a TRIAL will Convince you

AD-ITORIAL

All we ask is an opportunity to prove to you that we want your business and will render you a service that merits it.

We can't convince you without the trial. In your own interest why not give us this chance? You are the judge and jury.

KELSEY & GARRETSON'S QUESTION BIRD

Where can I find a cool, comfortable spot?

Answer:- Our Soda-fountain's known as a Summer resort.

YES, OUR Soda Fountain is becoming famous as a summer resort. The spirit of winter time sparkles in the cooling drinks served at our spotless fountain. The purity of our syrups and the politeness of our service add to the attraction of our beverages.

COUNCIL CORNERS

Mrs. Martzlufft, who has been sick for the past three months, has returned home from the Highland Park hospital and is beginning to take an active part in lodge and community work as before.

The Council Corners Booster Club has been reorganized and Fred Reams elected as president.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley of Leroy avenue, are the proud parents of an infant son, born Saturday, July 30th.

Clarence Metzenger of School street, is suffering from a fracture of the skull, received at work for the Fisher Body Co. He is doing well at present, as no complications have as yet set in.

Mrs. George Asper of Buffalo, and Mrs. Ida Ganske of Jamestown, N. Y., who were called here by the serious illness of Mrs. Martzlufft, have returned to their homes.

Mack Borlondes, who has been renting the Green house, has bought and moved his family into the place formerly owned by Mr. Stace in the next subdivision.

Mr. Ball is talking of putting up a bakery on the corner of Main street and Maple road.

Mr. Smith has completed his new building of cement block and announces that he will rent it for a shoe or meat market. Either would prove a blessing to our community, as we are compelled to go to Clawson or Royal Oak for the smallest kind of a purchase.

Mrs. McKenna has returned home from the Harper hospital with a fine baby boy. Both mother and babe are doing fine.

Harry Barnett of School street, brought his bride to his house, which has been closed for some time, and they will make their home here.

LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Anson McCorquodale and family, who left Birmingham in fall to reside in Detroit, have returned the past week and will reside in the village at their old home on Henna street until the middle of September. Mrs. McCorquodale stated this week that their intention was to sell their home and return to Detroit to live. of Ionia, Mich., has been in Birmingham for the past few days visiting Mrs. A. J. Ashdown of East Maple avenue.

Leslie Friend has gone to the home of his grandmother at Racine, Wis., where he will stay until the first of September when he will return to Birmingham for the opening of school.

The Misses Ella and Lelah Davenport of East Maple avenue, are taking the Alpena boat trip, which extends over a period of one week.

BIRTHS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Brenson Gamber of George street, a daughter, Eula, August 4.

BROWN'S SHOE HOSPITAL
Corner Pierce and Maple

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

Mrs. Ed O'Neil: "As collector of dues for the local Cemetery Association, I wish the members would send in their dues without being called upon to do so."

Miss Susan Trowbridge: "The 'We Heard It Said By' column that has recently been created in the Birmingham Eccentric is one of the best features of the paper at present. In my own case, I look for it the first thing. It seems to give such a personal touch to the sheet, a 'soul' as it were."

William Hunt: "I want to thank the people of Birmingham and near by for the wonderful sympathy shown during my recent illness. If it had not been for the help I received in so many different ways and from so many different persons, I feel sure that my recovery would have been prolonged, if it had come at all. I also want to thank the Village Commission for allowing the streets to be blocked during the most serious part of my illness. I can never forget the kindness everyone expressed, and I am truly grateful."

A. V. Lee, president of the Birmingham Golf Club: "The work of laying out the second 18 holes of the course has been completed by Thomas Bendlow, who came here several weeks ago from Chicago. The actual work of the same is under way and is rapidly progressing. Mr. Bendlow stated that he believed there remained room enough for an additional nine holes when they were needed. That time, of course, depends entirely upon the increase in membership. The membership fee has been raised to $300."

MRS. BROOKS ENTERTAINS

The color scheme of soft yellow was charmingly carried out in the decorations at the home of Mrs. Eugene Brooks, North Woodward avenue, Thursday noon, when she acted as hostess to a number of her relatives. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock and the following guests who were seated, were members of the old Martin family of Troy, Mich. They were Mrs. Isabelle Harris of Ann Arbor and her daughter, Mrs. Lena Bocy, and her daughter; Mrs. Rhoda Skinner and her daughter; Mrs. Joseph Earp, Mrs. Martha Dewey, Mrs. Miner Spencer, all of Birmingham; and Mrs. Lillian Moore and daughter, Esther Hitchcock of Washington, D. C. Mrs. Brooks was a very charming hostess and following luncheon, entertained her guests with a musical program.

Following several years' residence in the village, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Schwanbeck and family, 402 Knox street, have gone to California to make their home. Miss Schwanbeck and her brother were two of the most popular members of the younger set in the village during their stay here. Mr. Schwanbeck was a member of the graduating class of the Baldwin high school last June.
