OUR FIRST DEBATING VICTORY

Members of the high school debating squad are rejoicing over their first victory of the season, Wyandotte proving their victim in last week's clash. The team had previously debated on the negative side of the St. Lawrence waterway question, losing two decisions, but this time had the affirmative and came through in fine style. The decision was unanimous in our favor. Milton Mallender was at his best which means that he was a "bear cat." Oliman Burkman got out of bed and hobbled up on crutches, just to prove that a little thing like a game leg couldn't keep a "good man down," while our philosopher John Gore, under penalty of a heavy forfeit if he didn't "come through," really had a speech prepared much to the surprise and relief of the coach and the rest of the team. Our next and final debate is with Farmington there, Feb. 16, and we must win again to make the season a 50-50 proposition.

READING CONTEST

Last semester the 10B English Class had a reading contest. It was the first contest of this sort in the class.

The results were as follows:—Margaret Newman's side, 97 points; Helene Clarke's side, 87 points—Total 184 points.

Edwin Weaver scored highest for Margaret Newman's side, winning a total of 40 points while Violet Gross was a close second for the opposing side, winning 39. Edythe Barr and Arthur Hupp scored next highest on their respective sides.

The books read were chosen from the Hartford Reading Lists and each book counted 3, 4 or 5 points. As much interest was shown in this contest, there will probably be a similar one given this semester.

SALES CONTEST

The sales contest for "The Baldwinian," the high school annual, is now in full swing. This Annual promises to be the "best ever" for it is to contain pictures of all teams, societies and classes, also many pages of snap-shots and whole volumes of good literature. Our aim is to sell six hundred Annuals and the price is $1.75 unless there are six hundred sold, then the price will be $1.50.

The sales at the present time are: Seventh Grade, 3; Eighth Grade, 8; Ninth Grade, 17; Tenth Grade, 9; Eleventh Grade, 17; Twelfth Grade, 18.

A party is to be given to the class which sells the greatest number of Annuals, by the Seniors. Come on, townspeople, help us to make this book a success by buying an annual.

BIRMINGHAM WINS EIGHTH STRAIGHT BASKETBALL GAME

Port Huron high school basketers were matched against the fast Birmingham five Friday, Feb. 2, although Port Huron was a class A team and Birmingham a class B, the locals doubled the score, 30-15.

The visiting team was much heavier than the Maroon and White boys, but could not keep up the fast pace set them. Howe and Edwards, the two midget Birmingham guards, worked well together. Howe caged six baskets from the field and Edwards, although he did not make a field basket, threw 12 out of 12 free-throws. If the Port Huron team had had a man that could shoot fouls like this, the scores would have been about even for several fouls were called on the Birmingham players of which the opposing team made a very small percentage count. Some mention should be given the Birmingham guards, Symons and Patenaude, for their good defense work. These two are the fighting men on the squad, and when they see a chance to do some good, no matter how small, they are right there.

Toward the end of the game, Birmingham put in a full line-up of subs. This line-up did not get a chance to warm up, for they were only in for two minutes, but they scored two points, and held their opponents scoreless until the final whistle blew.

This is the eighth straight victory for the Birmingham team. Come out next Friday and watch them beat U. of D. High.

BIRMINGHAM K. P.'S WIN FROM SECOND TEAM, 6-14

The preliminary game Friday, Feb. 2, was between the Birmingham K. P.'s and the B. H. S. second team. Although the K. P. boys won, they had a real battle, and not until the final whistle blew did they feel safe. The lodge boys got away to a good start, Moore making four baskets in succession. These four counters helped a great deal for without them the second team would have undoubtedly fought harder and the game would have been even more close.

Losing this game did not at all discourage the second team men, for the boys they played against have all been on the Birmingham first squad a few years back. The second team will probably challenge the K. P.'s to another game before the season closes and will try to square things up with them.

MEOW MURDER ONLY A HOAX

There seems to have spread a report in Birmingham that some of the high school boys are deliberately and maliciously killing stray cats in the village, said cats to be used in class work for purposes of vivisection. Curiously enough, several ladies have missed their feline pets while others are guarding their with the greatest precaution from there would-be murderers. But rest assured, dear readers, nothing like the foregoing is taking place. Vivisection is not practiced in the high school and Mr. McBain, who last semester was an instructor in physiology, is too tender-hearted to even harm a cat.

BASKETBALL NOTES

Feb. 2nd the Birmingham girls journeyed to East Lansing to play one of their hardest games, and defeated them 27-24. This was an intensely interesting and fast game and both teams made a fine showing. The heavy shooter for Birmingham was Ducky Rosto who shot 10 out of 10 fouls.

The game was very rough due to a small floor and the fact that the court was bounded by stone walls from which the ball bounded and was not considered as out.

Several players on both teams were put out for personal fouls. The substitutions for Birmingham were Cook for Taylor, Haack for McQuater, Groves for Berz and Pole for Taylor.

Our girls were not without rooters. Oh, no! the M. A. C. students cheered them to victory, and certainly showed them they could play real basketball.

Everyone enjoyed the trip, especially the going and coming on the train, the enthusiastic bunch of Birmingham girls kept the passengers on the train well entertained with songs and yells.

The people of East Lansing were very hospitable and the girls were well taken care of and entertained.

Let's only hope the good luck of Birmingham girls keeps up, the home crowd is with us.

CHICAGO LYCEUM PLAYERS TO BE HERE IN 3-ACT COMEDY, "SARAH SIDESTEPS"

Very Popular Number on Local Lyceum Course—Musical Program Included—Packed House Expected.

CHICAGO LYCEUM PLAYERS.

The Chicago Lyceum Players are an all-star group of professional dramatic entertainers and musicians. They will be seen here soon on the Lyceum course in the popular farce-comedy, "Sarah Sidesteps."

"Sarah Sidestps" is one of the cleanest and best comedies of recent years. It is especially adapted to lyceum conditions. The plot is so full of amusing situations and surprises that it is one gale of merriment from first to last. Sarah is the young, irrepressible daughter of an absent-minded professor, and is being reared by her aunt, a prim society lady. Sarah keeps the household in an uproar with her scatterbrained ways and her amazing genius for doing the wrong thing. Musical numbers are introduced by way of variety.
