FOR THE CHILDREN.

FOR THE CHILDREN. BY ADA CARLTON STODOLAR. "You're sure you won't be afraid, Katy?"

"But Billy is so dead," added Mr. Dillingham, pausing with his foot on the carriage step. "Shan't I stop and ask Ann Priscilla to let one of the girls come?"

"No indeed, father!" was a bit frightened. "Well, there's nothing to hurt you, and you can take your coat with you some time to-night if it's a possible thing. Good-by, daughter."
