Millie, the little 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ami Adams, of Pontiac, had a narrow escape from death by drinking carbolic acid found in a bottle near the mill-pond. The little one was unconscious for two hours but prompt medical assistance saved the child's life.

If we really do want to be up with the times, why not ask our village board to adopt standard time and blow the waterworks whistle according to that time. We have Detroit and Pontiac on time and no questions asked, but when we get here we ask, "Is it standard or local?" Let us be up-to-date in something.

After reading a flaring headline in a Detroit daily to the effect that the Queen of Spain would nurse the new heir, Lyman Hood lowered his paper and remarked: "That's all wrong. That kid ought to be brought up on goat's milk. That would put him in fine shape to 'butt into' the affairs of foreign nations when the proper time comes. Lyman always did have a long head anyway.

Messrs. Wm. H. Hunt, Frank G. Pearsall, Edwin Miller and George H. Mitchell were all in attendance at the Circuit Court, of Jackson county, at the city of Jackson on Monday last. They were witnesses in the case of Richard Daniels vs. L. J. Byers. Mr. Daniels is suing Mr. Byers for commissions amounting to nearly $800 and interest to date amounting to over $1,000 on sales of Omega Cement stock, sold by him to Birmingham parties some eight years ago.

Little Miss Beryl Vermilyea was six years old, Tuesday, May 7th, and to celebrate the event entertained about 16 of her little friends at her home, 920 Fifth Street, from 3 to 6 p. m. Games, such as children enjoy, were indulged in, after which the little hostess' mama invited them to the dining room where the table, prettily decorated, stood ready with the birthday cake, lighted by six candles, and refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake were served. Beryl was the recipient of many pretty presents from her playmates and the little folks dispersed wishing her many happy birthdays. (Taken from the Greely, Colo., Sun.) Beryl's many little Michigan friends will remember helping her celebrate her third birthday on the Baldwin farm south of town.

LOST—A large, flat key on ring. Finder leave at this office and get reward.

Small socks are injurious to the feet. Do not wear them to the M. E. church social.

Frank Blakeslee has his new 1907 awning in place, ready for the first warm day.

Will Davenport has a fine horse for sale. He is a trained saddle horse, and a fine driver.. Apply on the premises 3 miles north-east of Birmingham.

Mrs. Jennie Page Armstrong of Ludington, Mich., is with her cousin, Miss Jennie Keyes, called here by the illness of her late aunt, Mrs. E. G. Keyes.

Milford has a queer case from a medical standpoint. The Times says that Jerome Armstrong suffered an attack of apoplexy in his righ side but is only partially disabled.

O. M. Bentley, a well known retired farmer of South Lyon, died Sunday at Ann Arbor from the effects of an operation. He was 67 years of age and a Civil War veteran.

When the new postoffice law goes into effect July 1st, more than 1,300 clerks and carriers in Michigan will get a raise on an average of about $100 per year. There are 542 clerks to be boosted and 784 carriers.

The farmer who has something to sell should be happy in spite of the bad weather. The price of wheat, potatoes, beans and a number of other products of the farm has made a big jump during the last few days.

Messrs. Gray and Jones, Detroit printers, called on their fellow workman, C. H. Hoffman, on Sunday last. "Hungry" has been a little under the weather the past week but was able to return to work Tuesday morning.

A store cannot convince its patrons that it is prospering by reducing its advertising appropriation—not more than your neighbor can convince you that he has moved into a smaller house because he is making so much more money than usual.

James Downey, of Groveland, is seeing things. At least he says he saw two full-grown deer on his farm twice in one day last week. Still that is not so strange after all, because the writer hereof has seen two full-grown Deer in this office on more than one occasion during the past year, and there are few days when one does not appear.

We understand Mr. Nelson Shattuck is preparing "copy" for a boomer sheet for the back of letter heads. We invite all our business men and friends to contribute to this business project. Exalt our village She deserves it. Don't say anything but the truth and facts. Ye editor will put on the frills and ornaments; that's his business, its expected of him.

Two Birmingham ladies jumped on this meek, lowly and humble editor last Saturday and now Mitchell has lost his appetite, seems run down and all in. And all this for two poor and forlorn articles which appeared in this paper last issue, one he was responsible for and the other not. Say this editing a rural weekly is not a bed of roses by any means.

Looping the loop with some may be a favorite pastime, but Mr. E. B. Loop, who claimed to be an Odd Fellow, of Charlotte, Mich., Lodge, fell down with a dull and sickening thud at Royal Oak last week when he tried to work the brother dodge, soliciting help in a money way. Upon being informed that they would telephone to Charlotte for information, he suddenly vanished.

A well known citizen of Orion, who has a very weak stomach, was in Detroit one day recently, and went into a restaurant and ordered fried cat-fish. "Fried cat," bawled the waiter to the cook. Instantly the weak stomach rebelled. "Cancel the order," he said, "and give me country sausage." "Sidetrack the cat and make it a bulldog," yelled the waiter, and he is wondering to this day why the Orion man grabbed his hat and left.

B'jinks we are growing old! In a Detroit paper last week, we noticed the wedding of Clarence P. Sparling, and Miss Jessie N. Smith, daughter of the late Dr. D. F. Smith, of Ripley, Ont. The Rev. H. L. Crain, of the Detroit Second Avenue Presbyterian church, tied the knot at the home of the bride's uncle, at 488 Cass ave. At home to their friends after July 1st. And it only seems yesterday, that the happy groom was skidding round our town in knicks. Well, how old Tempus does fugit on. Our best wishes to the happy couple for a long and happy life.

The funeral of the late Mrs. David McWhinney took place from the Presbyterian church last week Wednesday afternoon, Rev. W. H. Jamieson, officiating. The remains of Mrs. McWhinney were brought from her home at Minneapolis and sorrowfully placed in Greenwood cemetery. She was well acquainted here and had many friends in this village. She leaves one brother Wm. Crombie, of Pontiac; and two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Toms, of our village, and Mrs. Wm. Pool, of Ortonville, and both of these old ladies, are in poor health, and very feeble at this writing. Over twenty years, Mr. and Mrs. David McWhinney, had charge of the Oakland County poor farm, resigning some fifteen years ago, with a most enviable record after twenty years steady service.

Wonderful Eczema Cure.

"Our little boy had eczema for five years," writes N. A. Adams, Henrietta, Pa. "Two of our home doctors said the case was hopeless, his lungs being affected. We then employed other doctors, but no benefit resulted. By chance we read about electric Bitters, bought a bottle, and soon noticed improvement. We continued this medicine until several bottles were used, when our boy was completely cured. Best of all blood medicines and body-building health tonics. Guaranteed at Charles J. Shain's and Cobb & Cobb's drug stores. 50c.

THE B. Y. P. U.

For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the bowels are in proper condition. Correct any constipation by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All vegetable, sugar-coated.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also manufacturers of
Ayer's HAIR VIGOR. AGUE CURE. CHERRY PECTORAL.
We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines.

DEATH OF MRS. C. H. BRAYMAN.

Mrs. Cornelius H. Brayman is dead. She was a well known Birmingham lady and went with her husband and daughter many years ago to the Lake Superior country. The following clipping from the Daily Mining Gazette, of Lake Linden, handed to us by Mrs. Elizabeth C. Baldwin, tells the sad story of her death.

Sunday morning Mrs. Brayman, a resident of Hubbell, passed away at the Lake Superior General Hospital at Lake Linden. Her death was the result of a paralytic stroke about a week ago. She was taken to the hospital for treatment but although every medical assistance was rendered, it was not sufficient to keep her alive. Mrs. Brayman was a respected citizen of Hubbell and was 65 years of age. She was well known in both Torch Lake towns and her death is deeply regretted. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Wm. Waters, of Hubbell. The funeral was held from the residence at Hubbell, Rev. G. D. Yoakum, pastor of the Hubbell Congregational church, officiated and the remains were interred in Maple Hill cemetery.

It's too bad to see people who go from day to day suffering from physical weakness when Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea would make them well. The greatest tonic known. 35c, Tea or Tablets. Charles J. Shain.
