Mrs. Samuel Mills of Drayton Plains has been a recent caller.

Mrs. Elmer Cowan is spending two weeks at Argentine, Mich.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Flemington, of Elm Street, a daughter.

The Chautauqua agent was in town Friday preparing for the big show.

Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Campbell have returned from a trip to Cineinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith have gone to Utica, New York, to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Slade and family of Detroit, have been recent callers.

Claude Beltz has moved his house from Forest Street to Bowers Street.

Dr. and Mrs. N. T. Shaw are home from a trip on the St. Lawrence river.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClellan have gone to Bently, Montana, to spend a few weeks.

The Public Library is packing its sixth barrel of books and magazines for soldiers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brown and son Rowland have gone to Braddock, Pa., to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ford returned last Friday from a 2 weeks outing at the Ford Cottage, Pine Lake.

Mrs. Fred Hamlin of Pontiac visited her mother, Mrs. Arthur Ford, on Townsend Street, last Friday.

Willis Carter has returned from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Milton Cunningham, at Woodstock, Canada.

Mrs. B. Tillotson of Pontiac has been a recent caller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis White, on Hamilton Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Northrope of Flint spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs Guy Taylor on Pierce Street.

Mrs. Robert Allison of Rochester, has been a guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. Sturman on Chester Street.

State Fair tickets 3 for a $at the Eccentric office or at the Post Office. Ask for 'em—tell your wants and they will be filled.

Mrs. Glenn Schlaack and Miss Evelyn Deer attended the reunion of the Oakland Normal School held at Clarkston, Wednesday.

Mrs. Bessie Slater of Detroit has been a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Davenport on East Maple Avenue.

Mrs. H. J. Henderson and Miss Cora Henderson of Bellaire, Ohio, are visiting Mrs. Harry H. Sweeting of Ann Street, for a month.

Chester Blowers of Great Falls, Montana, has returned, after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nichols on Pierce Street.

Shoe repairing of all kinds is being done by the Birmingham Department store. They give one day service, and guarantee their work.—Adv.

Mrs. John Weier gave a birthday party Thursday August 9, at her home on Brownell Street, for her daughter Sylvia. It being her fifth birthday.

Zelda Jones and Fred Strosser of Detroit, and Mrs. Willis Zimmerman of Highland Park, have been recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Staley on Brown Street.

Now is the time also to get your Chautauqua tickets. After the big entertainments begins no more tickets at the low prices. Many fail to buy while they can, only to pay the long price later on.

You can get State Fair tickets right now at the Eccentric Office or at the Post Office at 35c for one or 3 for $1.00. None to be sold at these prices after Saturday before the Fair opens, and certainly none at these prices after the Fair opens. A Free childrens ticket given with each purchase—ask for it.

What's become of the village traffic squad?

The Pierce Street storm sewer is going down slowly.

Roseland Park already has a permanent population of 500.

Uncle Sam will soon be doing business in the Huston Block.

The roof supports for the new Presbyterian Church are being put in place.

Two barns destroyed by lightning south of Birmingham inside of a week.

The officers do not get all the auto speeders. Reason: Don't get up early enough.

Children's State Fair tickets free to purchasers of adult tickets, at the Eccentric office.

President W. D. Clizbe attended the funeral of Ward Hammond, the Pontiac clothier, Saturday.

Two of Birmingham's young business men passed the physical examination for the new national army.

A Detroit biscuit shooter offers the following menu: "Rost beef, lam stew, all cinds of pies, checklet pudding."

Less than two weeks to buy that State Fair ticket. Don't wait till August 30 and then feel sorry because we are all sold out.

The Baldwin Auditorium School being about completed, it is about time to look up a site for a school east of the railroad. We need the school.

On the "Opening Day" at the new P. O., the management sold 13 2c stamps for a quarter all day long. Many took advantage of the offer.

It is hoped Woodward Avenue will be open before the end of this month. Detouring to the State Fair will be a great inconvenience to all using the gas wagons.

Now after the sale on Fair tickets closes, don't come round with an excuse and expect to get the low price—it can't be did. We have a limited number to sell—when these are gone,—GOOD NIGHT.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Quarton of Pontiac visited their many friends one day last week. Judging from Mrs. Q's remarks we should say she does not like our J. P's way of handling the auto speeders. Bert should she call on you, you have to guess what she is telling you.

The Edison Company, under Mr. Newman's successful management, will move into their new quarters soon. They have leased the quarters formerly occupied by the First State Savings Bank. This office outfit is new and finely finished up in light oak, and for convenience, there is not this office's equal in Michigan.

From society news in Detroit Journal we glean the following: Mrs. Alfred E. Patterson, 216 La Salle Gardens, announced the engagement of her daughter, Ruth Woodruff Patterson, to Charles W. Beals, at a garden party, Wednesday afternoon. Miss Marjorie Patterson of Amityville, L. I., and Miss Doris Abbott of Goshen, Ind., were out of town guests at the party.

A package bearing the label "Important—newspaper plates for immediate publication. Forward and deliver without delay," was shipped to the Eccentric from Detroit August 1, was received on August 11. Birmingham is said to be 19 miles from Detroit, on a straight track, and the package traveled on Eastern time. Another package said to have been shipped on August 1 was delivered on August 9. This package traveled on Central time, and beat the "fast" time by two days. But honest to goodness both lines are slow enough.

Mrs. Elizabeth Burse of Detroit, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. James Todd.

Edward Brock, Detroit, was fined $8.40 for being intoxicated on D. U. R. car.

Emil Arditto, Detroit, was fined $10.75 Tuesday for catching immature black bass.

Henry Hackins of Croswell, and Mrs. Seeley Peck of Sylvan Lake, have been recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Roy on Brown Street.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Ward of New Jersey, are summering in Birmingham at Father Smith's, and enjoying the fine fresh air that Old Oakland is noted for.

Mrs. Roy Montgomery has just completed a course of instruction in the "First Aid to the injured" in the Detroit branch of the American National Red Cross.

Mrs. Otto Kurth observed the opening day of the new Postoffice, by sending in to the house, a very handsome and generous boquet of flowers which are appreciated by all. Thank you.

Maymo Nazzotane of Detroit arrested by deputy sheriff George Stephenson, on a charge of being disorderly, was arranged before Justice Campbell, Monday. He pleaded guilty and was let off on suspended sentence, Monday by paying $8.15 costs.

Deputy Sheriffs Mack Hunt and Earl Fairbanks arrested Alfred Palton, L. K. Paul and L. S. Nash, of Detroit. They were each fined $20.60 Tuesday in Justice Campbell's court, for speeding. Walter Collins and Lewis Kroft were fined $19.60 for speeding on a motor cycle.

Miss Martie Sly caused the whole D. U. R. to stop, look, listen and back-up, when she, is throwing some candy to a friend in the car, threw her hand-bag out of the window. Being a family (Sunday School) excursion the conductor did as he was bid by the excited loser.

C. G. Moon, a D. U. R. conductor, made a complaint recently against J. D. Murdock and W. L. Poates, both of Pontiac, each on a charge of being intoxicated while passengers on a D. U. R. car. They pleaded guilty in Justice Campbell's court, and each was let off on suspended sentence by paying $8.40 costs.

Dr. George B. Clarke has returned from a weeks trip to Columbus, Ohio, where he attended the annual convention of the American Osteopathic Association. Dr. Clarke gave an address before the convention at its closing session, on the subject of "Imatators of Osteopathy." He has been reappointed chairman of the Bureau of Statistics of the Association for the coming year.

Heres some news. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hendrick, (she who was Lucy P. Ward) are now settled and happy in their new home, 960 Cass Avenue, where they will be pleased to have their friends call and see them. Our best wishes for their success in the big city. Mrs. Morgia Ward came to Detroit with them, but was called to Washington, D. C., by the illness of Mrs. Stella Ruckman, who was to undergo a serious operation.

Deputies Mack Hunt, Earl Fairbanks and W. A. Putnam made complaints recently against E. H. Griffeth, Leo Karschnack, Frank Gmeier, D. R. Dupes and Campbell Bradshaw, all of Detroit, each on a charge of violating the automobile speed law. They had their hearing in Justice Campbell's court, and pleaded guilty. Griffeth, Gmeier and Dupes, each paid a fine of $15 and $5.60 costs. Karschnack and Bradshaw each paid a fine of $10 and $5.60 costs.
