Don't carry money when you travel. It is't safe. Buy the A. B. A. travelers' cheques at the First National Bank. The cost is so small as to be immaterial and they are perfectly safe.

Walter Colpus, of Pontiac, one time engineer at our water works, now night watchman in the Cartercar factory at Pontiac, met with a painful accident recently, necessitating the removal of his left eye.

The John Baldwin farm, two miles south of Birmingham, having been sold, M. H. Blunt will sell on Tuesday, March 23, for Baldwin & Delmarter Brothers, their entire lot of stock and tools. See advertisement.

About last Christmas time someone mailed at the postoffice, postage paid 5c, a package and in it were a pair of red rubber gloves and two handkerchiefs. If the one who mailed them will call they can have their Christmas present (to someone) back again.

Having sold part of their farm, James Anderson & Son will dispose of part of their tools and a fine lot of cattle at auction on Thursday, March 25, on the premises one mile east and one-half mile south of Birmingham. M. H. Blunt does the talking. See advertisement.

Some think it a little early in the season, but the Maple avenue sewer has begun to be constructed. About 20 gentlemen of foreign appearance are wielding the pick and shovel and are making the dirt fly. They find at least three feet of frost to go through. It almost calls for dynamite.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found one of the most plainly spoken advertisements issued on a public issue in years. The Oakland County Local Option Committee challenges its opponents to open debate. This is as it should be and takes us back to the days of the Lincoln-Douglas debates, debates which shook this nation to its very foundations.

They are beginning to come back. A postal from Mr. and Mrs I. B. Hale reads: "Do not send us the Eccentric after the 20th as we expect to leave here about the 223. Will stop at Chattanooga and other places and arrive home about April 1. We are having a glorious time. All the fruit we can eat and fresh fish every day and strawberry shortcake for Sunday. We can tell you more when we get home. Mr. and Mrs. Hale, Eustis, Fla."

Mrs. Madison Millman Spears, for many years a resident of Troy and Birmingham, passed away last Thursday in a Sanitarium in Grand Rapids at age of 95 years. Her death resulted from old age. Mrs. Spears resided for many years on a farm in Troy, but later moved to Birmingham, where she resided up to about 15 years ago, when she went to Grand Rapids to make her home with her children. She is survived by two sons, Charles and Hanford, of Grand Rapids; and two daughters, Mrs. Alice Stone, of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Arylla Adsley, of Traverse City. The funeral was held in Grand Rapids with burial there.

The new pipe organ at the M. E. church is a pronounced success. If you have not yet heard it, you should. It is without doubt the finest musical outfit that ever came to Birmingham, and the most costly.

We still insist that there is a tendency to blame the Kaiser too much. Let's go back a little further. S'pose frinstance that Cain had paid more attention to killin' snakes and let the domestic situation alone.

Hon. Samuel C. Mills, of Houston, avenue, helped all loyal Irishmen and women to celebrate St. Patrick's day properly. He just passed around the real genuine shamrocks to wear on your manly chest. All did.

At the Blue Rock shoot held here last Thursday, Carl Edwards won the individual honors when he broke 47 out of 50 birds. Bruce Steele was second with a tally of 42 birds. Both winners are from "Beautiful Birmingham."

Speaking of prize horses, Edgar A. Freer has just sold a pair of beauties to Mr. Booth, of Cranbrook, the price being $600. The horses did not get away with any ribbons at the State Fair, but swept all prizes throughout Northern Michigan. Mr. Freer is a judge of good horses, and feels that this team is strictly a top-notcher.

Rev. Salyer and son arrived the fore part of last week and visited many old friends in Birmingham and vicinity, making their headquarters with the family of John Bortle. Mr. Salyer returned the last of the week, but Master Salyer found it pleasant to remain longer. The young man is making for himself quite a mark as an orator. Well, he ought to. He comes from a speaking stock. He is a many time winner in oratorical contests throughout the state of Michigan.

The splendid "horn band" which was heard to such advantage on the streets of Birmingham last Saturday evening, was merely the opening number of a fine entertainment tendered Mr. and Mrs. U. T. McFawn by about forty Detroit relatives and friends. The occasion was the twelfth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. McFawn and they were not allowed to forget it after their guests had properly surprised them. During the evening the splendid voice of Mrs. Rita Giles McFawn was heard in several selections and Mrs. Walter Anning furnished music for dancing. After supper was served the host and hostess were presented with a chest of flat silver and the company departed to the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

The First National bank is specially equipped for notarial work, such as drawing papers of all kinds, deeds, conveyances, mortgages, wills, etc. Thirty years experience along these lines, especially in business before the Probate Court would seem worth while considering.

John McMichael has sold one of the lots he recently acquired of H. George Field. He sold 50 feet on the corner of Woodward avenue and Euclid to Harry S. Chambers and will build for Mr. Chambers a stucco and cobblestone bungalow. The building will be hot water heated and have both front and side porches and many other features of the big houses that McMichael has built for Mr. Jones in the park opposite the power house.

Who would go back to the dear, dead days when assessment rolls were not, and you didn't pay a cent of tax on your little house and lot; when the cows were pastured in the street, from the meetin' house to the mill, and the pigs and chickens rooted and scratched 'round the door at their own sweet will; when there wasn't a modern home in town, for a bath what did you do? It was either the family wash tub or the swimmin' hole for you.
