First snow storm of the season Sunday morning.

Mrs. Volney Nixon is visiting relatives at Armada this week.

WANTED—Practical man to work dairy farm on shares. Cows furnished. Address Box 6, Birmingham. 2t

Earl Thomas, of Holly, has returned from New Mexico, satisfied that there is no place like his old home town.

Mrs. Samuel Herbison has been on the sick list for some time. We hope soon to report her complete recovery.

The Holly Cemetery Board is about to give a rendition of Damon and Pythias in hopes of increasing its bank account.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hupp and family are moving back into their old home, vacated by M. L. Martin and family last week.

Mrs. Louisa Stison, of White Lake, is desirous of a legal separation from Charles Stison, whose present address is unknown.

Norris A. Sherwood, a popular farmer of Holly township, is dead at the age of 50 years. He had been in poor health for 16 years.

It am powerful easy to discriminate between a wise man an' a fanatic. De wise man belongs to your party; de fanatic to the opposishun.

Don't forget the dance at the Johnston-Shaw hall this Friday evening, October 25th. Everyone having an invitation should be there. Don't fail.

After an illness of 18 months, Mrs. Julia A. Schooley died at Davisburg on October 12th. She was the mother of Porter A. Wright, Holly's well-known business man.

Superintendent John Barclay and family have moved from Woodward avenue to Maple avenue and will occupy the house vacated last week by Mr. and Mrs. Rogers and family.

S. H. Rogers and family have moved from the Randall house on Maple avenue, where they have resided for a number of years, into the house recently occupied by Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Crawford.

Mrs. Peter Kerr and her mother with Mrs. Harvey Staley all passed a happy day recently visiting with Mrs. Peter Anderson at their pleasant Troy home. The Birmingham ladies are still talking over the good time they had.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Stearns, which was their experience social also, and which netted them $30. They expect to raise a mile of pennies, each member seeing how many yards she can collect before next April.

The B. H. S. team was up against it good and hard Friday afternoon when it tackled the county seat bunch. Pontiac cleaned up with a score of 46 to 5, and might have been scoring yet if darkness had not called a halt. In the last half Bell and Streeter, of the B. H. S., were slightly injured, as was also Beaudette, of Pontiac.

A number of Pontiac ladies have been working here for some time past organizing a hive of the Maccabees of the World, and have secured enough prospective members to start off. Last week Tuesday evening, Mrs. Dioelle, of Detroit, a prominent Maccabee of the World, was in town and obligated the Birmingham ladies so that the hive here is an assured fact.

A number of Birmingham men are employed on the Charles Stinchfield farm in Bloomfield Hills. Mr. Stinchfield is having a large stone wall erected between the east side of the artificial lake and the road. The lake is enlarging and gradually eating away the banks. It was found necessary to build a wall in order to keep the water from undermining the road.

The ladies of the St. James church feel justly indebted to Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Walker, of Long Meadows farm, for their genial, generous hospitality, in regard to the clam-chowder fest last week. Their thanks are due also to Richard Erwin, Wilbora B. Harris and James W. Cobb for transportation facilities, and also to Mr. Leech, of Pierce street, for his knowledge as chef in the clam chowder line. Little Willie Walker was at his best. The whole affair was successful in every detail and the financial end was a goodly surprise to all.

It is now legal to have squirrel on the menu, and the family eat is now in hiding.

Milford Methodists tendered Rev. G. E. Sharp, their new pastor, and wife a reception.

The postmaster at Ortonville contributed $150 to safe-crackers one night last week.

You can cut down a trolly pole quickly with an auto, but it is a rather expensive proceeding.

Frank Weston, of Milford, denies that he offered to give away his twin ladies as reported.

It is not true that love makes all things easy; it makes us choose what is difficult.—George Eliot.

Mrs. Thomas A. Ward is spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs Schmuck, of Cleveland, O.

Rev. N. G. Lyons, at one time pastor of the Pontiac M. E. church, is now located at Haverhill, Mass.

Miss Ethel Johnston, who has been confined to her home the past week on account of illness, is somewhat improved.

School kids throughout the state are enjoying a three-days vacation while the teachers are attending the institute at Battle Creek.

The Ladies' Aid society, of the M. E. church, will meet at the home of Mrs. Eugene Smith next Friday afternoon, November 1st. No supper.

Don't put ashes on the street, and don't locate your ash pile where every one can see it. Let us have a neat town in winter as well as in snmmer.

The brick work on John Hanna's new house on Pierce street, is finished and now it is up to Architect F. W. Sherman to finish it up as soon as possible.

Clinton Gardner, of Pontiac, has just paid $50 for the privilege of touching off a bunch of fire-crackers under a horse's heels at Rochester on the day we celebrate.

Those having goods for the rummage sale of the Presbyterian ladies who can not deliver the goods to Andrew Porter's, will please notify Mrs. J. H. Snow and someone will call for the donation.

Mr. Ellis Faint left mother, home, ham sandwiches and Birmingham, for Los Angeles, California, the first of the week. Whether he is away travelling for health, wealth or happiness or business, we wish him success and prophesy that he will win it.

Tuesday afternoon everybody in town rubbered their necks nearly off looking for one of the St. Louis national contest baloons, reported by the Evening News office as being due to pass over Birmingham about 1 o'clock. It passed over the state fair grounds instead of Birmingham and was seen by Motorman McHugh from his car coming north.

Clem C. Hedger, years ago a resident of our town, hands us a copy of the Aberdeen (S. Dak.,) Daily Times. It is very interesting but the most interesting reading is the principal article—the Hub City playing host to Masons and the Grand Lodge. It gives a pleasing account of the impressive laying of the new Normal cornerstone with a fine view of the Aberdeen home of the Masonic lodge. Thanks.

T. D. Herrick will sell on the premises known as the George Allen Farm, one mile north and one mile west of Birmingham, on the Quarton road, Wednesday, October 30, at 1 o'clock p. m. Among the goods to be sold are nine acres corn in shock, stack of oat and pea straw, some beans as pulled, about 100 Rhode Island Reds and Buff Leghorns' 240-egg Cyphers incubator, and all household goods. Hiram Van Loon, auctioneer. Mr. Herrick is compelled to go south for his health, and will sell everything.

The experience social given by the Presbyterian ladies at the home of Mrs. Addie L. Stearns last Wednesday evening was a fine affair. Nearly $40 were turned in, and how it was earned and the way it was told was amusing, interesting and delightful. The men turned out in goodly numbers, had a fine take of food all by themselves, and voted it immense. Arrangements were made to gather in pennies by the yard, also a food sale and rummage sale are in sight. This makes all the male contingent lock up their clothing for the sake of necessity if nothing more.

This office is indebted to County Clerk Brown for one of the directories of Oakland county which has just been published at his instigation. The directory is printed on a large sheet of cardboard and contains a lot of valuable information, such as names and addresses of all township officers, village officers, justices of the peace, deputy sheriffs, post-offices and postmasters, Pontiac city officers, members of soldiers' relief commissioners, and much other matter of like character. The directory is said to be compiled at Clerk Brown's expense and is calculated to save the clerk's office a lot of time in answering telephone queries for information that will be found therein.

Claude Simpson, hired man for Percy W. Parmenter, does not know what a narrow escape he had from being arrested for appropriating state property when he married Mary Crimalo, 20, a charge of the state school for girls at Adrian. The girl had been bound out to Parmenter until she was 21. Had Mrs. Lucy M. Sickles, head of the Adrion institution, decided to prefer charges, Simpson would have been liable to a $300 fine, but Mrs. Sickles took the easiest way out. It was recently learned that she, Mrs. Sickles wrote Mr. Stuart instead of going to Pontiac in person. Sha said that she had decided to discharge the girl from the school, that being about the easiest way out of what had at first looked like a bad complication.

Corrected time card for the Grand Trunk in another column. Changes in all trains stopping at this station.

The Salvation Army will hold the fort at the M. E. Church on Monday evening, October 28, at 7 o'clock. Interesting services. Everybody come.

The article printed last week on the public library, was the paper read by Miss Davis, the state organizer, at the meeting held at the school house under the charge of the Educational committee of the Woman's club.

Farmers or anyone else needing the services of an auctioneer, will do well to read R. D. Belt's new advertisement elsewhere in this issue. Mr. Belt has sold at auction for years and always gives the best of satisfaction.

Anyone desirous of helping the Presbyterian ladies in their rummage sale, which is to be held at Detroit a week from Saturday, will be welome to do so. Now everybody with "ole ole's" and such stuff, are requested to see that all donations are sent to Andrew H. Porter's by Friday afternoon Bring on anything—everything goes.

William West, proprietor, will have an auction sale Wednesday, October 30th, at which time he will sell on the premises, 4 miles east, and ½ mile north and ½ mile east of Big Beaver Corners, 1 bay horse, colt, Jersey cow, wagons, buggies, farming tools, harnesses, incubator and brooder, a lot of household furniture, 2 sewing machines, and other articles too numerous to mention. M. H. Blunt, auctioneer.

Trial catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wisconsin. These tests are proving to the people—without a penny's cost—the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by Chas. J. Shain.
