FEAR TO ADVERTISE!

BRUMMITT THE PHOTOGRAPHER
To the Public:
I have not changed my advertisement for the last six months, and I have two good reasons for not doing so. In the first place, I have really not had time, and, secondly, I have been afraid that my advertisement would be too long. But I have now had time to work out my advertisement, and I find it is not too long. I have increased my capacity for the last six months, and I have two good reasons for not doing so. In the first place, I have really not had time, and, secondly, I have been afraid that my advertisement would be too long. But I have now had time to work out my advertisement, and I find it is not too long.

LEONOR.

He glanced up from his writing, in the dim old library. He saw a hurried look at the open window, for it seemed to him that for just one instant a face that he had known was there, like a picture in a flash of fire brought to life. A low brown brow, wide eyes, a nose that rippled back from it, in soft waves; a delicate red mouth; gray, deep-brown eyes.
