While every business not excepting the printery, has been stung by abuse of the credit system, not one has suffered more than the garage men of Birmingham. Thousands of dollars are outstanding, much of which will never be collected, thus killing the net profits of practically the net bookings. Now they have turned over a new leaf, and commencing today carowners and operators will have to "pay as you enter." On and after today, garage proprietors pay as they go, and all who do business with them must do likewise. Let the good work go on.

All of our business places are strictly observing the 9 hour law and the Monday all-day-out-of business. Thats right, shows a desire to be lawful abiding citizens and a willingness to do all in our power to "Win the War." If we all cannot shoot, we can all do our bit at home to help on the good work.

Volney Nixon and the good wife never said a word to anybody, but just quietly took a hand-bag and a grip and set sail South landing in Orlando, Fla., where all is well with them. We had hoped before this to have received at least one more of Vol's interesting letters telling of his acts down at Orlando.

A card from Mrs. Frances J. Bowers (Mrs. H. J.) who is now at Los Angelee, California, tells of her living in sunshine, eating strawberries, and of a 70 mile auto ride on one day when she visided the soldiers in Camp at Camp Toponot. And here we are right now, 8 below zero, snowing hard and a 40 mile gale helping things along, and no coal. Can you beat it?

Mr. Howard Wendorph of Roseland Park Cemetery, was surprised by 20 of his friends Wednesday evening January 23; at his home, the occasion being his 20th birthday anniversary. The evening was very pleasantly passed by playing progressive pedro, and the high honers of the game were carried away by Mr. Ernest Morcow of Birmingham and Miss Helen Davis of Pontiac, and the consolation prizes were awarded to Allen Brown of Birmingham and Miss Marion Rodgers of Pontiac. The guests present were from Pontiac. Warren and Warren.

Dr. W. F. English, who has charge of the bureau of public health and sanitation in connection with Battle Creek and Camp Custer, in a recent news paper interview praised the city of Battle Creek for the work done there to safeguard the health of the soldiers. A new phase of the work in combatting the spread of dangerous disease, which Dr. English specifically mentioned, is the examination of persons handling food in all restaurants, bakeries and candy shops. What Battle Creek has found good for the soldiers every other city in Michigan would find good for the general public, the Michigan Anti-tuberculosis association believes. The powerful motive of patriotism has provided a fair chance for service of this kind on the part of a community. If it had not been for the fact that the average American thinks that nothing is too good for the American soldier, there would have been much more difficulty in having the experiment tried out. But since it has now been tried out, it should become one of the permanent contributions that the war preparations will make the American life, the association believes. It will safeguard the health of soldiers not only, but of men, women and children everywhere. Such diseases as tuberculosis are spread to a considerable extent through infected food, and mere safeguards should be thrown around eating places not only in a military camp city but in all cities.

Only 18 real working days in February—if the fuel orders are obeyed.

The Woman's Literary Club will meet at the home of Mrs. C. C. Osborne, 104 Merrill Street, Tuesday, February 5.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Book of Harrisburg, Pa., are visiting the latters mother Mrs. Henry Spicer on Martin Street.

In the office of nearly all fuel dealers is displayed the legend: "Coal is Cash." But on the other hand cash is NOT coal.

Mrs. Henry Spicer, Sr., will return home with her daughter, Mrs. E. I. Book to Harrisburg, Penn., and will not see Birmingham again until the need of coal is past and the robins again have gone to house-keeping.

Mary E. Utter has been testing out Miami, Florida, and this beautiful southern city gets her o. k. She is now back at Orlando. She writes of the unusual cold weather for that country. Well, she hasn't got anything on us for we are having the same complaint, only our records from zero down into the basement.

Will R. Deer is at St. Petersburg, Florida, commencing business with pleasure and a good time all around. Charles D. Miller and E. C. McBride put him almost at the head of the biggest and best tonsorial parlor in the South and W. I. immediately and at once made good. There are about 30 Birmingham people at St. Petersburg. Hurrah!

"You could have pushed me around with a feather"—says Mrs. E. I. Book, a visitor here with her mother Mrs. Henry Spicer, Sr., "when my son Gordon came home one night and says, "Mother, I belong to the U. S. Army now, I've enlisted." "With all my sadness, still I couldn't help but feel proud of the boy." It was a fact—only 19 the lad had passed an "A1" examination and was a regular soldier boy.
