FOR SHERIFF

The greatest burden the people of Oakland County have to bear is taxation. The first step toward lower taxes is for all office holders in Oakland County to practice economy to the utmost. I maintain that the Sheriff's office can be conducted more economically and at the same time have better law enforcement in Oakland County. I believe that the Sheriff should be the man to do the most work of any one on the force as he is the one who gets the largest salary.

More ability and less politics are the greatest needs of the Sheriff's force. Too much time is spent by officials perfecting the political machine that is so dominant in Oakland County, which has never done anything for the public but pull their leg and in many cases interfered with the enforcement of law. Eventually circumstances will force the voters of Oakland County to break this machine. Why not now?

Kendall Fernald of Big Beaver, was taken to the Pontiac City hospital Monday, where he was operated on for appendicitis Tuesday. The operation proved successful and he is recovering very nicely and will probably be brought home some time next week.

IN MEMORIUM

William Ray Deer

William Ray Deer was born in Kent City, Mich., Aug. 16, 1892, the youngest son of William and Mary Deer. Coming to Birmingham to live when three years old, his entire life had been spent in this village, where he went to school and on growing to manhood, went into business with his father, continuing until his death. On Oct. 15, 1913, he was married to Marion J. Evans, his childhood's sweetheart, this love and comradeship lasting to the end.

Heavy is the grief of the wife, father, mother, brothers and sister, but the memory of love's sweet days, a faithful husband, loving son and brother, honored and loved by young and old, a lover of dumb animals and the weak, will prove a growing comfort in the days to come, and when the summons came, he met it as he did life, with a brave and smiling face, and no hesitation of going to the Home Beyond where his loved brother had gone a short time before.

Deceased was a member of Mr. Mallender's class of the M. E. Sunday school, also of Birmingham Lodge F. & A. M., No. 44.

Loved ones left to mourn are his beloved wife, Marion Evans Deer; William and Mary Deer, father and mother; Frank C. and Melvin J., brothers; Mrs. Evelyn Wheeler, sister; one nephew, five nieces and a host of friends.

In thee, O memory, fondly we cherish
Thoughts of the dear one we love.
Patiently waiting, waiting to meet him
In Heaven's mansion above.
Patient and loving, murmured, he never,
Faithful and brave to the end,
Death came to claim him, robbed us
of our treasure,
Dearer to us than a friend.
Tho' he has left us, still he is with us,
With us in memory's sweet dream,
Fond recollections bring him before
us,
Daily we whisper his dear name.

Wesley Gibbons is motoring to Marlette today to join Mrs. Gibbons, who has spent the past week visiting friends in that city. They will leave Marlette on Saturday for Cass City and expect to return to their home on Merrill street Sunday.

PERSONALS

A very delightful surprise was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Peterson of South Woodward avenue, last week, when a large number of friends rushed to the house and shouted "Surprise," the event being in honor of the twentieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Peterson. A very large crowd was present, the guests being from Birmingham, Pontiac and Keego Harbor. A very enjoyable program was arranged, the chief attraction being a mock wedding, the participants being Mrs. Peterson, as the "bride"; Mrs. Charles Moore, the "groom"; Mrs. H. A. Shook, the "father of the bride," who gave her away, and Mrs. Bertha Melvin, the "minister." Needless to say, those present had a very good time. A light lunch was served late in the evening. Mrs. Peterson was presented with a beautiful set of dishes.

Mrs. Harry Cockerline and son, Donald, of Pierce street, were visiting relatives and friends at Highland Park last week.

The masked ball which was to have been given at the Steve Hickmott home on the Squre Lake road Saturday, Oct. 31, has been postponed indefinitely on account of death in the immediate vicinity.

D. C. Davenport of North Woodward avenue, has been confined to his bed this week as the result of a general breakdown.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Howard Cox (Carrie Davenport) of Detroit, a nine pound baby girl, named Molly Jean.

Mrs. N. Shepherd of Pontiac, was a caller at the Joseph Eley home on Purdy street Thursday.
