Beautiful homes. Every one is interested in a beautiful home. Look at the paper at the library.

Don't you overlook Michael Hamata's big auction sale. Read his bills and also his advt in this paper.

Don't fail to read Ferinand Haltka's auction sale in this paper. Big sale. Martin Blunt does the talkee-talkee.

New books in our library. Peggy Owen—Patriot, by Madison; Kingford Quarter, by Barbour; Winning His Y, by Barbour; Everybody Lonesome, by Laughlin; The Eternal Rose, by Charter; Little Man in Boston Town.

Mr. Charles Bingham, of Southfield, has just completed the marketing of his peach harvest. He sold 1,623 bushels of the luscious fruit, realizing nearly $3,000 therefrom. You couldn't ask for better results or find a more worthy man.

Mr. H. M. Shepherd couldn't get to live on Daines street so did a better thing, has one of F. H. Sherman's houses on west side of Woodward avenue. No better place in town and he is now comfortably settled with his little family and all are rejoicing at finding a "comfie" home at last.

Hit the target. Sabine, the fotographer, Pontiac, rightly calls your attention to his advt this week regarding your Christmas photograph. What is nicer for a gift to a loving and admiring friend than a good picture of yourself. Sabine makes them right and his price is right. Month after next Christmas is here.

The real estate department of the Exchange Bank last week sold the last new house built by the Purdy Bros. on the north side of Frank street, to Mr. D. T. Lynch, of Mayville, the purchase including the vacant property on the west side of the residence, which is brand new and fitted with hot and cold water, furnace, bath and electric lights. Mr. Lynch and his wife are most estimable people of considerable wealth and eminently respectable and have been well acquainted with the Purdy Bros. for many years.

Mr. Whitehead, Mr. Pierson, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Hulbert and Mrs. Bigelow and of course the rector, Rev. F. F. Kraft are mighty busy arranging for the 15th anniversary of St. James' church of Birmingham, to celebrate the occasion of the first service in 1895 and on Nov. 24, 1910, as that date marks the 15th mile stone which Father Time has erected since Bishop Davies came out and viewed the beautiful little church and held opening services and said, "My people, you have builded well. We are happy and proud and as the years pass and roll along, may good fellowship and increase come to you."

A most enjoyable informal dinner was given on Friday evening last by Mr. W. T. Barbour, of Briar Bank, to the rector and vestry of St. James' church, and incidentily, a number of others who have been interested and instrumental in the prosperity and welfare of the little Episcopal parish at Birmingham, of which Rev. F. F. Kraft is the rector. Among the guests were Messrs. H. L. Pierson, Thomas Heathcote, W. J. Chittenden, George N. Brady, Admiral Berry, Rev. F. F. Kraft, John T. Shaw and A. Whitehead. The continued prosperity and the advancement of St. James' parish was doubly assured and the "Little Minister" was made happy by a pleasant evening at Briar Bank.

We must not call names, but this story was true when it happened and Uncle Late Hunt was the man. The camp meeting had been in full blast for two days in Asher Parker's woods, just south of Birmingham. An intermission was being indulged in for a little rest and to take lunch. Two or three of the ministers in strolling around and stretching their legs, found a jug of whiskey and took it upon the platform. Finally services were called to order and one of the ministers stepping to the front of the platform said, "We have found a jug and if any one has lost the same please come up and claim it." All quiet for a minute, when Uncle Lute ambled to the front, taking the jug, tipping it up to his mouth, took a good long drink, catching his breath he says, "this is not mine for it is nearly full of whiskey, mine was full of vinegar."

The Ladies' Church society of the First Presbyterian church will hold their annual experience social in connection with their monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon of next week at 3 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Theron Smith. All members and friends are invited to be present. Gentlemen are invited for tea.

A Good Position.—Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of wireless or railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country, there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official intitutes in America, under supervision of railroad and wireless officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, Ohio, or Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. James Howick, (nee Milicent Waldeck,) died at her home near Clawson, October, 7th. Services were held at the house, Sunday afternoon. Monday the remains were taken to Port Dover, Ont., where 41 years ago she was born one of twelve children. Her father and mother still live; also, a sister, Mrs. McKinnon, of Troy, Mich. James Howick, the husband, and only daughter, Florence, accompanied the remains to Port Dover. She was of a bright, sunny disposition,—always had and loved a joke. After her operation, in fact, but a short time before her death, she said to her husband, "don't look so glum, Jim, I am not going to die,—but if I should, I will always be with you,—you remember when we bought this farm? The lawyer told us, we owned everything above and below, 40 acres as far as down there one way, —and upwards to heaven the other way. Now, don't you think that St. Peter will give me a seat in the grand stand just above the farm, so that I may always be near my Jim and Florence." She had no thought then of dying. She was her old self again, but in one short hour was dead.

Regular meeting of O. E. S. No. 220 Wednesday evening, Oct. 19. Mary Gravlin, secy.

The Royal Oak high school football team failed to show up last Saturday and Birmingham claims a forfeit game They seem to have a streak of yellow down their backs.

The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. Baldock will be pained to hear of the serious illness of their little son, Hudson, with scarlet fever. We hope he may soon recover.

Volney has the newest and latest electric sign in town. It is a blazer, covers the sidewalk in front of the store and tells its own story. Just notice it as you pass by.

Miss Jennie Keyes is back home again, about well and already to resume her old position as clerk in F. Blakeslee's store. Her many friends will be pleased to see her in her old place again.

That D. U. R. new waiting room notwithstanding its troubles with its brick, its laborers, its material and its drawbacks is slowly approaching completion and it promises to be the prettiest and most needed building in our village. We all will appreciate it.

The impression seems to have been circulated that the new First National Bank of Birmingham, recently incorporated will have no savings deposits. This is erroneous; the new bank will pay four per cent per annum on all savings deposits, the same as the Exchange Bank has done.

Auction sales are coming right along now and the wise seller after having his bills printed at the ECCENTRIC office and gets M. H. Blunt for his auctioneer and Waldo for clerk, then orders the entire bill run in the ECCENTRIC or Tribune. This is a cheap move but means lots to the proprietor of the sale.

The following officers of the O. E. S. were installed Sept. 28, for the ensuing year: Bessie Munro, W. M.; Wilmot Wood, W. P.; Emma Tibbils; A. M.; Mary Gravlin, Sec.; Bertha Randall, Treas.; Alice Bailey, Chap.; Lettie Russell, Or.; Winnie Robinson, Mar.; May Happ, Adah.; Nellie Wood, Ruth; Minnie Anderson, Esther; Sylvia Terry, Mar.; Winnifred Rainey, Elec.; Ellsworth Randall, Sen.

On our trip recently we stopped in a department store that had just opened its doors. It employs 6,000 persons, has a building with 26 acres of selling space on 10 floors, divided into 164 departments. The stock is valued at $6,000,000, and is reached by 48 elevators and conveyors. The store contains one and a half miles of mahogany show cases and 17 miles of pneumatic tubes. The new comers are Gimbel Bros., of Philadelphia, Pa. This beats anything we have in Birmingham.

WANTED.

At once. Men to represent us, either locally or traveling. Now is the time to start. Money in the work for right men. Apply at once and secure territory. Allen Nursery Co., Rochester, N. Y.

The Last Resort.

"They're going to increase the tax on beer." "Then we won't drink any." "And they're going to increase the tax on spirits." "Then we won't drink any." "And they're going to tax wine." "Then we won't drink any." "And they're going to tax inheritances!" "Then let's drink up our money!"

A FREE Prescription ADVICE

From a physician of 12 years' experience in colleges, sanatoriums and general practice. Weak, nervous men, regain your strength and vigor.

So great was my sympathy for weak men in the early years of my experience that I have made it a special study, and formulated two prescriptions, one for men under 40 and one for men over 40 years of age. In my declining years, I want every man to have the benefit of my long years of careful study, research and long experience.

I am now 72 years old and as strong and vigorous as at 40 and the loss of my life will be spent in aiding suffering manhood. I realize that my time is short, but will do all in my power to aid men who suffer, who are helpless and seeking relief. I know there has been a great many disappointed when they thought relief in their grasp, but let me assure you my free prescription and booklet of private lectures to men which is the result of study since I graduated from student classes, way back in '71. Since that time I have cured many cases that are now pleased to recommend me.

YOU NEED AID. Let me help you to regain your former standing among men. In short, let me assist you to be yourself once more.

If you are suffering from failing memory, lame back or weakened manhood or any other difficulties, LET ME SEND YOU A RECIPE in a plain sealed envelope that you can use in your own home. I am confident that you will thank me every day in your life after you have tested it for yourself.

Take advantage of this offer NOW before it is too late. Address me personally.

DR. ANDREW B. SPENNEY, 4 W. Adams Ave., Detroit, Mich.

Rat Attacked Infant.

The story of a rat's ferocity comes from Aberdeen, Scotland, where an infant was attacked by the animal and badly bitten. A woman was awakened in the early morning by the screams of her five-weeks-old baby which was in bed beside her. On turning up the light she found blood on the baby's wrap, and on examining it was found that one of the child's fingers had been almost bitten through.
