Those seats around and about Baldwin Memorial Library are the subject of discussion and the Board will soon be petitioned to remove them. We think it would be a great mistake to do so. During the past summer we never saw a public utility so thoroughly enjoyed as those very seats. They made a very social gathering place for our best people who certainly did enjoy the convenience.

Last week Thursday afternoon, the Masonic Lodge, No. 44, had a school of Instruction, and in the evening, they gave a banquet for over 100 served by the Eastern Star ladies. Brethren were present from Pontiac and Royal Oak. During the Banquet, a 16 piece orchestra, under the direction of Prof. H. P. Saltzer, furnished the music which was highly entertaining and very much enjoyed by all good brothers and Masons.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Quarton moved into their new home on Quarton Road last Saturday. Well and good. With no telephone connection a brave young Englishman, weight eight pounds arrived and dedicated the new home Sunday morning at 2 a. m. He is a fast youth and came one-half hour before the doctors and nurses. All well and happy and the new boys name is Albert Edward after his father,—and the King.

Take the offer when you see it. The time is indefinite that it will be offered. There will be a 1,000 vote coupon in the paper next issue. All wishing extra copies place your order early so as not to be left. Watch out for our big offer it is going to be a winner for our subscribers. You can help your friend amazingly, by taking advantage of our offer. The votes we offer for the money paid is great. Watch for this offer.

From the Three Rivers Commercial, we learn the following:—One day last week, at 2o'clock at the parsonage home of Rev. Crandall on Ninth street Miss Mayme B. Klingaman, a popular and talented young lady of Three Rivers, became the bride of Dr. George Deer, a prominent dentist of Royal Oak Mich. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. F. D. Mitchell of this city and has a host of friends and admirers who wish her happiness. The groom is a young business man of one of Detroit's pretty suburb's and also has many friends in this city. After the ceremony the young couple were given a weddinu dinner by the bride's sister, Mrs. Ernest Creager, at her home on Canal, at which were present only members of the bride's family and near relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Deer left this evening for a two week's trip through Michigan, after which they will make their home in Royal Oak.

Always a good show at the Family.

For Sale:—Two small sized heating stoves, one for coal or wood, Round Oak. The other for coal only. They are in good condition but having a furnace, we have no use for them. Inquire of L. L. Houghton, corner of Martin and Southfield. 2p

We wondered a lot and we're wondering yet, what made the past week so all-fired wet. But we've finally 'bout made up our mind that the reason, though 'twas hard to find, is just because even the clouds were crying a thinkin' of kilts on W. J. Bryan.

That big 10 inch square granite hitching post uprooted and tipped over in front of the Taber homestead was done by a frictous auto that turned in suddenly upon it. The big gray machine gave its occupants a severe jolt, sprung an axle. The gentlemen will pay all damages and are thankful none were hurt.

Last Saturday evening Miss Elnora Meddaugh celebrated her 19th birthday anniversary. About 25 guests from Detroit and a few from Birmingham were present. The evening was spent in progressive pedro and dancing. Miss Meddaugh was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. The guests departed wishing the young lady many happy returns of the day.

The Murphy Wall bed Co., with offices at 601 Free Press Co's Building in Detroit, have an advertisement on first page of great interest to builders in this vicinity. Bert Peabody's fine home on Maple avenue is supplied with this modern masterpeice. Bert Gravlin has the sale of these beds in this vicinity. If building, you should see him. If you ever intend building you should talk with him anyway.

The Pythian Sisters held their regular meeting last Monday night. After the meeting, progressive pedro was played. Prizes were won by the following:-First prizes, Mrs. W. H. Wood and Mrs. Austin Parks. Consolation prizes Mrs. Guy Taylor and George Daines. This prospering young order will hold a Fair and supper on Nov. 22. They will have fancy articles for sale, a gypsy fortune teller will be there to read your palms, and best of all a grand good supper. Remember the date.

How Suicides.

"The entirely self-centered man is always a man slowly killing himself. . . . Bachelors do not usually live as long as married men; yet no observer of the world would maintain that bachelors really take less care of themselves. No, they are always taking care of themselves, and it is the care that shortens their lives."—"In Cotton Wool," by W. B. Maxwell.

BY OUR OWN POET—B. E. S.

Of Hard Coal their bins will be full,
'Tis Chestnut, Stove and Egg they buy;
They'll have Soft Coal in plenty, too—
Some of this you must surely try.

And handle Mixed Wood they also will—
It comes in cars direct from the mill;
If Soft Coal or Hard Coal you do not use,
Your shed with this you should fill.

They're at 200 Forest Street,
Beside the Grand Trunk track;
And if you want a walk, go 'round and see them—
They'll be glad to meet you, and will surely ask you back.

In May-time or December,
No matter what the weather,
You should always remember
Lawson-Erb have what you need.

We would be pleased to talk with you about Roofing. We have the very best. Call and talk with us on the subject.
