PAIGE

The Standard of Value and Quality

WE might attempt to enumerate and describe to you all the many features that have been combined in the New Series Fairfield "Six-46" to make it the last word in elegant and luxurious motoring.

But we should prefer to have you make your own examination. You know, perhaps, of the power, buoyancy and perfect control of the motor—supreme among the Sixes for gentlemen's driving.

But we want you to see for yourself what we have added. We want you to see the new beauty of the car, the new refinements of all the little things and big things that count, the still greater comfort, elegance and luxury of a car already acknowledged leader of the "Sixes."

We want you to come and satisfy yourself that our claim and the public's award "the most completely equipped motor car that can be purchased on the American market—absolutely irrespective of price"—is accurate and well merited. Make your own comparisons. Arrive at your own conclusions.

Just come and see this sumptuous motor car.

Garrick Theatre.

"The Passing of Third Floor Back."

Jerome Q. Jerome writing, "The Passing of the Third Floor Back", made known to us through Forbes Robertson, will be the offering at the Garrick theatre next week, the sixth of the Bonstelle company's engagement. This play is being offered by popular request, having received the greatest number of votes.

"The Passing of the Third Floor Back" could hardly be termed a play—it gives the lie to the necessity for dramatic climaxes and big scenes, yet it stands forth as one of the most entertaining bit of writings given the stage in a long time. The story opens with a prologue, showing the characters as A Cheat, A Sloven, A Painted Lady, A Shrew, A Snob, A Bully, A Hussy, A Satyr, A Coward, A Rogue, A Cod. Into the play these characters are woven, yet under the name titles and all are easily recognizable. In the last act, which is called a prologue, the characters are given to us as an Old Bachelor, Two Lovers, A Husband and Wife, A Jew, An Entertaining Person, A Maiden Lady, A Rich Aunt, The Servant, The Lody of the House and A Friend all softened and made human through the personality of the stranger.

"The Passing of the Third Floor Back" is not a play, neither is it a sermon, for laughter and tears are closely mingled. Miss Bonstelle will be seen as Mary Jane, while Corliss Giles will interpret the stranger.

Should Sloan's Liniment Go Along?

Of course it it should! For after a strenuous day, when your muscles have been exercised to the limit, an application of Sloan's Liniment will take the soreness and stiffness away and get you in fine shape for the morrow. You should also use it for a sudden attack of toothache, stiff neck, backache, stings, bites, and the many accidents that are incidental to a vacation. "We would as soon leave our baggage as go on a vacation or camp out without Sloan's Liniment," writes a vacationist. "We use it for everything, from cramps to toothache." Put a bottle in your bag, be prepared, and have no regrets.—Adv.

TRAINED ANIMAL SHOW.

H. W. Freed's trained Animal Show will exhibit at Forest and Elm Streets, Monday evening, July 24. The entertainment consists of high class performances given by trained Shetland ponies, educated dogs, and performing mules. One big feature is Bruno, a large specimen of the American black bear, who has been trained to perform many novel tricks, some of which are seemingly impossible, and go to show what the art of animal training can accomplish.

Another feature is the famous riding rooster, a common barnyard fowl, that rides a pony at full speed around the ring. There are also somersault dogs, skipping-rope dogs, ponies that play "teeter-totter," ponies that tell the time of day and perform the military drill. Other acts include Maloon Brothers, comic acrobatic clowning and revolving trapeze performers; H. W. Freed in a new and original act of jugging; Charles Selva, commonly called the "Human Fly," who walks upside down on ladders suspended in the dome of the tent. Admission, 25c; children under 12, 15c. Doors open at 7 p. m., performance one hour later, under canvas. Big free street parade at 7 p. m.

A GOOD WORD FOR UNCLE SAM.

Carsonville, Michigan,
July 14, 1916

Mr. George H. Mitchell,
Birmingham, Michigan.

Dear Mr. Postmaster:

Hurrah for the parcel post! I wish to compliment the efficiency of the service. The high-chair which I mailed from your office at 7:15 p. m., Thursday, was delivered here at 10:15 a. m., Saturday, in as good condition as when it left Birmingham. Can you beat it?

Truly yours,
E. L. TORREY.

DO YOU KNOW?

What has become of the ordinance we heard of last year, that all weeds on vacant property should be cut?

A lady, visiting here, from an Eastern city, remarked that in all her city, there was not a lot like those on our prominent streets.

Birmingham can deserve her slogan. Let us cut the weeds in front and back yards, and see that our vacant lots are not a discredit.

A CITIZEN.

There were rumors in the air, we heard them everywhere
That all the boys would surely have to go.
The starry banner waved, the country must be saved
The M. N. G. were off for Mexico
It certainly was tough, but we called the greaser's bluff
And showed em the lady fist of Uncle Sam
We're thinking just the same, 'twas really worth the game
For excuses, there are none who care a ... whoop
So never mind the weather, let's give three ... cheers together
For the honey flag that means so much to us
May we meet with no mishaps, and keep out of all the scraps
And let the other fellows kick up all the muss.

His Backache Gone.

Just how dangerous a backache, sore muscles, aching joints or rheumatic pains may be is sometimes realized only when life insurance is refused on account of kidney trouble. Joseph G. Wolf, of Green Bay, Wisconsin, writes: "Foley Kidney Pills relieved me of a severe backache that had bothered me for several months." Take Foley Kidney Pills for weak, lame back, and weary, sleepless nights. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

Why don't our city folks replace the very best thing we ever had for suffering equines and canines? We refer to the drinking fountain for animals that used to stand on Bacon's Memorial Library building. It stands now in front of Firestone's hall dry and useless. For the love of Mike and horses and dogs, get it running this July and August hot days.

Mines Far Under the Sea.

For a distance of fully three miles under the sea the great hematite ore bodies of Belle Isle are worked in normal times. It is said there are no other known deposits existing comparable in extent of area, except possibly at one or two places in South Australia.

A Trying Ordeal.

"Colonel," asked the beautiful girl, "when was the most trying moment of your life?" "It was when I went to my wife's father for the purpose of asking him to let me have her. He was very deaf, and I had to explain the matter before twenty clerks!"—Answers.

The Daily Bath.

Frequent bathing is conducive to good health. It keeps the pores of the skin clear, so that they can perform their proper functions, clearing the system of excretions which cannot be discharged in other ways. A brisk rub after the bath promotes circulation of the blood.
