

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

A New York paper calls attention to the fact that the suicide epidemic which has been prevailing lately has attacked men of unusual intelligence and ability.

Everybody who has sympathetic friends, which, unfortunately, in this country is everywhere, has heard of a new and wonderful cure for that dismal complaint of its brilliant achievements.

It is a very short time for this kind of victim on the "half-frightened" and we home-raised with grief and horror. There are found Mrs. Milton in perfect health, to the utter bewilderment of his sensible friends.

It is making a vigorous effort to establish her independence, and for that purpose Gen. Bonacha, a Cuban of note, is in this country for the purpose of interesting capitalists in the purchase of a new York capital bank.
