PERSONALS

Governor Alex J. Groesbeck and Mayor James Couzens of Detroit, have been selected to officiate as Head Judges at the Birmingham and Royal Oak Winter Sports Carnival to be held at Wing Lake, Monday, January 2. They have been sent invitations to attend by Guy Lyman, chairman of the committee and, as both the Governor and the Mayor are great boosters for good, clean amateur athletics, it is expected that they will accept. The first prize for the fat men's race is a baby pig, educated near Birmingham.

The Perfection Rug Works, located near Royal Oak, announces to Birmingham people that they are now in a position to clean both domestic and Oriental rugs in the most modern fashion. In their advertisement in the Eccentric this week they offer to clean small rugs free of charge, just to prove to people that they are capable. It is their intention to establish an agency here, where orders may be left for future work.

Tickets for the informal dance to be given New Year's Eve by the University Women of Birmingham at the Oakland Hills Country Club will be obtainable from any of the members. Mrs. Gay Wesley and Mrs. John Watling are in charge of the affair. Inasmuch as the proceeds from the dance will go toward the Scholarship Fund of the Baldwin High school, a large attendance is expected.

Kimball Phonographs

In Quality of Tone the KIMBALL Stands Supreme

The best way to learn the real merit of a phonograph is to put it to the actual test of reproduction. We invite comparison of the KIMBALL tone with that of any other phonograph on the market. Test the KIMBALL with the records of the human voice in song or speech — musical instruments in solo or ensemble —try it in every possible way and you'll marvel at its natural tone-qualities.

In visible beauty, durability of construction, modern mechanical refinement, ability to play every make and size of record without extra attachment—everything that goes to make up the ideal phonograph—the KIMBALL stands unrivalled.
