One day recently two ladies from Lansing, passing through our pretty village were attracted by the rambler roses growing on the east and south side of the home of George R. Daines. They called at the door and asked permission to photograph them, which was cheerfully granted by Mrs. J. M. Clement, who is justly proud of the ramblers. The photo will be colored and given to the public in the movies. Both bushes are about 8-years old. The one on the east side of the house is crimson, and the other a pink colored flower. Both are beautiful and this year exceed in richness and profusion of blossoms any former year. Walk around that way and see for yourself.

ROSELAND PARK

One of the Beauty Spots Near Birmingham. Largest Monument in Michigan is Erected.

One of the beauty spots near our Village just at this season of the year, is Roseland Park Cemetery. If you haven't visited there this summer, don't neglect to do so at your earliest opportunity.

At the main entrance you will find new effects in perennial border planting with new designs in the annual bedding plants which are always attractive.

As you pass through this main entrance and north of the office building, a handsome floral monument attracts your attention. This piece of floral art was designed by Mr. Wendorph, Superintendent, and stands four feet six inches high, and is entirely of flowers, such as red and yellow alternate anthera, lobelia and sweet alyssum, the whole being artistically arranged.

As you wend your way along the main drive to the beautiful floral circle you find beds of roses, just now at their best. At the floral circle many rare and attractive plants have been added.

Just beyond this circle stands the family Mausoleum of William Herber, which has been erected during the past winter and built entirely of Barre granite and bronze trimming.

It is well known that Roseland's Community Mausoleum contains more compartments than any Mausoleum in the United States, while perhaps it may not be the most costly one.

But to emphasize the fact that Roseland has become one of the popular burial parks of this vicinity, and to impress upon the public the confidence established in the management, Roseland can now boast of the largest monument on its grounds that has ever been brought into Michigan. This beautiful piece of art, weighing 24 tons and standing seven feet six inches high has just been placed on the family lot of Mr Charles Inch, and Mr. William Rambau, of Pontiac, Mich.

Messrs. Inch and Rambau are well known monumental firm of that city, and selected their family plot at Roseland several years ago in one of the finest locations in the Cemetery. The placing thereon of so magnificent a monument not only adds to the beauty of the surroundings but is a tribute to the confidence which Mr. Inch and Mr. Rambau have in the Association. It may be interesting to know that the base of this memorial measures 7 by 11 feet, and the complete stone is highly polished.

Mr. Inch was asked by the writer as to the probable cost of the monument and was told that they could not duplicate it for less than $5,000.

Many other attractive monuments have been erected the past season; among which is the beautiful Roman Cross of Barre granite on the Otto Kurth family lot.

Muscle Soreness Relieved.

Unusual work, bending and lifting or strenuous exercise is a strain on the muscles; they become sore and stiff; you are crippled and in pain. Sloan's Liniment brings you quick relief; easy to apply; it penetrates without rubbing and drives out the soreness. A clear liquid, cleaner than mussy plasters or ointments, it does not stain the skin or clog the pores. Always have a bottle handy for the pains and aches of rheumatism, gout, lumbago, la grippe, stiffness, bruises, backache, and all external pain. At your druggist's, 25c.—Adv.
