Travels of the Potato.

It is believed that potatoes were first grown in South America and that the conquerors took them back to Europe when they overran Peru. Potatoes were later introduced to Italy, France, England, Ireland and to North America, in the order named.

Fake "Josses" for Travelers.

Canton and Amoy supply travelers and curio dealers with quantities of fake gods. Known to the trade as "josses," they are made of clay and sold by the dozen to any other trade. Business dealers have got hold of a great variety of fake gods, used for example as the "figure" with the face of a fortune teller.

Most of them are of clay, turned out in wooden or metal molds, painted in various colors and allowed to dry. A fine export Chinese work-man can turn out a clay god in a couple of minutes apiece. The best work of American tourist pays 45.

Real josses only be worth a lot of money, especially if carved out of jade. This is a material greatly prized in the orient, and a fine jade idol costing $1.25 and as many dollars is has been known to sell for $10.

The present returns to the concessionaires do not justify operation of the mine.
