STATE NEWS BRIEFS

Caledonia—Joseph Snyder, a farmer, died at his home of sleeping sickness after a short illness.

Bessemer—Axel Anderson, caught in falling underground timbers in the Colby mine, was instantly killed.

Charlotte—Business of more than $500,000 was done by the Square Deal Co-Operative Shipping Association of Charlotte during the year ended Feb.

Grand Rapids—Thirty-three persons, nurses and attendants at Butterworth Hospital were poisoned by eating corned beef. All recovered within a few days.

Houghton—Joseph Freeman, 81, the first white child born in the present city of Flint, where his father was a pioneer Methodist missionary, is dead.

East Lansing—The Michigan State Grange and the Michigan Agricultural College are about to launch a state-wide campaign to secure definite information on farm production costs.

Iron Mountain—Edward Berg, 11, was killed by a falling tree which struck him on the head. The boy was helping his father cut down the tree and a strong wind split it in two.

Manton—This village is without lights or adequate water supply because the power dam on Cedar creek has gone out. Muskrats are believed responsible for a break under the spillway.

Holland—Miss Alice Vandenbrink, living near Waukazoo, suffered a deep gash in her forehead when she cranked the engine attached to a washing machine. The engine backfired and the crank struck her.

Sault Ste. Marie—It is predicted that the 1920 season of navigation will be late in opening, due to ice conditions. River ice is much heavier than usual for this time of the year, and it will take much warm weather to break it up.

Kalamazoo—Paul Sanders, a paper mill employe, exhibited a roll of bills at a crowded cigar store, and after making a purchase started for home. Half an hour later he reported to the police that he had been knocked down and robbed.

Saginaw—Saginaw is a third of another large industry through announcement made by Frank W. Ruggles, president of Republic Motor Truck company, that he had bought a site of 80 acres and that in the spring a plant would be constructed.

Pontiac—R. J. Coryell of Birmingham has been named secretary-treasurer of the Oakland county farm bureau and will have general charge of the activities. Incorporation of the bureau as a buying and selling organization to handle farm produce is under way.

Detroit—Should the United States ratify the League of Nations, the fight for the freedom of the Irish people would be lost forever, was the statement made by Havelock J. Northmore, attorney, in a speech before members of the Robert Emmett branch of the Friends of Irish Freedom.

Detroit—Entering the near-beer saloon of Alex Lorenzewicz, 1369 Twelfth street, shortly before noon, a bandit beat the proprietor on the place over the head with a blackjack and walked out with the contents of the cash register, $7, leaving Lorenzewicz unconscious behind the bar.

Holland—The first specimen of land-locked salmon, planted by state department in Black Lake several years ago, was caught in a net lifted by carp fishermen in Pine creek. It was 20 inches long and weighed three pounds. The fish was sent on request to state fish department at Lansing.

Kalamazoo—A night school has been established by the Bryant Paper Co., and two teachers engaged to take charge of the classes, which will be for the study of English, and meet Wednesday and Friday nights. One class is for men who are seeking naturalization and the other is a primary class.

Detroit—Two men approached Ernest Jodlyn as he was sitting in his automobile parked in front of his home, 105 Seebaldt avenue, at 10 p. m., and covered him with revolvers. While one lounged against the machine with his revolver handy, the other took the seat beside Joslyn and went through his pockets, obtaining $50.

Detroit—Wasyl Hrycay, who has been sought for 11 years as the alleged slayer of Paul Walachinski during a fight at Frederick street and St. Aubin avenue, November 12, 1909, has been located on his farm at Frisco, Wisconsin. Hrycay will not be arrested on the charge, as the only witness to the crime has since died.

Lansing—Another old soldier has been awarded bounty and interest, by the board of 1919, to be paid to those who did not receive their original bounties 50 years ago. Stuben Fillins, who is a janitor in a school house at Coldwater, was awarded bounty of $150 and interest of $195, a total of $345. He enlisted as a private in Company C of the Eleventh Michigan infantry on February 13, 1865, at Three Rivers.

Scottville—Charles Smith, residing on a farm at Indian Bridge, was mysteriously shot while watching a fire destroy his home. His son, Fremont, had built a fire in the range and hurriedly afterward an explosion. With his clothing afire he plunged into a snowbank. The explosion set the house aflame. Mr. Smith was standing in the snow several rods from the burning building watching the fire when a piece of lead struck his shoulder. It is believed a hand grenade which hung on the wall had exploded, scattering its pieces of shrapnel about.

Newly Painted Windows.

To prevent newly painted windows from sticking, open and run them up and down two or three times a day for three or four days. Unless this is done the windows are almost bound to stick. Always paint them as early as possible in the day so as to give them a chance to dry before you fasten them at night.

Unhappy Family Connections.

I believe that [illegible] family connection unduly [illegible] people hang together artificially who would never naturally do so. I [illegible] tain my father, after he was [illegible] did not wish to see my grandfather. Speaking for myself, I have no wish to see my father again.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

Discovery of Asphalt.

Asphalt, with which so many roads are paved, was found by accident. For a century in Switzerland natural rock asphalt was used to extract the rich stores of bitumen it contained. It was noticed that pieces which fell from the wagons and were crushed by the wheels formed a marvelously fine road and this led to its adoption as a road material.

How to Tell Sapphires.

A really good sapphire looks a little blue by artificial light as well as daylight; some stones have a trace of black, and some red, the latter making them resemble amethysts, especially in lamplight, or sunlight.
