feature of the modern times. Vaudeville will also be shown in connection with the above feature.

For next Sunday only, April 12th the Al Christie super-comedy feature "Reckless Romance" will be the principal film feature. This is a fast and thrilling feature length comedy that will long be remembered as one of the season's biggest and best attractions. A special Vaudeville bill has also been booked in for this day only to be shown with this feature. The performance will run continuous on Sunday from 2:30 in the afternoon until 11 p. m. at night.

"Wine of Youth" a modern jazz flapper story and a great Vaudeville bill are the attractions the final three days of this week.

"HIGH STAKES" OFFERED NEXT WEEK BY BONSTELLE COMPANY

"High Stakes," the Willard Mack play of thrills, laughter and surprises, will be the offering of the Bonstelle Company at the Bonstelle Playhouse, starting Monday night, April 13th.

This interesting play, written in Mr. Mack's best style, scored at the Garrick a few weeks ago with Lowell Sherman playing the leading role. It is the story of a man of wealth who finally meets a young girl and falls in love with her. The play shows the early days of their married life, which is apparently ideal, with the young wife catering to every whim of her aged husband and demanding love and caresses. Joe Lennon, the never-do-well younger brother, scents something colorful and doubts the young wife. He sets about to uncover a sinister purpose behind her marriage to his brother, even distrusting a newly-made friend on the part of his brother—a Louis De Salda.

It would be spoiling good fun, thrilling surprises and sensation to tell the story. Mr. Mack has written at his best, using topical and epigrammatical dialog, and showing a keen insight into human natures of various sorts.

Mannert Kippen will have one of the best opportunities yet allotted him as Joe Lennon, while Gilda Leary will play opposite him as Anne Cornwall, the secretary; Eleanor Martin will play the young and scheming wife opposite Walter Sherwin as the husband, Richard Lennon; Lester Vail will have the role of Louis De Salda, the blackmailer and Walter Young will be seen as the servant.

WILLIAM HODGE'S "FOR ALL OF US" AT GARRICK THEATRE

William Hodge comes to the Garrick Theatre on Sunday, April 12, for a return engagement of one week in "For All of Us," his greatest laughing success. His coming here will be welcomed by many friends who learned to know his quaint and humorous delineation of Tom Griswald, the Irish ditch digger, when the play was last seen here. Since that time it also has played an entire season in New York, as well as long engagements in Boston and Philadelphia.

Mr. Hodge is seen as Tom Griswald, a grizzled laborer who has learned all the lessons that humiliation and despair can teach and has at the same time retained his penetrating humor. By chance, he is thrown into the household of a wealthy banker, whose mental and physical welfare have been wrecked, along with those of his wife and daughter, by the unhealthy intricacies of an aggerated civilization. Tom's steadfast life and quietly appealing personality unobtrusively win the affections of all three, and his influence straightens out completely the unhappy snarls of their lives.

Mr. Hodge is supported by the following excellent artists: Frank Losee, Charlotte Wynters, Marion Abbott, Frank Burbeck, Courtney White, Lucille Husting, Frank Charlton, J. Warren Lyons, Philip Dunning, and Jane Lambe.

TRULY BLUE

Your Eccentric's eccentrically void of news?
From our new Private Office it's just got the blues.
The editor sits in his easy chair
With blue paint trailing about in his hair.
Adrip are the walls with the self-same hue.
His floors are speckled a robin's egg blue.
The window, adorned, obstructs his view
Of doings outside. Let the staff beware
The editor so blue in his easy chair.
—L. Hastings.

There are 367,814 persons in Michigan between the ages of 25 and 29 years, according to a compilation by the health department.

Jackson county farmers last year produced $4,000,000 worth of products. Tame hay, which includes alfalfa, was the most valuable product. Corn and oats ranked next.

Detroit is the fourth largest user of invisible fuel—gas—in the world. Gas is used for enameling auto bodies as well as being the fuel that "breaks" in motors.

Red Crown is the thrifty man's gasoline because it burns clean—every drop is vaporized and converted into a steady, steam-engine-like drive of sustained pulling power.
Every gallon of Red Crown contains more miles, because of the unbroken flow of energy in its continuous chain of boiling point fractions—unbroken clear to the heavy ends—the power end of the chain.
Red Crown is a joy in action and a delight in economy—it saves miles; it saves repairs; it saves power; it saves your engine and avoids carburetor adjustments—because Red Crown distribution is universal. You will find Red Crown everywhere and everywhere the same.
On your vacation trip you will find Red Crown service is ahead of you throughout the ten Middle Western states.
