SHAIN ADDS TO EQUIPMENT

For the past week Shain's Pharmacy on West Maple avenue has presented to callers a scene of more or less fevered activity. The very latest equipment in show cases has been added and the store now compares very favorably with the most modern metropolitan emporiums.

Mr. Shain asserts that together with the new fixtures, comes greater variety in several of his lines of merchandise. "For instance," said Mr. Shain, "we have just received a shipment of stationery from Eaton, Crane & Pike which we feel will offer to our patrons a selection so complete that the taste of even the most fastidious will find satisfaction in our display. It embraces box and pound paper of every grade and finish. We feel this will fill a real want, as the inquiries we have received within the past few months have shown us that the demand would justify a more complete stock of fine stationery."

According to Mr. Shain, stationery is only one of the lines to which he has added a greater variety.

"And," he said in conclusion, "I will say that all our departments will be additionally stocked as the demand requires, and we will always try to supply what our patrons desire."
