TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

While the Swedes are discussing the project for obtaining a grant of money for their army and navy, the Danes, fearful of the manes of their powerful neighbors on the East, are strengthening their coastlines and constructing armory gunboats.

In ploughing the battle-field of Seven Pines, six days ago some farmers turned up a great number of human bones and several complete skeletons. A number of bones to which their brass buttons and buttons of brass were attached were found, but it is not supposed that the bones are those of Confederate soldiers exclusively, for the remains of Union soldiers are scattered all over the field.

A large and influential society has been organized in Germany, under the special patronage of the Crown Prince, to suppress the slave trade. The society is working in connection with an agricultural colony at Wilhelmshorst.

Shelter, food and clothing are being furnished to the poor of the city, and every inmate is enabled, in addition, to earn a small sum of money with which to enter up some employment elsewhere.

It is time for Americans to demand government protection against dynamite. Only a few days ago a mysterious young couple on a steamer, who were looking land on shore, and hastily departed. The shipowner was glibly guessed at its contents, and holding it at arms' length, the steamer was allowed to depart, with the caution, and standing at a safe distance, carefully open the package and disclosed to view five boxes of dynamite.

As cash was administered in Austria with the form prescribed in Austria to a former citizen of that country, in the United States District Court, the other party to the suit was made to deposit a bond with the court.

The Russian Government has begun to execute its scheme for colonizing the lower part of the Amuro province, and is patting from Olness 310 emigrants, constituting 250 families. If the project, which contemplates the removal of 100,000 persons of the new settlements, is carried out, the population of which has been, the expense will be enormous—not much less than $10,000,000, in the opinion of The Moscow Herald.

The cost of arms of the Russo-Japanese war is estimated at $1,000,000,000. The cost of arms of the Russo-Japanese war is estimated at $1,000,000,000. The cost of arms of the Russo-Japanese war is estimated at $1,000,000,000.

The late Sir George Jessell was a man of extraordinary diligence. It was his habit to rise early every morning—sometimes at three o'clock. At the age of 70 he was as energetic as a young man.

The remarkable statement comes from St. Paul that from 1870 to 1890 the railroad companies in that State, for fifty miles on either side of the Northern Pacific Railroad, scarcely an acre of good public land remains for sale.

It was the result of his wonderful powers of labor, working every day six hours in court, and at least six more in his chambers and at home.

It is a well-known fact that the railroad companies in that State, for fifty miles on either side of the Northern Pacific Railroad, scarcely an acre of good public land remains for sale.
