STEELE-HEDDING.

The marriage of Mr. James Steele and Miss Clara Mae Hedding was celebrated Wednesday afternoon, at four o'clock, October 25, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hedding.

The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate family being present. The younger sister, Vera, played the wedding march. Harry Hedding, a brother of the bride, acted as best man, and Miss Agnes Graveling, as bridesmaid. The words that united the happy couple in the sacred bonds of matrimony were spoken by Rev. G. L. Conley. After the ceremony, a dainty repast was served, and the newly wedded couple then took an auto for Detroit to be gone on a short wedding trip.

The bridegroom is a young man of excellent character and is engaged in business in Pontiac. The bride has always lived here in Birmingham, and has a host of friends who will wish her and her partner a most happy and prosperous journey through life.

Numerous presents from many friends were given as an expression of best wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Steele will make their future home in Pontiac, where they will be glad to meet their friends.

"He has more than a state-wide reputation as an extraordinary sleuth on the trail of criminals. He is an efficient officer."—Royal Oak Tribune.

"Unquestionably the right man for sheriff. A vote for him means a vote for an officer who can capture the criminals and whose record has proved this fact."—Rochester Era.

"He has had some difficult cases and has carried away the honors."—South Lyon Herald.

Under Sheriff Green needs no introduction to the people here as his work in apprehending criminals in this vicinity and recovering stolen property has made him well known."—Birmingham Eccentric.

"His dealings are always open and above board and subject to the people he is serving."—Holly Advertiser.

"Best qualified man who ever asked for this important county office."—Oxford Leader.

"No one can disregard the fact that Mr. Green possesses unusual detective ability in unearthing and bringing to justice many criminals, and we believe his special fitness for promotion to the office of sheriff is worthy of every voter's support.

"Mr. Green has served us in the Sheriff Judd and Sheriff Belt, then as first as deputy sheriff, under both predecessor of this village, and finally as under-sheriff during Sheriff Oliver's two years. It is during his term as under-sheriff that we more readily recall the remarkable success he has had in capturing more law violators of all classes than any previous officer in the county. His record is based upon absolute facts. Being thoroughly interested in and especially adapted to this work of solving crimes has led him to work with persistence on and every clue, trifling as it may seem, until he has succeeded in running down the criminals.

"Mr. Green's work during his term as under-sheriff has brought him in contact with many officers of Oakland county and has won for him, in connection with his genial personality a wide circle of friends and acquaintances who now stand ready to support him for sheriff. In electing him the people of this county will make no mistake."—Orion Review.

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION.—General.

State of Michigan, In Probate Court for the County of Oakland. At a session of said Court, held at the Probate office in the City of Pontiac, in said county, on the 18th day of October A. D. 1916. Present, Hon. Kleber P. Rockwell, Judge of Probate. In the matter of the estate of FRANCES L. CURTIS, Deceased.

Halsey L. Stephens, administrator of said estate, having filed in said Court a petition praying for the examination and allowance of his final account, determining the heirs at law of said deceased, distributing the assets of said estate, and for the discharge of said administrator.

It is ordered that the 8th day of November, A. D. 1916, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at said Probate office, be and is hereby appointed for hearing said petition. "A SHINE IN EVERY DROP" is different. It does not dry out, crack, rub off or burn off. Lasts ten times as long as other polishes and makes one application do the work of ten. Wonderful economy. You get your money's worth.
Black Silk Stove Polish

Black Silk Stove Polish

is not only most economical, but it gives a brilliant, silk finish that cannot be obtained with any other polish. Black Silk Stove Polish does not rub off—it lasts four times as long as ordinary polish—so it saves you time, work and money.

Don't forget—when you want stove polish, be sure to ask for Black Silk. It isn't the best stove polish unless you get Black Silk—your dealer will refund your money.
