Mr. GLADSTONE'S franchise bill, which the lords have agreed to pass, makes every householder a voter. In a few years England will be a republic, and remaining safe - a short one in an universal manhood suffrage.

The Smithsonian institution at Washington has recently received a communication from F. Minkiewicz of Russia, who offers to transmit the manuscript, in Russian, of an original, ancient, eulogistic, acrostic poem on George Washington. The poem was accidentally discovered in a book of paper by the author in that country. He asks for the original manuscript $80.00, but will take $3,500 for a copy. It has been suggested that it might be purchased for an appropriate notice in the Washington Inventor.

Almost every inventor has formed his brain with efforts to originate a car which will do business automatically and without any human aid in the roadway. The chief obstacle in the way of a successful automatic coupler is the various hinged cars. A Rockland, Me., man is said to have overcome this and is about to start one which will work on all kinds of the roads going out of Boston and if it all that is claimed for it, the Rockland man will have a great triumph when these things are so far, sometimes, they are thought to be.

An old soldier of Baltimore claims to have in his possession a letter which clearly proves that John Wilkes Booth did not assassinate Lincoln but that he was a personal revenge. It seems that Booth had a friend who was condemned to be shot as a confederate spy and that Booth, at the friend's behalf, Mr. Lincoln was cold, but after Booth had gone down on his knees and bathed Lincoln's hand in tears he released and permitted the friend to go. The next day Booth learned that the man had been shot, and he became of assassination which he afterwards fulfilled.

An excursion of several hundred ladies and capitalists from New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore will visit the World's Exposition at New Orleans on the 8th of January. W. H. reference to the recently published statistics of American interests in Mexico are in great jeopardy on account of the hatred entertained by people of that country toward the United States since the capture of General G. M. Miller, Minister, say the Mexicans are on the contrary very amicably disposed toward this country; that the interests of foreigners in Mexico, America included, would be ruined if the United States should continue to administer G. Cortez, who will protect with a strong hand their lives and property. The school of thought which is the only possible in Mexico, not only on account of the good sense of the people, but also by reason of the facilities enjoyed by the government to suppress its birth any government attempt.

PRELIMINARY measures for the incorporation of a school for Christian workers have been taken in Springfield, Mass. Prominent men in Springfield, Mass. and Boston are interested in the project. The school is to be conducted by Jan. I. under the presidency of the Rev. D. A. Hoop of Springfield assisted by an efficient corps of teachers. Present arrangements refer to the expense to be borne by the members of the board of trustees. The object is to train in two years' course of study young men of Christian character who wish to fit themselves for Sunday school superintendence, or other special work of Christian associations, pastors' lay assistants, Bible collectors and readers, and for by home mission work. The trustees are Messrs. J. W. Pentecost, Sanford and other prominent gospel workers, who say there is a positive demand for living wages for a large number of young men trained to this service.

It is said that 6,000 bottles of wine were imported from France by the late Senator Anthony. This may be an exaggeration, but the deceased Senator undoubtedly left a large collection of wines, bric-a-brac, nicknacks, books, and other articles of value.
