OBITUARY.

In the death of Clark M. Harris, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of the town of Troy has passed away.

He died at the home of his daughter Mrs. Matt Groves in Birmingham on Saturday, June 16. Although he had visited his daughter on at average of once a week during her 16 years of married life, he never before remained over night in home and to her his death is especially sad.

Mr. Harris had been ailing for some time past but was always active and could not be induced to remain quiet. Death is supposed to be due to heart trouble.

He was a skilled workman in the carpenter trade and many of the beautiful and substantial buildings in this and other counties are monuments to his intelligence and ingenuity. He fought for his country for four years, was 74 years old and had lived in Oakland county practically all his life.

Mr. Harris leaves a wife and six adult children to whom he was devoted besides many relatives and friends.

The funeral, which was largely attended, was held from his late home Tuesday afternoon and the burial took place in Crooks cemetery.

OBITUARY.

Died, in this village, Saturday, June 15th. after many months of suffering Mrs. Charles Carson, age 35. Deceased was universally loved by all whoever came in contact with her, and leaves a large circle of sorrowing friends. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Fall, her husband, and one sister, Mrs. Isaac Voorheis of Clarkston, and three children, Bessie, Clarence and Claribel, aged respectively, 16, 13 and 11 years. She was married to Charles Carson, April 9th. '95. Funeral was held from her late home, Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. H. Jamieson. Burial at Greenwood.

Home Builders Want Good Lumber

In fact, most of them absolutely insist on getting the best that their money will buy, and in that particular we heartily agree with them, because that is just the way we buy all our Lumber. It must be strictly up to the grade. There are some manufacturers, however, who interpret grades more liberally than others, and you can bet your last dollar that we know who they are. Because of this inside knowledge we're not afraid to put our Lumber up against any in the country. Come in and look this Lumber over and let us make you prices.
