Country Clubs Open Spring Season With Varied Festivities

Spring officially arrives in the village and Hills with the opening of the country club scattered through the Hills. This year, however, the official opening of the season has been a prolonged affair, each club selecting quite varied dates. The Bloomfield Country club entertained formally at an opening party several weeks ago, as did the Birmingham Golf club. Sunset Hills club has remained open all winter and can claim no formal spring opening. Tomorrow evening Oakland Hills Country club and Pine Lake Country club are drawing large groups from the Birmingham colony at their opening dinner dances. At Oakland Hills the affair will be in the nature of an informal dance and a number of Birmingham people have reserved tables. Among the village and Hills people who have made reservations at Pine Lake Country club are many of the young married set. This is to be a formal dinner dance and will likely be the most important social function of the club during the season.

WEDDING FOR MISS ELSIE VHAY MAY 30

Miss Elise Vhay, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Vhay of Bloomfield Hills, is the first bride of the season to make known her wedding plans. She has selected May 30 as the date for her marriage to Charles Thorne Murphy, of New Haven, Conn.

She has asked her sister, Miss Lillian Vhay, to attend her as maid of honor and two other sisters, Miss Delphine Vhay and Mrs. Ward Duckett, as bridesmaids. Little Miss Delphine Duckett, a niece of the bride, will be the flower girl.

The ceremony is to be very simple and will be performed at 12 o'clock noon in the quaint Holy Name Chapel by Rev. W. W. Ryan. A reception at the Vhay home will follow. Mr. Murphy has selected Dean Robinson of Lone Pine Road to perform the duties of best man and George Murphy and Jimmie Vhay will assist in seating the guests, as well as two friends of Mr. Murphy's who will come on from the East for the nuptials.

At Pythian Sisters Meet

Many familiar faces were noticed at the State Convention of the Pythian Sisters in Pontiac yesterday. The program lasted throughout the day and among the Birmingham women at the various sessions were Mrs. Sarah Symons, Mrs. T. C. Hoteling, Mrs. John Baird, Mrs. Nina Walker, Miss Florence Wendorph, Miss Margaret Peterson, Mrs. Jennie Schug, Mrs. Wilma Kelly, and Mrs. T. C. Moore.

Youngs Have Sold Home.

Dr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Young have sold their home "Yorba Place" on South Woodward avenue at the Thirteen Mile Road and last week moved to a new apartment in Detroit. The Robert Johns, of Detroit, have bought the home and will be at home there about May 10, after a period of alterations. Dr. and Mrs. Young with their family have resided near Birmingham for many years and their absence is keenly felt.

Bridge-Luncheon.

With a bridge and luncheon, Mrs. Harry Starr of Worth street, entertained members of her bridge club at the Lone Pine Tea House last Friday afternoon. Covers were laid for twelve at small tables in the west sunroom.

Marriage Announced.

At a beautifully appointed dinner at the Woman's City Club last Friday night, for members of the immediate family and a few friends, announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Katherine Bromley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Bromley of "Uplands," Bloomfield Hills, to Donald Sanderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Sanderson of East Jefferson avenue, Detroit.

Lunch in Rochester.

Several of the village matrons were among the guests at a bridge luncheon on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Bell Butts of Rochester. Guests from Birmingham included Mrs. A. D. Jardine, Mrs. Ernest C. Burtraw, Mrs. Grace Todd, Mrs. A. E. Rosso, Mrs. Ernest Marrow, Mrs. Harry Todd, and Mrs. George Newman.

Sixty Guests at Tea.

Among the more elaborate affairs was a tea given the latter part of this week by Mrs. Cecil F. Charleton of Randall avenue, when about sixty guests were entertained at her home. Attractively arranged spring flowers gave a charming atmosphere to the occasion.

Visiting Daughter.

Mrs. Clyde Hagerman arrived on Thursday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Albert A. Clark of Adams Road, from Ludington, Michigan. Mrs. Hagerman will spend about two weeks at the "Crow's Nest."

Entertain at "The Junipers."

Interesting events have been centering around Mrs. Tilghman E. Johnston who is the house-guest of Mrs. Charles E. Buck of Puritan avenue, from Wilmington, Delaware. On Saturday Mrs. Cyrenius Adelbert Newcomb entertained at "The Junipers" with a luncheon for Mrs. Johnston.

With Son at University.

Mrs. William M. Chamberlin of Ravine Road, is visiting her son, Elliott Chamberlin, of the University of Michigan over the week-end. Mrs. Chamberlin will spend Mother's Day with her son at the Beta Theta Phi Fraternity where a house party is being held over Sunday.

"Rotary Anns" May Form Organization

Definite steps to form a Rotary Ann Club will be taken Monday when the wives of the Birmingham Rotarians will hold a subscription luncheon at the noon hour at Northwood Inn. Immediately following the luncheon there will be a business session. Interest in the project has so increased during the past few weeks that a more definite organization is necessary. A decision on a date for the regular meetings of the club, the election of officers, and the forming of a few by-laws if found necessary, will occupy the business hour.

According to Mrs. George R. Averill, at whose home on Poppleton avenue a luncheon was held a month ago, all the Rotary Anns are desirous of meeting at various times, and the luncheon next Monday at Northwood Inn will be to determine plans for bringing them together at regular intervals. More than 25 are expected at the luncheon.

MRS. R. J. TAYLOR WILL GIVE TEA FOR GUEST

One of the promising events of the coming week is a tea next Monday afternoon when, at her home on Southfield avenue, Mrs. Roy J. Taylor will receive a number of guests to introduce her aunt, Mrs. George W. Hartsuch, of Indianapolis. Mrs. Taylor is including among her guests Mrs. Roy Montgomery, Mrs. George Forrester, Mrs. James Terry, Mrs. Ross Hutchinson, Mrs. C. H. Woods, Mrs. Robert McClellan, Mrs. Winnifred Burkman, Mrs. B. F. Brown, Miss Florence Brooks, Mrs. James Baird, Miss Olga Westenfelder, Mrs. Robert Chisum, Mrs. Gladys McCullum, and Miss Dena Hallock. Mrs. Hartsuch is spending the week here as the house-guest of Mrs. Taylor.

In North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Farrington Holt of Linden Road, are spending a fortnight in Asheville, North Carolina. Leaving Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Holt will return the latter part of next week.

At Book-Cadillac

Mrs. Richard C. Harrack of Wallace street was among the twenty guests of Mrs. William Gordon, of Detroit, last Thursday when she entertained at luncheon at the Book-Cadillac Hotel in Detroit. The luncheon was to introduce Mrs. Harrack and Mrs. Ernest Orr to a group of Mrs. Gordon's Detroit friends.

Returning From Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lathers are expected to re-open their home on Bloomfield Court within the next ten days following their return from abroad. For the past two months they have been sojourning on the European continent.

Miss Colton Returning

Miss Carol Colton, of Detroit, who has been in the east at school for the past year, is expected to arrive about May 10 to remain through the summer with a sister, Mrs. Benjamin Palmer, on Lone Pine Road. Miss Colton is well known in the school set here. She is coming here to recover from a recent illness and after a short period will probably be widely feted.

Guest of Mrs. S. Adams.

Mrs. William Hutchinson, of Detroit, was the guest of Mrs. Seymour Adams at her home on Adams Road the first part of the week, and on Tuesday was a guest of Mrs. Adams at the closing luncheon of the Woman's Literary club at Mrs. P. W. Parmenter's home on Crooks Road.

From Philadelphia

The Albert Waseys of Dorchester Road are expecting Mrs. Wasey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Roberts, to arrive early next week from Philadelphia, for a ten-day visit.

Reception at M. E. Church

Mother and Daughter week as a forerunner to Mother's Day is being observed by various social groups over the village. Tuesday evening Mrs. C. H. Holcraft, of Detroit, addressed a gathering of mothers and daughters in the parlors of the First Methodist church. The talk was an informal description of India with photos of the country taken by Mrs. Holcraft, herself who has spent some time in the East. After the entertainment the mothers and daughters enjoyed a reception with Mrs. Holcraft as the guest of honor.

Mrs. D. H. Ladd Hostess

Mrs. David H. Ladd is one of the prominent hostesses this week, entertaining today with a lovely bridge luncheon at her home on Madison avenue. She is planning on fourteen guests, which will include young matrons from the village and Hills. She is using the spring motif in decorating her rooms. An artistic arrangement of apple blossoms in bright bowls will be used throughout the house. Mrs. Ladd entertained last Friday with a similar luncheon.

Dinner Party Tonight

Miss Katherine Donnelly is to be hostess at a lovely dinner party this evening at her parents' home, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Donnelly on Vinewood avenue, for a number of the school set. Following the dinner the guests will adjourn to the Sunset Hills club for the Saturday night club dance. Miss Donnelly has included among her guests the Misses Delphine Vhay, Suzanne House, Nancy Atkinson, Lillian Vhay and Margaret Donnelly, and Messers Francis Rheams, Thornton Walker, Joseph Donnelly, Jimmie Vhay, Jack Thompson, and Morris Draper, Jr.

Coming on from New York City, Mrs. Helen DeBerg is spending a short time at the home of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. DeBerg. On Thursday a bridge luncheon was given in honor of the guest at the home of Mrs. DeBerg on Woodward avenue.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

(Little Editorials picked up by the Staff in and around Birmingham.)

Mrs. Arthur Hartwell, Secretary of the Community House Board: "We surely appreciate the fact that there is a place in the village where commercial printing is done quickly and very satisfactorily. At three o'clock we found ourselves out of subscription cards for the Community House Roll Call and telephoned a new order. At four o'clock I called at the Eccentric office and the five hundred cards were ready for distribution among the captains and their workers."

Mrs. J. J. Horsback, principal of the Junior High School: "People in general carry around with them the idea that misdeeds are to be punished and forget that virtues are to be rewarded as well. All of us do little enough of encouraging others. It is with the idea of stressing rewards for good qualities rather than punishments for crime that the honor roll system has been established in the junior high school, with rewards at the end of every five-weeks' period. It is also interesting to see the psychological effects that the system has on the students; a sense of self-respect as well as fear entering into the idea."

George P. Raynale, local physician and surgeon: "From statistics I have gathered, last year Birmingham provided about 20 per cent of the patients cared for at the Pontiac City hospital. This would undoubtedly prove that local and nearby people must be in accord with the building of a larger hospital in Oakland county."

Joseph Dagleish, 115 East Lincoln avenue, Eco City: "The people who live east of Woodward avenue in Eco City are realizing that they must form some kind of an organization to look after their interests. We have found that the Eco City Improvement Association is composed mostly of people who live on the west side of Woodward avenue, and that their interests lie chiefly in affairs of Bloomfield township. We, on the east side, are part of Troy township. Of course, many of both sides have common interests, but I believe that we should have an east side association."

T. D. Lynch, of Frank street: "I am heartily in favor of the village buying the block of land bounded by Bates, Chester, Merrill, and Townsend streets. Birmingham is growing very rapidly and we should have a municipal site for future public buildings. We should acquire land now, it is still reasonable in price. Anybody who attends a commission meeting here on Monday evenings may easily see that we need a new village hall, too. I am glad the commission is buying the block of land, and hope that the voters approve the $48,000 bond issue May 10."

MAPLE BRIDGE CLUB GAVE TEA ON FRIDAY

Japanese plum blossoms and fragrant currents gave a delightful air of spring to the bridge luncheon of the Maple bridge club in the Lone Pine Tea House last Friday. The luncheon was a novel idea with the club, whose affairs are usually limited to club members exclusively. At the luncheon Friday each member had the privilege of one guest. The hostesses, members of the club, included Mrs. S. D. Adams, Mrs. S. O. Wylie Bell, Mrs. Fred Crawford, Mrs. J. L. Campbell, Mrs. Charles Shain, Mrs. T. W. Miner, Mrs. W. B. Brown, and Mrs. T. B. Smith. Their guest list read Mrs. V. M. Hemstreet, Mrs. Clarence Vliet, Mrs. Earl Potter, Mrs. W. K. Poppleton, Mrs. Robert Porritt, Mrs. William McKinney, Mrs. Guy Jensen, Mrs. J. W. Parry, and Mrs. Arthur Hartwell.

The luncheon and bridge, that followed, were set in the East sun room "a" is a recent addition to the tea house.

A. A. A. W. Meeting

Activities in Women's clubs are gradually drawing to a close for this season. Announcement was made this week that the date for the final meeting of the Birmingham branch, American Association of University Women, has been set for May 20. This meeting will take the form of a luncheon and will be held at the home of Mrs. A. G. Osterman in Oak Knobs. Mrs. Osterman will have the members of the organization as her luncheon guests preceding the annual meeting in the afternoon.

Mrs. Ellen Peabody of Willets street is expected to arrive Sunday from St. Petersburg, Fla., accompanied by her grand-daughter, Miss Janet Ellen Peabody, who has spent the winter in Florida with her grandmother. Little Miss Peabody is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Peabody of Gilbert Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Peabody also spent the winter in St. Petersburg, returning a short time ago.

YPSILANTI PLAYERS WILL GIVE TWO PLAYS AT BONSTELLE MAY 8

The Detroit Alumnae of Collegiate Sorosis are bringing the Ypsilanti Players to Detroit for a special matinee performance at three thirty Friday afternoon, May 8 at the Bonstelle Playhouse. They will give Edna St. Vincent Millay's "TWO SLATTERNS AND A KING," and a dramatization of the "ANCIENT MARINER." The plays will be under the direction of Daniel Quirk, Jr., and association of sixty members and owns a playhouse made from an old barn where there are presented during the year five programs, each program playing six times.

The performance on May 8 will serve as an introduction of the Ypsilanti Players to Detroit, and it is hoped by their sponsors that this is only the beginning of a series in following years which will give Detroiters and suburbanites an opportunity to hear an organization that has achieved a national reputation in the short space of ten years. The Ypsilanti Players have done much to further the Little Theatre Movement of America.

Co-operating with the Detroit sorority members are: The Players Club, Detroit English Club, Trans League, Theatre Arts Club, Fine Arts Society and the Twentieth Century Club. Added to these are Miss Jessie Bonstelle, Miss Jeanette Liggett, Miss Mary Farnsworth, Miss Mercy Hayes, Frank Cody, Edwin L. Miller, and Frank G. Tompkins.

Miss Evangeline Lewis is general chairman of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Harold M. Hastings and Mrs. Donald Kotts, publicity, and Miss Isabel Knapp, tickets.

Patronesses for the performance include: Mrs. Vera Barbour, Mrs. Ward Detwiler, Mrs. H. Lee Simpson, Mrs. Zelner Dowling, Mrs. Charles Hatch, Mrs. George C. Forman, Mrs. Robert Laurence, and Miss Blanche Lane.

Collegiate Sorosis is entertaining the Players at the Women's City Club for lunch at which Mrs. Detwiler and Mrs. Dowling will be the hostesses. The College Club is giving a buffet supper at the Club house for the cast the evening of the 8th after the play.

After the matinee the Detroit alumnae are giving a dinner at the Women's Exchange for the Ann Arbor alumnae of Collegiate Sorosis as hostess.
