You all remember what three "R's" did for the late, lamented James J. Blaine? Well, just think a moment what T. R. is doing for Hughes. Think it over.

The colored folks' concert last week in the K. P. Hall was a very entertaining affair. Not a large crowd present, but all who did not attend, missed a good treat.

Our readers will peruse with interest the decision recently made in the Maple Street litigation. We print the entire decision leaving out nothing and adding nothing.

The Birmingham Baptist Church will give a reception at the church to their new pastor, the Rev. Mr. MacKay, and family on Monday evening, October 30, from 8 to 10. All members of the church and congregation, and all the clergy and their wives, of our town, are cordially invited.

Birmingham is stea growing With our new garage comes a new jewelry store, located in the room vacated by F. L. Young and his shop hospital. The new store is owned by W. H. Smith, the Jeweler. He has a nice assortment of watches, clocks, silverware, etc., for sale. All orders great and small will be appreciated. Read his new advertisement.

Right next door to the Temple Theater is the old garage re-opened and christened Birmingham Garage. The members of the firm, Messrs. Millspaugh & Skrine, are right there attending promptly to the wants of their patrons, and they have everything for prompt and efficient service. "Sun" gasoline, the very best for sale every hour in the 24. Your patronage solicited.

Married at the home of the bridegroom, Saturday night, October 21, by Rev. C. E. Wakefield, Miss Bilas and George Scott, Jr. Many guests were there from near and far. The gifts were numerous and valuable. After the ceremony was over and the knot securely tied, all sat down to a wedding feast. The guests, in departing, wished the happy couple a long and happy life, amid much hilarity. We do, too.

On November 1, Drs. C. M. and G. P. Raynale will remove their offices, now in the Wooster Building, to the Levinson Building on Woodward Avenue, next the D. U. R. Waiting Room. They will occupy a suite of rooms that Mr. Levinson has had designed especially for physicians' use, a white enameled operating room being a feature. New furnishings and equipment will be installed, consisting among other things of an X-Ray machine and an especially fine apparatus for treatment of diseases of the nose and throat.

Elmer Huston, our enterprising and boosting hardware man, celebrated his birthday anniversary, one day last week, by entertaining over 65 friends from Plymouth and this vicinity. He did it right, too. A banquet was served at the Birmingham Club rooms, after which those who "trip the light fantastic" repaired to the newly finished stores and danced to their hearts' content to a fine orchestra. Others lingered at the Club rooms, played cards, visited, and enjoyed themselves immensely. It was a fine social affair, and successful in every feature.

A Harvest Supper will be served in the Knights of Pythias Hall on October 31. A Parcel Post Sale will be conducted during the afternoon and evening of the same date.

John E. Lamb, of Big Beaver, divorced Mrs. Elizabeth Lamb, after his case had been heard by Judge Smith, recently. The charges were cruelty and desertion. They were married April 4, 1897, and lived together until May 8, 1913. Mrs. Lamb is now clerking in a Pontiac dry goods store. There were no children. Witnesses were William H. and Mrs. Harriet Lamb.

Edward Fordick died suddenly Monday afternoon, while at work driving team on his farm just east of Pontiac. His wife was with him when he suddenly fell backwards and was dead. He lived near Bloomfield Center for years and was our supervisor for many years. Lately, he has been Supervisor and Poor Superintendent. Born in 1845, he has lived a life to be proud of.

The Oakland Hills Club that has just bought the Miller farm out west, and with it, the Frank P. German farm, also Leach's and Spicer's and other needed adjoining property for a golf links, polo ground, and many other numerous amusements. It means much to every acre of land within six miles of it. The new organization commands a million of dollars that will be used on the grounds if needed to make it the best in the world for the purposes required.

At the Annual Experience Meeting of the Ladies' Church Society, of the Presbyterian Church, held at the Manse, Wednesday, October 18, there were 65 members present. After some very interesting experiences had been narrated in the effort to earn money for the Society, the treasurer reported the total amount earned and handed in was $137, with some others to hear from. Refreshments were served, and a pleasant social time was spent during the afternoon.

J. H. Sheridan, of 125 Harmon Street, has put into operation an auto express service, making daily trips to Detroit, taking trunks to Michigan Central or any other station, also handling household goods and merchandise between Birmingham and Detroit. Elliott-Taylor-Woolfenden, L. B. King, H. C. Weber, Heyn's Bazaar, and other Detroit stores are using this daily in giving free delivery of parcels to Birmingham. Orders should be left at Cobb's drug store, or call 'phone 152.

Yesterday, we were asked if we had ever seen a baldheaded woman. We answered "No," we never did, nor did we ever see a woman waltzing around town in her shirt sleeves with a cigar in her teeth, and running into every saloon she saw. We have never seen a woman go fishing with a bottle in her pocket, sit on the damp ground all day and come home drunk at night. Nor have we ever seen a woman yank off her coat and say she could lick any man in town. God bless her, she's not built that way.

A concrete house that was being built on the Walker-Gordon subdivision, two miles north of Birmingham, near Woodward Avenue, owned by George B. Marantay, burned Saturday night. The fire started at 9:30 o'clock and burned until only the concrete walls were left. The house was nearly completed and carried $8,000 insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown. No one tried to fight the flames as they had such a big start when first noticed that it was useless. The building is out of the village limits and could not be helped by the fire department.

He didn't have a dollar; he didn't have a dime. His clothes and shoes were looking just as if they'd served their time. He didn't try to kill himself to dodge misfortune's whacks—instead, he got some ashes and he filled five dozen sacks. Then, next he begged a dollar. In the paper in the morn, he advertised tin polish that would put the sun to scorn. He kept on advertising and, just now, suffice to say, he's out in California, at his cottage on the bay. The man once lived in Birmingham. Now, this is not a lie. Oh, no, we will not give his name; you'll guess it by and by.

The Phoenix Insurance Company, of Hartford, has an arrangement by which a building can be fully insured before it is built. The insured gets the benefit of the full three-year rate and in case of loss during the construction of the building, the full payment of the actual loss sustained is cheerfully adjusted. This was the case in the burning of Mr. Maranty's building on the Bloomfield Estates, on Saturday night last, which was insured for $8,000 as soon as the building was commenced. Don't wait until you "get the roof on" but see Whitehead about it as soon as you commence hauling material for your new building.

Miss Viola Hanna entertained the teachers of the Barnum school, Tuesday evening, at her home on Ann Street, in honor of Miss Lucile Scott, of Toledo.

John Kelly, aged 86 years, who is making his home with his daughter, Mrs. Mary West, on Townsend Street, accidentally fell from the steps of the back porch at their home and broke his left shoulder, Saturday.

Melvin Cass was arrested, Monday morning, by Deputy Sheriff Mack on a charge of larceny of $20 from John Schwartz. Both men live at Charles Tobb's boarding house on north Woodward Avenue. Cass had his hearing Monday morning before Justice A. W. Campbell, and pleaded not guilty. He was placed under a $200 bonds, which were not furnished and he was sent to the county jail until trial, October 27.

There is one remedy that for many years has given relief from coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Mrs. Chas. Rietz, Allen Mills, Pennsylvania, writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar for the last 11 years and I would not be without it." It promptly relieves hoarseness, tickling throat and wheezy breathing. Sold everywhere. —Adv.
