children.

Dan Hughes has bought the old milk house from the Chapman boys and will fix it for his threshing outfit. Dan is a lucky boy.

Frank Render is plastering his house and George McQuater is the Boss, with big Band a most satisfactory job is being finished.

Harry Russell cannot leave sawing alone when he has a chance. He is now running the saw at the mill in Johnson's woods.

Doctor Morrison, of Southfield, is making lots of improvements around his pleasant home, and everything is as neat as a rat's ankle.

Miss Irene Ellwood, who was taken some time ago with scarlet fever, is a good deal better, and will soon be out and around again as well as ever.

The Beddow school was closed last week Thursday and Friday while the teacher, Miss Margaret Young, attended the State Institute at Battle Creek.

James Jones, of Southfield, near Harmon corners, while at dinner last Monday, dropped dead. He leaves a widow and five children to mourn his untimely end.

Miss Vina Purdy closed her school last Thursday and Friday, Oct. 25, and 26, to attend the State Institute at Battle Creek. She reports a most interesting and instructive meeting.

A. L. Bailey, who has been in the employ of Starr, the seedsman, has resigned. We understaand that he has hired out to the Misses Israel of Maplehurst, and that next season their specialty will be strawberries.

Rev. Archie McKee has accepted a call to the Sand Hill and Southfield Presbyterian Churches. He will enter his new field of labor next Sunday, November 4th. He will preach at the Southfield Church at 2:30 p. m.

Born to Mr. and Mrs Maxwell, a nice baby girl last Tuesday, October 23, and mother and babe are doing nicely. Papa William is rejoicing with a box o' the best cigars, and for a fact he can suit your taste. 'Rah for our route.

Charles Blair, employed by the Miller brothers on the Fairview Farm, is a hustler, but that did not save him from a puncture in the foot. He encountered the business end of a pitchfork while sliding off the hay-mow. Though yet sore Charlie can still eat three squares a day.

The Gleaner Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Larkins, on Wednesday, Nov. 14. After the business meeting is over, a good three-o'clock lunch will be served. Everybody knows the reputation this good motherly lady, Mrs. Larkins, enjoys for hospitality, where all are made welcome, and to feel right at home. Come, one and all and have a good time and visit.

Last Sunday the S. H. Blodgett family entertained the following visitors: Mr. and Mrs. George B. Updegrove, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Miss Alice Kirby and Clare Blodgett, of Flint; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Blodgett and daughter, and Miss Grace Parker, of Detroit; Mrs. Charles Holser, of Pleasant Lake; Mr. and Mrs. John Benjamin, of Royal Oak; Mr. and Mrs. John Kleist and Roy Kleist, of Birmingham. All had a good time.

We would like to ask a favor from our patrons of the R. F. D. Listen! You all know that winter is coming, and it is going to be cold, and the carriers will be cold; as if you will just buy a few stamps it will tickle the carriers. And say! if you haven't got money, the carrier will trust you for a short time, and if you don't want to do that, just wrap a piece of paper around your two cents, or whatever the case may be, and I know that the carrier will rise up and call you forever blessed. Please don't say, "we will make him earn his money, he has a snap." Don't say that, good people, but help the poor traveler on his weary way.

LIVE STOCK EXPOSITION.

Murdo Mackenzie, president of the American National Live Stock Association and manager of the Matador Cattle Company, of Texas, and above all, a student of live stock problems, is a very busy man with his multiplicity of duties in the interest of live stock, yet he found time to give the following short statement concerning this greatest of all shows:

"No one appreciates more than I do the good the International Live Stock Exposition has done and is doing for the live stock and agricultural interests of America, and its influences are felt abroad. It is a liberal education to us all. No matter how much we think we already know, there is a never ending fund of information on breeding, feeding and marketing problems to be found at this great show. I only wish that I could raise my voice loud enough to be heard by all my fellow live stock men to advise them to never miss an opportunity to take advantage of its teachings. As the live stock industry grows more and more closely allied with agriculture the coming generation of farmers should be sure to make a pilgrimage to the show and study the various breeds of animals there shown and hear and see the experiences and results of the life's work of the best breeders and feeders of America, who are exhibitors and in attendance at the annual association meetings held during the week of the show."

TAKE NOTHING FOR GRANTED

Make Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb Prove What Pepsikola Tablets do for Indigestion.

It stands to reason that Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb would not come right out in these columns year after year and ask you to try Pepsikola Tablets for indigestion if they were not pretty sure you would receive decided benefit. You can see that for yourself. The remedy fails to cure every case, of course, but they always pay your quarter back should the tablets fail to do good. Life is too short for misrepresentation in matters of this kind, and for the small profit Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb make on a 25c package it would be mighty poor judgment to induce you to make a trip to their stores and then sell you something that would disappoint you. If troubled with sour stomach, heart-burn, wind belching, coated tongue, loss of appetite, weakened energy, nervousness, fullness after eating, or other stomach trouble, just try Pepsikola Tablets on our say so. Our word for it, they will build up your energy, steady your nerves, improve your appetite, enrich your blood and put new life in your stomach as sure as this world.

Base ball players seem to lack enterprise. Up to date none of them have started a cor espondence school.

How to Beautify Your Skin.

THE JAP WEDDING

Miss Edith Shotwell, Under Many Difficulties, Gives Our People a Fine Entertainment.

Last week Friday night, at the M. E. Church, nearly 300 spectators enjoyed a regular Japanese wedding. It was the real thing, with genuine Japan people officiating, and although it was no new thing for them, the ceremony to Birmingham people was new, unique, and very interesting. The wedding was a fine affair and the National Hymn sung in Japanese language at the wedding, was the genuine article. The Japan people were Mr. and Mrs. Tackahashi, with the kidlet Tacky; and a relative, Mr. Chimay, was along. Aside from the wedding, a musical and literary program was rendered. Mr. Dailey sang a fine solo and was heartily encored. Mrs. Tackahashi also sang and won a hearty round of applause; she also played the Voicophone so skillfully that even the editor with all his cares and troubles laughed. Miss Tresa Way, a teacher of elocution in Detroit, gave several numbers, and the large congregation was loth to let her go. Her selection from "Seven Oaks," with her hearty national laughter, caused us at once to sit up and take notice. She is a very talented and successful young woman.

While the tea was steeping, drawing or whatever you may call it, Mr. Tackahashi talked very interestingly to the people in the basement of the church, on the opposite customs of United States and Japan. In Japan you turn to the left in meeting a pedestrian. Men take their hats off, bow very impressively two to four times on meeting, and no matter how cold the weather may be, stand bare-headed until they separate. Houses are built from the top downwards and the best rooms are at the rear end of the house and the higher up you go, the dearer the rent. Come again, you people. These Japan people are interested in the tea trade in Detroit and handle only the very best.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, School Superintendent at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until, as a last resort, we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed at Whitehead & Mitchell's and Cobb & Cobb's drug stores. Price 50c.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
Cures Colds; Prevents Pneumonia

AT THE THEATRES.

LYCEUM.

Beginning next Sunday night, Kellar, the world's greatest magician, and a great favorite with Lyceum Theatre goers, will open a week's engagement in this theatre. In his realm of magic and mystery Kellar is supreme and alone—the only man worthy to be styled a wonder worker. His weird manipulation of the laws of Nature; his mastery of all the tricks and quirks of magic; his delightfully humorous style in handling the most abstruse problems in gravitation—all these qualities in this wonderful man are evidenced in his splendid entertainments. This season Kellar has novelties without number, but retains the principal of last year's wonders; notably, the great Levitation act, a feat which defies explanation.

One of the great magician's mysteries is called "The Golden Butterfly," it being a remarkable mystery, during the portraval of which a beautiful young woman in the form of a butterfly standing in bright light, disappears in a twinkling. Paul Valadon, whose work met with such approval last year promises many new surprises in small magic.

Matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

WHITNEY.

"The Eye Witness," Lincoln J. Carter's latest melodramatic success, will have its first Detroit presentation at the Whitney Sunday afternoon. The play itself is a strong one and even without the magnificent scenic embellishmegt and ingenious mechanism with which it is provided, would prove a huge success. A strong, exciting, coherent plot runs through the play, which holds the interest from the overture to the final curtain. It portrays almost every side of human life, is replete with laughter and tears, trials and triumphs. It makes virtue attractive and vice repellent, and abounds in a variety of incidents and great contrast of characterization.

The two great climaxes occur in the fourth and fifth acts.

The company is strong and well balanced and in the comedy end Mr. Carter has been unusually prolific, many scenes being constructed with the comedy end in view.

Matinees will be given daily except Wednesday.

GAYETY.

Robie's famous Knickerbocker Burlesquers will be the attraction at the Gayety theatre, Lafayette and Shelby, opposite the postoffice, Detroit, for the week of November 4th. The bill comprises a selected list of vaudeville acts and comedians, notably, among whom stands the Great Christy, who "juggles some." Then by way of advertisement, the celebrated Peschkoff troupe of Royal Russian dancers. Two big burlesques with new music, scenery and costumes enhanced by a chorous of 20 comely young women constitute a great attraction.

A special midnight matinee will be given Tuesday night, and full election returns will be read from the stage.

Thursday an extra attraction will be the amateurs and on Friday night a lively wrestling tournament. Week day bargain matinees at 15 and 25 cents.

Taken as directed, it becomes the greatest curative agent for the relief of suffering humanity ever devised. Such is Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea; ten or tablets. Whitehead & Mitchell.

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION—Probate of Will.

State of Michigan, the Probate Court for the County of Oakland. At a session of said Court, held at the Probate office in the City of Pontiac, in said county, on the 19th day of October, A. D. 1906. Present, Hon. Joseph S. Stockwell, Judge of Probate. In the matter of the estate of STEPHEN COOPER, Deceased.

Mary B. Pepplock having filed in said Court a petition praying that certain instruments in writing, purporting to be the last will and testament, and codicil thereto, of said deceased, now on file in said Court be admitted to probate, and that the administration of said estate be granted to Mary B.
